

Short History of OHR Tuzla Region

OHR Tuzla Office

The Tuzla office was opened in 1996 and functioned as a sub-Office to OHR Brcko until September 1st, 2002, when it became a Regional Office.

As a result of the International Community's streamlining policy, OHR Tuzla is sharing facilities with the Regional Office of the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE).

OHR Tuzla Regional Office oversees the Doboj and Srebrenica Field Offices, as well as the Admin staff based in Brcko. Its efforts aim at supporting the Dayton Peace Agreement's implementation and focuses on strategies and activities as defined in the OHR Mission Implementation Plan (MIP).

The area covered by the Tuzla Region is consisting of 48 municipalities. Specifically the area of Tuzla, Zenica-Doboj and Posavina Cantons in the Federation of Bosnia Herzegovina (FBiH), while in the Republika Srpska (RS) a large portion of Eastern RS and part of Western RS (i.e. from Doboj on the West, up to Samac and Brod on the North, Bijeljina on the East, Srebrenica down South) fall under OHR Tuzla Region Area of Responsibility (AoR). To be noted that Zepce municipality and its integration process is under international supervision by the OHR.

The main activities and objectives of OHR Tuzla Region:

- To ensure implementation of DPA according to the MIP
- Specifically, to monitor and enhance proper functioning of governments, both at cantonal and municipal level
- To entrench the rule of law
- To promote and facilitate economic revitalization
- And to co-ordinate the International Community regarding civilian aspects

There are currently 20 employees currently based in Tuzla Regional Office, three international and 16 national staff members.

OHR Field Office Srebrenica

The Srebrenica Field Office of the OHR is located in the municipality of Bratunac approximately 12 kilometres North of Srebrenica Town. It is co-located with a Field Office of the OSCE. Operational work is in accordance with Annex X of the General Framework Agreement for Peace (GFAP or Dayton Peace Agreement) and the programmes of the 2004 OHR Mission Implementation Plan (MIP) applicable at the field level.

Co-ordination of the activities of the civilian organisations and agencies in Bosnia and Herzegovina (see GFAP Annex X Article II para c) is of vital importance and OHR Srebrenica works in close co-operation with 2 Field Offices of the OSCE (Srebrenica and Bijeljina) and EUFOR, in order to ensure the efficient implementation of the civilian aspects of the GFAP.

Interaction with the local authorities at all levels is based on ensuring they take complete responsibility within their competencies and accept accountability as part of that responsibility.

The Office deals with all OHR business in the Municipalities of Bijeljina, Bratunac, Lopare, Milici, Osmaci, Sekovici, Srebrenica, Ugljevik, Vlasenica and Zvornik.

Currently OHR Srebrenica is staffed by one International, the Head of Field Office, and 4 National employees.
