

HR Inzko participates in panel discussion at Harvard University

During his visit to the United States, High Representative Valentin Inzko participated in a panel discussion dedicated to future perspectives for Bosnia and Herzegovina, hosted by the Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.