Third round of SAA negotiations takes place in Sarajevo : 3 rd round of SAA negotiations started in Sarajevo ; accent on trade, industry, agriculture, customs and taxes	BHT1 by Marina Boskovic - Third round of technical negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement between BiH and the EU on matters of trade, industry, agriculture, customs and taxes has commenced on Thursday in Sarajevo, and will continue on Friday. BHT 1 comments the stances of EU and BiH regarding trade relations are getting closer, but the concrete agreements are yet to follow. After BiH signs the SAA, customs charges from a group of imported products will be immediately annulled. The second group of products will be charged with 5% and 10% customs rate. BiH wants to keep customs charges for some products as long as possible, in order to protect the domestic products. BiH Chief Negotiator Igor Davidovic said this refers mainly to domestic dairy products, however he adds the customs rates for this group of products BiH wants to protect by customs is too long. Head of Department for West Balkan in EC's General Directorate for Enlargement, Dirk Lange , explained that the EU countries are especially interested in one group of products, and they demand customs exemption for them. Local producers warn that the negotiations most not cause opening of market which would become engulfed by cheap products from developed countries. Savo Marijanac from BiH Chamber of Commerce said that it is necessary to make a detailed analysis and make a political decision on which economy branches are going to be protected. The fourth and final round of SAA negotiations is planned at the end of 2006. However, EU announced that many more compromises need to be reached in order to complete the negotiations. FTV – EC assessed that the technical negotiation process, and stresses PBS, public administration and police reforms must be completed. Glas Srpske pg 5 'Getting stances closer to each other' by Z_Domazet daily carries Lange as expressing hope that talks would end until the end of year, stressing in order to achieve this, "many compromises" should be made, Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'BiH insi

Ibrahim Okanovic, Chief Auditor in F BiH, has stated: "We have completed 47 Reports, out of which 18 were negatively assessed, 28 got conditional positive assessment, while one Report on Institute for Pension and Disability Insurance got assessment with reserve. "Vecernji List , pg 2 'Financial discipline better', by Fena - the audit report shows that the financial discipline in the public sector in the FBiH has improved with introduction of system of treasury, however the assessment by the FBiH Audit Office says the discipline is not good enough. Most irregularities and complaints are related to bad planning of budgets (by public institutions), system of internal control is weak, lack of mid and long term planning and violations of Law on public procurement. amendments to Law on CoM thus establishing two new Ministries; amendments passed without Serb Ministers	RTRS By Zorica Rulj – At its Thursday's session, Council of Ministers passed amendments to the law on CoM foreseeing establishment of two new Ministries i.e. BIH Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Rural Development and BIH Ministry of Science, Technology and Environment. Decision was made by majority of votes without support from Serb Ministers i.e. Serb Ministers voted against. The law also foresees the abolition of position of second deputy of BIH Defence Minister, thus ensuring national parity in future CoM convocation. CoM also defined transfer of authorities from OHR to local authorities regarding vetting procedure of candidates for CoM Chair, Ministers and their deputies. Reporter comments that the basic objection towards the establishment of 2 new Ministries is the fact that the competences of the Ministries were not determined. "Competences of new Ministries will be defined by a new law that is being prepared", says CoM General Secretary Zvonimir Kutlesic. Court re PBS will slow	enlargement Dirk Lange told DA that he is surprised that FBiH Constitutional down reforms	Court has passed a decision which is in contradiction with BiH CC's decision.
	This regard to FBiH CC ruling that FBiH Law on PBS is detrimental for Croat vital national interest. This Law was strongly supported by the EC and its passing was one of the main obligations for signing of Stabilization and Association Agreement. "Now we will have to analyse counts in which they believe that a problem exists. According to first reading of the decision, they say that possibility of discrimination is not ruled out, and not that there is discrimination," said Lange. He said that Law would now be returned to FBiH Parliament and stresses that this whole procedure would slow down reform process in BiH and influence the Report, which the EC would submit in October.
	If this Report should be negative the EC will not recommend signing of the SAA.

not think mufti Cerci was talking about me when criticising Bosniak politicians	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'I do not feel named in Islamic Community Leader's message' by Sefko Hodzic - BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic told daily that he doesn't feel the Islamic Community Leader Mustafa Effendi Ceric on Saturday talked about him when he was criticising Bosniak politicians at the opening of mosque in Glamoc on Saturday. Daily notes that 'many' believe that Ceric has talked about Tihic as a main culprit for things going on and decided to support SBiH leader Haris Silajdzic instead. "I see statement of Effendi Ceric as a concern expressed by the religious leader over disunity of Bosniaks, which is probably among other things, the consequence of [talks on] constitutional amendments and everything that followed after," said Tihic. He was very vague when answering whether Ceric supported Silajdzic, stressing that he think that Islamic Community should not be supporting any party. Inset 'It is pure nonsense to bring me in relation with fabricated processes'- Commenting recent speculations accusing him and SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija of fabricating political affairs, Tihic denied these allegations stressing in time of Lagumdzija's Government SDA was in opposition. "Those who are attacking me now, especially SBiH, were in coalition with SDP. Those papers that are now giving space to attacks on me and to those fabrications, are same that awarded Lagumdzija with "Man of the Year" award," said Tihic.

Among other things, Cengic asked Tihic whose end certificate was used for carrying out of this job? Which company carried the job out? How much money was gained trough this job? In what purposes the money was spent?
identification of perpetrators and those who ordered incidents across BiH, which increase during pre- election campaigns	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Dangerous games' by Dragan Risojevic – Writing about incidents taking place across BiH (reminding of incident at Konjevic Polje, Mostar, Banja Luka settlement of Vrbanja), the author notes that unfortunately these incidents take place across the state, noting there is not much ethnically mixed communities in BiH where incidents do not increase with approach of elections. Risojevic underlines the state apparatus – now more than ever before – must take with the issue and identify those who ordered these incidents and also penalise perpetrators of them. He also says great responsibility rests with media, who should be reporting objectively on these incidents rather than taking sides and hence pour more oil on the fire.

The author goes on to say that the July edition of a prominent magazine 'Le Monde diplomatique' analyzed the situation pertaining to situation in Kosovo, by warning that should Serbia get the RS as a sort of compensation for loss of Kosovo, it could cause big troubles for all the borders in the region.
	RHB- The Senior Deputy High Representative, Peter Bas-Backer , warned that the Law on Conflict of Interest should be amended by September, the spokesperson of the Banja Luka OHR, Ljiljana Radetic , said on Thursday. She said that PDHR deems there is obviously very limited time for the Transfer Agreement to be signed by both Prime Ministers, adopted by entity Parliaments, and then to go through the Parliament procedure at the State level. However, given the importance that the amended Law becomes applicable from the beginning of the new Assembly mandate of Cantons, Entities and State, the Ambassador is convinced that it is worth making extra-efforts. BHT1- RS Government should complete the necessary procedures for passing of these amendments in August. FBiH Government is expected to do the same already next week. BiH Council of Ministers should send the amendment to the Parliament Assembly urgently, so that the Assembly can pass them by September. Police reform
HR CSS' column in dailies: Police reform for safer life	Vecernji List, pg 6 'Police reform for safer life', mentioned on front 'Crime and corruption are scourge of BiH', by Christian Schwarz-Schilling – carries a column signed by the High Representative for BiH, Christian Schwarz-Schilling, in which he comments on the ongoing police reform in BiH, by underlining that the reform has to be implemented in order to provide better security to BiH families and have better structures in combating crime in general. The HR argues that the text of the Agreement of police reform was proposed by Milorad Dodik (the then and current leader of SNSD) and Dragan Cavic (leader of SDS and RS President), which was accepted by the FBIH-based parties and the IC. The HR continues: "In the Agreement, the authorities of Bosnia and Herzegovina and both entities also committed themselves to supporting the work of a Police Directorate, which would prepare an expert proposal on an implementation plan for restructuring the police system. The Directorate was duly established by a vote of the Council of Ministers last December. In this way, it was also endorsed by Serb Ministers nominated by the leading political parties in Republika Srpska. () By putting this plan in doubt, the authorities of Republika Srpska are risking delaying finalisation of the SAA, thereby setting Bosnia and Herzegovina back on the road to Europe. Police reform will re-enter the arena of political discussion after the Directorate finishes its work. Governments and parliaments will then adopt the final reform." Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 8 'Police reform for safer life' by Christian Schwarz Schilling , Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Police reform will help BiH to become safer', mentioned on cover 'I closely monitor how politicians act', by CSS – both carried op-ed by HR to BiH, Christian Schwarz Schilling, stressing the importance of police reform (same as in VL)

Dumancic: SB rejects idea of separate special police unit; to discuss model of police regions in September	Kalamujic – Former Chair of the Police Reform Directorate Steering Board, Vinko Dumancic, told daily that the plan under which the new police structure in BiH should have also included separate special police unit was rejected at the PRD SB's session on Wednesday. He explained that the special police unit will, after all, stay within SIPA, while only the director of the local police regions would have a separate support unit. PRD SB established the police of police organization at state level and it is expected to adopt it at the session on 16 August. After that, SB members are expected to start discussing local police region. In this context, Dumancic says that the SB on Wednesday gave green light to the Directorate's executive body to prepare the model of the local police regions to be discussed in September.
If we do our job by 30 Nov, we'll not be late for singing SAA; reform cannot be completed	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'We cannot finish without consent of politicians' by E. Sarac - Newly elected Chair of the Police Reform Directorate Steering Board, Sarajevo Police Commissioner Himzo Selimovic , told daily he believes that " relevant political factors will be responsible towards the citizens of this country and would find a compromise respecting three European principles. " He notes that the reform cannot be completed without consent of politicians. Commenting postponing a deadline for preparation of final police structure model until 30 November, PRD SB Chair says: "Having in mind all condition sunder which Directorate worked lately and the workload, all of us concluded that the original deadline [note: Sept. 30] cannot be met for objective reasons If we carry out our tasks by 30 November, we will not be late for signing the Stabilization and Association Agreement. However, we are aware of the fact that the final decision is with the relevant political factors, both executive and legal authorities. " Selimovic concluded he hopes to be succeed by the representative of Serb people.
deadline PRD SB just admitted trying 'fishing in troubled waters'	RHB- Commenting the extension of a deadline for creating the proposal of a model for the future police reform, unnamed SNSD representatives stressed that – by extending deadline – 'self-proclaimed' Police Reform Directorate practically admitted that it tried 'to fish in troubled waters', adding that domestic and foreign troublemakers obviously did not understand that Milorad Dodik's Government is not like previous RS Governments, which used to 'put their tail between their legs' on every sign from Sarajevo and the Office of the High Representative. SDS of hiding behind veil of referendum reg. police reform	Nezavisne Novine pg 9 'Cavic agreed on police reform with Terzic' by V.Popovic - Svetlana Cenic, Head of the DEPOS Election Center, Thursday stated that it is not clear to her why SDS is not referring to referendum option in regard to police reform since Dragan Cavic, SDS leader, agreed on Agreement on police reform in BiH with Adnan Terzic, Chair of BiH Council of Ministers. Cenic accused SDS of hiding behind the veil of referendum, raising the issue of why the Agreement on police reform was not supplemented when RS Government led by Pero Bukejlovic asked it from Cavic and Dusan Stojicic. She added: ' They should first explain at Parliament how the Agreement on police reform was reached and what was signed under the table. " She also added that the proposal on Agreement even handed note written on it " Paddy's last version ". I should add that public opinion was a factor too." Asked whether he finds nothing disputable of the fact of these judges working. Petric answers by concluding: "If you want to go there, you should also mention those judges working for the BiH Court who, during the war, were questioning prisoners in Viktor Bubani military barrack, which was concentration camp." Petric did not disclose names of those judges. Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Judges still keeping RS' op-ed by Senad Mesetovic -Daily op-ed: It is time for new judicial reform Referring to the issue of the six judges and prosecutors working in the RS in BiH judiciary despite being appointed in June 1992 by Radovan Karadzic, author notes that that "idea of the international community to establish HJPC which would monitor the work of judges and prosecutors was good one." Noting difficulties caused by the HIPC work, author [without criticism of the institution] mentions a lot of people stayed without jobs for a number of reasons. However, "even more trouble was caused once the list and biographies of newly appointed judges and prosecutors were published." Not only that a number of them had not significant experience in judiciary, comments the author, but also some were appointed by people like Karadzic. "It is clear that the HJPC's reforms were not crucial, but just formal...[they] should finally start doing their jobs. Reforms they carried out not only failed to produce anticipated results but the current situation in judiciary appears even worse than before. Indictments and verdicts are failing, one by one, and processes are being delayed... It is time for new judicial reforms in BiH," concludes the author.

The agreement signed between BiH and Libya gives BiH companies a precedence status on Libyan market. Furthermore, said Tihic, Libyan Minister of Health will visit BiH in order to agree hiring of BiH medical staff. Tihic announced that a direct air line Sarajevo-Tripoli is going to be established soon. He will also demand from entity Governments to make a list of privatisation and investment projects, which will be submitted to the Libyan Government. Head of BiH Association of Employers Tomislav Grizelj underlined that the door to Libyan market is wide open for BiH companies. Ghadafi promised that Sarajevo is going to be a centre for all Libyan Operations in the region. Therefore, he annulled the decision on closure of Libyan Embassy in Sarajevo. BiH should not be selling its telecommunications companies	Dani , pg 43 'Should telecoms be sold', by Eldar Dizdarevic – commenting on the situation pertaining to the privatization of BiH telecommunication companies in BiH, for which Dizdarevic says politicians from both entities seem to be racing each other who is going to sell their respective company first, the author argues that the profit figures (of BiH telecommunication companies) and experiences of countries in the region suggest BiH should not be selling its good assets, which telecommunication companies certainly are. Namely, Dizdarevic underlines that the 'BH Telekom' had a net profit of 161,2 million KMs in 2005, whilst the media mention the (FBIH) authorities want to sell the control package for 1,2 billion KMs, which is not enough according to Dizdarevic . As for experiences of countries in the region, the author says Croatia and Macedonia, which sold their companies to foreign investors, came of worse because prices of services went dramatically up and the number of employees in the companies is decreasing every year.

Questioned to portray two most serious candidates for the office of Bosniak member of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic and Haris Silajdzic that is, Filandra argues it is clear that none of the two meet the requirements and needs of the Bosniak and Bosnian policy. "Tihic's capacity as a leader has not been on par with our needs, whilst Silajdzic looks pretty unconvincing" , said Filandra. He also noted that differences between the SDP, SDA and SBiH are irrelevant, arguing that whoever wins in the October elections, situation will not significantly change.
unscrupulous campaign against SDA' Tihic and SDP' Lagumdzija results from panic within SzBiH and Avaz' owner Radonicic	Slobodna Bosna pgs 6-9 'Deadly SMS message of media tycoon to state president' by Asim Metlijevic - The author analyses the editorial policy of the BiH paper with highest circulation " Dnevni Avaz ", saying the latest wave of unscrupulous campaign in " Dnevni Avaz " against SDA leader, Sulejman Tihic , and SDP leader, Zlatko Lagumdzija , results from panic amongst Party for BiH (SzBiH) associated with daily's owner Fahrudin Radoncic . Author observesSzBiH cannot identify an adequate response to a discretely announced coalition between SDA and SDP, while Radoncic fears from now evident adoption of Law on confiscation of illegally acquired property. Daily adds SzBiH' Haris Sialajdzic campaign is predominantly based on Avaz' media and political discredit of Tihic as Sijadzic' main rival in race for Bosniak member for BiH Presidency. Author notes Silaajdzic is convinced SDP' election list without candidate for Bosniak Presidency member is a concession to Tihic and part of secret pact between Tihic and Lagumdzija based on so-called minority government. Author reminds few months ago, Lagumdzija launched this idea on minority government (formed by just one party if possible), saying multi-party coalitions bear everybody's or even nobody's fault for anything, stressing: " Minority Government will not resolve all problems, but at least we will know who is responsible for what. " Daily adds the context of this idea leads to conclusion that entire project is aimed against Party for BiH, that has always been a coalition partner with every party on power, and never bore responsibility for anything. Headline refers to claim that Radonicic allegedly exchanged several SMS message with insulting and threatening content with Tihic following Tihic statement in Gorazde that he would clash with Avaz' propaganda after elections.

	would do the same. "But Serb Caucus in FBiH Parliament will never accomplish that because of a banal reason: even four years after last elections, this Caucus doesn't exist!" says Avdic . "For several reasons, it will be hard to reconstruct BiH into decent, acceptable construction: it is not possible to build FBiH on civil work of our RS	interview to weekly, Svetlana Cenic, former RS finance minister and now DEPOS Co-Chair. Responding to press question why RS President Dragan Cavic and herself confronted, she says: "There are many reasons for split up, and as main one, I personally refer to insincerity of President Cavic towards the institution of RS president and towards Government, which he entrusted with mandateUnfortunately, the work of such Government obviously was not at Cavic' measure and he dismissed our Government in cheap political trade." On accusations against Cavic related to harmful agreement Bosanski Brod Oil Refinery signed with British Company "Vitol", she says she has never criticised Cavic' role, but instead said it loud and clear he pledged for this contract the same way the-then RS premier Dragan Mikerevic pledged for agreement with "Galaxy". According to her, both contracts were harmful for RS. Responding to press question related to accusations of Rafi Gregorian , Co-Chair of Defence Reform Commission (who accused former RS Government of having financed aides of Ratko Mladic and Radovan Karadzic), she stresses: "I have no idea what he was talking about. I was asked to give information and statement that

SB reports US Embassy	Slobodna Bosna pgs 30-34 'Bush' Administration spent most money on embassies in Bei Jing, Cabul and Sarajevo!', announced on cover 'The biggest three biggest US	American Embassy in Europe' by Nedim Hasic - Weekly notes that in addition to Embassies in world	building of new US Embassies across world, Embassy to be built in Sarajevo is amongst the biggest ones along with Embassies in Bei Jing and Baghdad.
	Weekly announces that after US Government two years ago chose the location of former military barracks Marsal Tito as location for its Embassy in BiH, the construction of the large diplomatic center of over tens million of US dollars will start in October. Weekly reminds of sale of location by BiH Council of Ministers to US Government at the end of 2004 for the amount of BAM 12.8 million.
	Weekly notes all American agencies stationed in our state (including US AID) will be dislocated to this new location. Dorothy Krebs Sarro, employee at US Embassy in Sarajevo, confirms to weekly building of new construction "proves US commitment to stay here and help in creating better future for all people in BiH, and also shows US determination to assist in preservation of integrity and multi-ethnicity of BiH as a state". Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Minister, also views this as an important sign, noting: "Naturally they (US Embassy) will not force itself on us as political master here, neither will it take over the role of OHR". According to inset 1 'American marines in Sarajevo guarded by SIPA', US marines in charge of protecting American diplomatic and consular missions, have also leased an object which has 24-hour surveillance by SIOPA. According to inset 'Secret building in Vogasca' weekly reports that Americans have leased facility and land in Vogosca and turned it into seat of its secret agencies, namely CIA which runs its operations for Balkans from this base.

Ashdown and local politicians are main	Slobodna Bosna pgs 26-29 'Cavic' crime destroyed RS' In inset 'I knew Serbs would lose' by Mirha Dedic – In an interview to weekly, Svetlana Cenic , DEPOS Chair, in response to press question to name main culprit for halt in police reform, says: " The culprits are rather ambitious Paddy Ashdown and insincere local politicians. Paddy Ashdown want to succeed at any cost at the end of his mandate, but success in his previously probed manner. Local politicians were buying time hoping everything will find self-solution, i.e. everything will change after Ashdown leaves. Bosniaks knew international community will do a job for them, while Croats waited to see how much Serbs will win for." She says secret talks and agreements were run behind the back of negotiating team, whose member she also was, adding that Adnan Terzic , BiH Council of Ministers Chair, hands draft decision on Police Reform Directorate to Dragan Cavic , RS President, saying this document contained hand-written note "Paddy's last version".
