OHR BiH TV News Summary, 18 November 2000

TV BiH News Headlines:

- International conference marking 5th anniversary of Dayton Peace Agreement continues in Dayton; officials discuss future of Balkans and implementation of agreement in BiH (01:00)
- BiH must become country with clear competencies and strong central institutions – European Stabilisation Institute Director Gerald Knaus (03:52)
- NGOs of Croatia, BiH and Slovenia hold meeting in Zagreb Saturday to discuss methods of cooperation between these three countries (00:32)
- OSCE presents latest results of BiH elections at press conference in Sarajevo Saturday (02:25)
- SDA expresses concern over selective presentation of election results in news media, devlopment which could create false impression of new powers divisions in BiH – SDA press release, issued Saturday (00:25)
- HDZ BiH files complaint with EASC over election results as presented by OSCE Mission to BiH; HDZ claims it was robbed of more than 10,000 votes (00:32)
- OSCE denies reports that EASC penalized HDZ BiH for violations connected to party's campaign financing (00:28)
- World news
- OHR's decision to reinstate BiH Federation Chief Finance Inspector and his Deputy (Zufer Dervisevic and Miroslav Vidovic), previously dismissed by Prime Minister Bicakcic, to be discussed at BiH Federation Government's next session (00:20)
- Prostitution has become huge problem throughout BiH (03:20)
- Croat Cultural Society (HKD) Napredak holds two-day congress in Sarajevo this weekend (02:10)
- Sehic family in village of Celije, outside Bihac, turns house into museum filled with antiquities collected over 40 year period (01:50)