

High Representative meets delegation of City of Sarajevo

High Representative Valentin Inzko met today with a delegation of the City of Sarajevo led by Ivo Komšić, former Mayor and current chairman of the Mayor's Council. The delegation informed the High Representative about ongoing and future projects of the city administration in Sarajevo. Among others, they also presented the initiative of the City of Sarajevo to relocate the ICTY archives to this city.