HIGH REPRESENTATIVE DECISION ENACTING CRIMINAL CODE OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

“Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina”, 3/03, 32/03, 37/03, 54/04, 61/04, 30/05, 53/06, 55/06

NOTE: The Criminal Code has been adopted by the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina and published again, in corrected version, in the “Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina”, 37/03.

NOTE: Corrections to the Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina (local languages version), were published in the “Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina”, 32/03.

High Representative Decision Enacting Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina

January 24, 2003

No. 101/03

In the exercise of the powers vested in the High Representative by Article V of Annex 10 (Agreement on Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement) to the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, according to which the High Representative is the final authority in theatre regarding interpretation of the said Agreement on the Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement; and considering in particular Article II. 1. d) of the last said Agreement, according to the terms of which the High Representative shall "Facilitate, as the High Representative judges necessary, the resolution of any difficulties arising in connection with civilian implementation";

Recalling paragraph XI, 2 of the Conclusions of the Peace Implementation Conference held in Bonn on 9 and 10 December 1997, in which the Peace Implementation Council welcomed the High Representative's intention to use his final authority in theatre regarding interpretation of the Agreement on the Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement in order to facilitate the resolution of any difficulties as aforesaid "by making binding decisions, as he judges necessary" on certain issues including (under subparagraph c) thereof) "measures to ensure implementation of the Peace Agreement throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina and its Entities";

Recalling further paragraph 12.1 of the Declaration of the Peace Implementation Council, which met in Madrid on 15 and 16 December 1998, which made clear that the said Council considered that the establishment of the rule of law, in which all citizens had confidence, was a prerequisite for a lasting peace, and for a self-sustaining economy capable of attracting and retaining international and domestic investors;

Considering the need that the criminal legislation standards existing in international law are incorporated into the criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which would ensure legal certainty and protection of human rights throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina;

Recalling that pursuant to the aforesaid, the Ministry of Civil Affairs and Communications of Bosnia and Herzegovina prepared a draft text of the Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina which was agreed upon with the Office of the High Representative, which the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina adopted at its 95th session of December 19, 2002, and afterwards sent it to the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina whose House of Representatives at its 7th session held on January 13, 2003 did not adopt the proposal of the Council of Ministers to treat the proposed Code pursuant to Article 104 of the Rules of Procedure of the House of Representatives;

Regretting that notwithstanding the matters aforesaid, which should have enabled the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina to pass the said Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the said Code has not been adopted yet;

Bearing in mind the commitment of the Entities and the Brčko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina to harmonize their respective criminal codes with the Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina, with the aim of advancing the robust fight against crime throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina which would otherwise continue to infringe on the economic, fiscal, commercial and other social rights and interests of the citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and in particular noting the progress achieved so far in that process;

Mindful both of the urgency and of the need to adopt the Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina for all the reasons as aforesaid and in order to protect the interests of the citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina;

Having considered and borne in mind all these matters, the High Representative hereby issues the following

DECISION

Enacting the Criminal Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which is hereby attached as an integral part of this Decision. The said Law shall enter into force as a law of Bosnia and Herzegovina, with effect from the date provided for in Article 252 thereof on an interim basis until such time as the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina adopts this law in due form, without amendments and with no conditions attached.

This Decision shall enter into force forthwith and shall be published without delay in the Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Sarajevo, 24 January 2003

High Representative

THE CRIMINAL CODE OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

GENERAL PART

I CHAPTER ONE

MEANING OF TERMS AS USED IN THIS CODE

Article 1

(1) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina comprises the criminal justice provisions contained in this Code and in other laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(2) The territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina means the land, coastal seas and water surfaces within its borders, as well as the air space over them.

(3) An official person means: a person elected or appointed to legislative, executive and judicial office within Bosnia and Herzegovina and other governmental and administrative institutions or services which perform particular administrative, expert and other duties, within the rights and liabilities of the authority who has founded them; a person who continuously or occasionally executes official duty in the mentioned administrative bodies or institutions, an authorised person in a business enterprise or other legal person who has been legally entrusted with the execution of public authorities, who performs certain duties within the frame of the said authority; and other persons who are performing official duties stipulated by law or other regulations based on the law.

(4) When an official person has been indicated as the perpetrator of a particular criminal offence, persons referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article may be considered the perpetrators of such offences provided that it does not follow from the characteristics of a particular criminal offence or particular prescript that their perpetrator may only be one of the specified persons.

(5) A responsible person means a person in a business enterprise or other legal person who, in the line of duty or on the basis of specific authorisation, has been entrusted with a portfolio related to the implementation of law or regulations based on law or general act of a business enterprise or other legal person in managing and administering the property, or is related to managing a productive or other economic process or supervision of such process. Official persons as defined in paragraph 3 of this Article are also considered responsible persons when the actions as whose perpetrator the responsible person has been indicated are at issue, and at the same time are not stipulated as criminal offence by provision of the chapter dealing with criminal offences against official and other responsible duty, or as criminal offences of an official person stipulated under some other chapter of this Code or other laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(6) In cases when an official or responsible person has been indicated as the perpetrator of a criminal offence, all persons mentioned in paragraphs 3 and 5 of this Article may be the perpetrators of such offence provided that it does not follow from the characteristics of a particular criminal offence that their perpetrator may only be one of the specified persons.

(7) A foreign official person means a member of a legislative, executive, administrative or judicial body of foreign state, a public official person of an international organisation or of its bodies, judge or other official person of an international court, serving in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(8) A child, as referred to in this Code, is a person who has not reached fourteen years of age.

(9) A juvenile, as referred to in this Code, is a person who has not reached eighteen years of age.

(10) A legal person, as referred to in this Code, stands for Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Republika Srpska, the Brčko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina, canton, city, municipality, local community, any organisational form of a business enterprise and all forms of co-operating enterprises, institutions, crediting and other banking institutions or insurance of property and persons institutions, as well as other financial institutions, funds, political organisations and associations of citizens or other associations that may acquire funds and use them in the same way as other institutions or bodies that acquire and use funds and that are legally recognised as legal persons.

(11) A business enterprise, for the purpose of this Code, means corporations, companies, firms, partnerships and any other organizational form registered for performing economic activities.

(12) An association means any kind of associating three or more people.

(13) Several persons mean at least two persons or more.

(14) A body of people constitutes at least five persons or more.

(15) A group of people is an assemblage of at least three individuals that are associated for the purpose of habitual, recidivist, or occasional perpetration of criminal offences, while each of the individuals gives his contribution or has his part in the perpetration of the criminal offence.

(16) A Structured group is a group that is formed, not at random, for the immediate perpetration of an offence and that does not need to have formally defined roles for its members, continuity of its membership, or a developed structure.

(17) Organised criminal group is a structured group of at least three or more persons, existing for a period of time and acting in concert with the aim of perpetrating one or more criminal offences for which a punishment of imprisonment of three years or a more severe punishment may be imposed under the laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(18) Internationally protected person means a Head of State, including any member of a collegial body performing the functions of a Head of State under the constitution of the State concerned, a Head of Government or a Minister for Foreign Affairs, whenever any such person is outside their State, as well as members of his family who accompany him, and any official person or representative of a State or any official person or other agent of an international organisation of an intergovernmental character who, at the time when and in the place where a criminal offence against him, his official premises, his private accommodation or his means of transport is perpetrated, is entitled pursuant to international law to special protection from any attack on his person, freedom or dignity, as well as members of his family forming part of his household.

(19) Refugees and displaced persons, as referred to in this Code, mean several persons who left their property in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, between 30 April 1991 and 4 April 1998 in the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and between 30 April and 19 December 1998 in the territory of Republika Srpska, who are presumed to be refugees or displaced person under Annex 7 of the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(20) A state secret is construed as to include information or documents that have been designated as secret by virtue of a law, some other regulation or general enactment of the competent body made on the basis of the law, and disclosure of which would cause detrimental consequences for national security or national interests of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(21) A military secret is construed as to include information or documents that have been designated as a military secret by virtue of a law of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the Republika Srpska, by virtue of a regulation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the Republika Srpska, or by virtue of an enactment of a competent body of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the Republika Srpska that is enacted in compliance with the law.

(22) An official secret is construed as to include information or documents that have been designated as official secret by virtue of a law of Bosnia and Herzegovina, a regulation of Bosnia and Herzegovina or a general enactment of the competent institution of Bosnia and Herzegovina made on the basis of law.

(23) A document denotes any object that is suitable or designed to serve as evidence of some fact relevant to legal relations.

(24) Money denotes coins and paper bank notes, which are legal tender in Bosnia and Herzegovina or in a foreign country.

(25) Instruments of value also include foreign instruments of value.

(26) A movable object also includes any manufactured or accumulated energy used for producing light, heat or movement, and telephone and other impulses.

(27) A motor vehicle is construed as to include every engine-run means for land, water and air traffic.

(28) Force also includes the use of hypnotic suggestion or the use of intoxicating substances for the purpose of bringing a person against his will into a state of unconsciousness, or incapacity for resistance.

(29) Narcotic drug means any medical drug or hazardous substance with addictive and psychotropic characteristics, or any substance that can easily be converted into such substances, provided that it is subject to control under the international convention ratified by Bosnia and Herzegovina, or any substances declared as narcotic drugs by a competent institution of Bosnia and Herzegovina or by a competent institution of the entities.

(30) International criminal tribunal means the International Criminal Tribunal for Former Yugoslavia.

(31) Grammatical gender terminology, male or female, is to be understood as including both genders of natural persons.

II CHAPTER TWO

BASIC PROVISIONS

Basis and Limits of Criminal Justice Compulsion

Article 2

(1) Criminal offences and criminal sanctions shall be prescribed only for acts threatening or violating personal liberties and human rights, as well as other rights and social values guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of Bosnia and Herzegovina and international law in such a manner that their protection could not be realized without criminal justice compulsion.

(2) The prescription of criminal offences, as well as the types and the range of criminal sanctions, shall be based upon the necessity for criminal justice compulsion and its proportionality with the degree and nature of the danger against personal liberties, human rights and other basic values.

Principle of Legality

Article 3

(1) Criminal offences and criminal sanctions shall be prescribed only by law.

(2) No punishment or other criminal sanction may be imposed on any person for an act which, prior to being perpetrated, has not been defined as a criminal offence by law or international law, and for which a punishment has not been prescribed by law.

Time Constraints Regarding Applicability

Article 4

(1) The law that was in effect at the time when the criminal offence was perpetrated shall apply to the perpetrator of the criminal offence.

(2) If the law has been amended on one or more occasions after the criminal offence was perpetrated, the law that is more lenient to the perpetrator shall be applied.

Types of Criminal Sanctions

Article 5

Criminal sanctions are: punishments, suspended sentence, security measures and educational measures.

Purpose of Criminal Sanctions
Article 6

The purpose of criminal sanctions is:

- a) A preventive influence on others to honour the legal system and not to perpetrate a criminal offence;
- b) Preventing perpetrators from perpetrating criminal offences and encouraging their rehabilitation.

Restrictions on Execution of Criminal Sanctions
Article 7

In the execution of a criminal sanction, certain rights of the perpetrator of a criminal offence may be denied or restricted only to an extent commensurate with the nature and the content of the sanction, and only in a manner which provides for the respect of the perpetrator's personality and his human dignity in compliance with international law.

III CHAPTER THREE

APPLICATION OF CRIMINAL JURISDICTION OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

Exclusion of Applying Criminal Legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Children
Article 8

Criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not be applied to a child who, at the time of perpetrating a criminal offence, had not reached fourteen years of age.

Applicability of Criminal Legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Juveniles
Article 9

The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be applied to juveniles pursuant to Chapter X (Rules Relating to Educational Recommendations, Educational Measures and Punishing Juveniles) of this Code and other laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Applicability of Criminal Legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Legal Persons
Article 10

The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be applied to legal persons pursuant to Chapter XIV (Liability of Legal Persons for Criminal Offences) of this Code and other laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Applicability of Criminal Legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Those Perpetrating a Criminal offence within the Territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina
Article 11

(1) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall apply to anyone who perpetrates criminal offence within its territory.

(2) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall apply to anyone who perpetrates a criminal offence aboard a domestic vessel, regardless of its location at the time of perpetration of the offence.

(3) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall apply to anyone who perpetrates a criminal offence aboard a domestic civil aircraft while in flight, or aboard a domestic military aircraft, regardless of its location at the time of perpetration of the offence.

Applicability of the Criminal Legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Offences
Perpetrated outside the Territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina
Article 12

(1) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall apply to anyone who, outside of its territory, perpetrates:

- a) Any criminal offence against the integrity of Bosnia and Herzegovina prescribed in Chapter Sixteen (Criminal Offences against The Integrity of Bosnia and Herzegovina) of this Code;
- b) The criminal offence of counterfeiting of money or of counterfeiting of securities of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the criminal offence of counterfeiting of instruments of value or of forgery of trademarks, measures and weights issued on the basis of regulations made by the institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina, as defined in Articles 205 through 208 of this Code;
- c) A criminal offence which Bosnia and Herzegovina is bound to punish according to the provisions of international law and international treaties or intergovernmental agreements;
- d) A criminal offence against an official or responsible person in the institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina, related to his duty.

(2) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be applied to a citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who, outside the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, perpetrates a criminal offence other than those specified in paragraph 1 of this Article.

(3) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be applied to a non-citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who, outside the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, perpetrates a criminal offence against Bosnia and Herzegovina or its citizen which is not specified in paragraph 1 of this Article.

(4) The criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be applied to a non-citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who, outside the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, perpetrates against a foreign state or non-citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina a criminal offence for which, under the law in force in the place of perpetration of a criminal offence, a punishment of imprisonment for a term of five years or a more severe punishment may be imposed.

(5) In the cases referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, the criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be applied only if the perpetrator of the criminal offence is found within the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, or has been extradited to it, while in the case referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article, only if the perpetrator is found within the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina and is not extradited to another state.

Applicability of the General Part of This Code
Article 13

- (1) The provisions of the General part of this Code shall apply to all criminal offences prescribed by the laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- (2) The provisions of the General part of this Code shall apply to juveniles, unless otherwise provided for by law.
- (3) The provisions of the General part of this Code shall apply to legal persons, unless otherwise provided for in this Code.

IV CHAPTER FOUR
STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Institution of Criminal Prosecution
Article 14

- (1) Unless it is stipulated otherwise in this Code, criminal prosecution shall not be instituted when the following time periods have elapsed since the perpetration of a criminal offence:
 - a) Thirty-five years in the case of a criminal offence for which a punishment of long-term imprisonment is prescribed;
 - b) Twenty years in the case of a criminal offence for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding ten years is prescribed;
 - c) Fifteen years in the case of a criminal offence for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding five years is prescribed;
 - d) Ten years in the case of a criminal offence for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding three years is prescribed;
 - e) Five years in the case of a criminal offence for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding one year is prescribed;
 - f) Three years in the case of a criminal offence for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or a fine is prescribed.
- (2) If several punishments are prescribed for a single criminal offence, the period of limitation shall be determined according to the most severe punishment prescribed.

Running and Interruption of the Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Institution of Criminal Prosecution
Article 15

- (1) The running of the period set by statute of limitation to institute criminal prosecution commences on the day on which the criminal offence has been perpetrated.
- (2) The running of the period set by statute of limitation is suspended for any time during which the prosecution cannot be instituted or continued by reason of a provision of law.
- (3) The running of the period set by statute of limitation is interrupted by every motion that relates to the prosecution of the perpetrator on account of the criminal offence perpetrated.
- (4) The running of the period set by statute of limitation is also interrupted if the perpetrator, before the period of limitation has elapsed, has perpetrated a new criminal offence of the same gravity or graver.
- (5) After each interruption, the period set by statute of limitation commences anew.
- (6) The period set by statute of limitation to institute criminal prosecution expires in any case when twice as much time lapses as is set by the statute of limitation for the initiation of criminal prosecution.

Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Execution of Punishment
Article 16

Unless it is stipulated otherwise in this Code, the imposed sentence shall not be executed when the following time periods have elapsed from the date of entry into force of the judgement by which a punishment has been imposed:

- a) Thirty-five years if a punishment of long-term imprisonment has been imposed;
- b) Twenty years if a punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding ten years has been imposed;
- c) Fifteen years if the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding five years has been imposed;
- d) Ten years if the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding three years has been imposed;
- e) Five years if the punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding one year has been imposed;
- f) Three years if the punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or a fine has been imposed.

Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Execution of Accessory Punishment and Security Measures

Article 17

- (1) The execution of a fine as an accessory punishment shall be barred after the lapse of two years from the date of entry into force of the judgement whereby such punishment has been imposed.
- (2) The execution of the security measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment and the security measure of forfeiture shall be barred after the lapse of five years from the date of entry into force of the judgement whereby these measures have been ordered.
- (3) The execution of the security measure of ban on carrying out a certain occupation, activity or duty shall be barred after the lapse of the period for which this measure has been ordered.

The Running and Interruption of the Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Execution of Punishments and Security Measures

Article 18

- (1) The running of the period set by statute of limitation to execute the punishment commences on the date of entry into force of the judgement whereby such punishment has been imposed, and in the case of the revocation of a suspended sentence, on the date of entry into force of the decision on the revocation of a suspended sentence.
- (2) The period set by statute of limitation shall not run during the time the punishment cannot be executed pursuant to law.
- (3) The running set by statute of limitation is interrupted with every action of a competent body taken in regard to execution of the punishment.
- (4) After each interruption, the period set by statutes of limitation shall commence anew.
- (5) The period set by statute of limitations to execute the punishment shall expire in any case when twice as much time lapses as is set by the statute of limitation for the execution of punishments.
- (6) The provisions of paragraphs 2 through 5 of this Article shall be applied accordingly to the bar to the execution of the security measures.

Criminal Offences not subject to the Statute of Limitations

Article 19

Criminal prosecution and execution of a sentence are not subject to the statute of limitations for criminal offences of genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes, or for other criminal offences that, pursuant to international law, are not subject to the statute of limitations.

V CHAPTER FIVE

CRIMINAL OFFENCE

Criminal Offence

Article 20

A criminal offence is an unlawful act that is prescribed as a criminal offence by law, the characteristics of which are specified by law and for which a criminal sanction is prescribed by law.

Manner of Perpetrating Criminal Offence

Article 21

- (1) A criminal offence can be perpetrated by an act or an omission to act.
- (2) A criminal offence is perpetrated by omission when the perpetrator, who is legally obliged to avert the consequence of a criminal offence defined by law, fails to do so, and such failure to act is tantamount in its effect and significance to the perpetration of such an offence by an act.

Time of Perpetrating Criminal Offence

Article 22

A criminal offence is perpetrated at the time the perpetrator acts or ought to have acted, irrespective of the time when the consequences of his action or omission to act occurred.

Place of Perpetrating Criminal Offence

Article 23

- (1) A criminal offence is perpetrated both at the place perpetrator acts or ought to have acted, and at the place where the consequence of his action or omission to act fully or partially occurs.
- (2) A criminal offence in the case of a punishable attempt is perpetrated both at the place perpetrator acts or ought to have acted, and at the place where the consequence of his action or omission to act fully or partially ought to have occurred according to the perpetrator's expectation.
- (3) A criminal offence in cases of complicity is perpetrated at the place specified in paragraph 1 of this Article and at the place the accomplice acts or ought to have acted, or at the place where the consequence of his action or omission to act ought to have occurred according to the expectation of the accomplice.

Necessary Defence (Self-Defence)

Article 24

- (1) An act committed in necessary defence is not considered a criminal offence.
- (2) A defence is considered to be necessary if it is absolutely necessary for the defender to avert a coinciding or direct and imminent illicit attack from himself or from another, and which is proportionate to the attack.

(3) If the perpetrator exceeds the limits of necessary defence, the punishment can be reduced, and if the excess occurs due to strong irritation or fright caused by the attack, the punishment can be remitted.

Extreme Necessity
Article 25

(1) An act committed out of extreme necessity is not considered a criminal offence.

(2) An act is committed out of extreme necessity, if committed for the purpose of averting from himself or from another an immediate or direct and imminent and unprovoked danger that could not have been averted in any other way, provided that the harm resulting from such act did not exceed the harm threatened.

(3) If the perpetrator himself has negligently provoked the danger, or he has exceeded the limits of extreme necessity, the court may impose reduced punishment on him, and if he exceeded the limits under particularly mitigating circumstances, the punishment may be remitted.

(4) There is no extreme necessity if the perpetrator was under an obligation to expose himself to the danger.

Attempt
Article 26

(1) Whoever intentionally commences execution of a criminal offence, but does not complete such offence, shall be punished for the attempted criminal offence when, for the criminal offence in question, the punishment of imprisonment for a term of three years or a more severe punishment may be imposed, and for the attempt of another criminal offences when the law expressly prescribes punishment of the attempt alone.

(2) An attempted criminal offence shall be punished within the limits of the punishment prescribed for the same criminal offence perpetrated, but the punishment may also be reduced.

Inappropriate Attempt
Article 27

If a person tries to perpetrate a criminal offence by inappropriate means or against an inappropriate object may be released from sentencing or punished less severely.

Voluntary Abandonment of the Attempt
Article 28

(1) A perpetrator, who voluntarily abandons the execution of a punishable attempt, may be released from punishment.

(2) In the event of voluntary abandonment of an attempt, the perpetrator shall be punished for those acts that constitute other separate criminal offences.

Accomplices
Article 29

If several persons who, by participating in the perpetration of a criminal offence or by taking some other act by which a decisive contribution has been made to its perpetration, have jointly perpetrated a criminal offence, shall each be punished as prescribed for the criminal offence.

Incitement
Article 30

(1) Whoever intentionally incites another to perpetrate a criminal offence, shall be punished as if he has perpetrated such offence.

(2) Whoever intentionally incites another to perpetrate a criminal offence for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term of three years or a more severe punishment is prescribed by law, and the criminal offence has never been attempted, shall be punished as for the attempt of the criminal offence.

Accessory
Article 31

(1) Whoever intentionally helps another to perpetrate a criminal offence shall be punished as if he himself perpetrated such offence, but the punishment may be reduced.

(2) The following, in particular, shall be considered as helping in the perpetration of a criminal offence: giving advice or instructions as to how to perpetrate a criminal offence, supplying the perpetrator with tools for perpetrating the criminal offence, removing obstacles to the perpetration of criminal offence, and promising, prior to the perpetration of the criminal offence, to conceal the existence of the criminal offence, to hide the perpetrator, the tools used for perpetrating the criminal offence, traces of the criminal offence, or goods acquired by perpetration of the criminal offence.

Limitations in Responsibility and Punishability of Collaborators
Article 32

(1) The accomplice shall be considered criminally responsible within the limits set by his own intent or negligence, and the inciter and the accessory within the limits of their own intent.

(2) The court shall refrain from imposing a punishment on an accomplice, inciter or accessory that has voluntarily prevented perpetration of the criminal offence.

(3) The personal relations, characteristics and circumstances to which the law attaches the exclusion of criminal responsibility, or by reason of which it permits or provides for the remission of punishment or its mitigation may be taken into consideration only if they are inherent to such perpetrators, accomplices, inciters or accessories.

VI CHAPTER SIX

CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Elements of Criminal Responsibility

Article 33

- (1) A perpetrator who is mentally capable and guilty of perpetrating a criminal offence shall be held criminally responsible.
- (2) A perpetrator shall be guilty if he has perpetrated a criminal offence with intent.
- (3) A perpetrator shall also be guilty if he has perpetrated a criminal offence out of negligence only if the law explicitly prescribes so.

Mental Capacity

Article 34

- (1) A mentally incapable person is one who, at the time of perpetrating the criminal offence, was incapable of comprehending the significance of his acts or controlling his conduct due to a lasting or temporary mental disease, temporary mental disorder or retardation (mental incapacity).
- (2) If the capacity of the perpetrator to comprehend the significance of his act, and his ability to control his conduct was considerably diminished due to any of the mental conditions referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, he may be punished less severely (considerably diminished mental capacity).
- (3) The perpetrator shall be considered criminally responsible if, by consuming alcohol or narcotic drugs or otherwise, he brought himself into such a state of not being capable to comprehend the significance of his actions or controlling his conduct, and if prior to bringing himself into such a condition, the act was intended by him, or there was negligence on his part in relation to the criminal offence in cases where criminal responsibility is prescribed by law for such an offence even if perpetrated out of negligence (voluntary intoxication).
- (4) The state of considerably diminished mental capacity to which the perpetrator has brought himself in the way provided under paragraph 3 of this Article may not constitute grounds for the reduction of punishment.

Intent

Article 35

- (1) A criminal offence may be perpetrated with direct or indirect intent.
- (2) The perpetrator acts with direct intent when a perpetrator was aware of his deed but still desired its perpetration.
- (3) The perpetrator acts with indirect intent when a perpetrator was aware that a prohibited consequence might have resulted from his action or omission to act but nevertheless consented to its occurrence.

Negligence
Article 36

- (1) A criminal offence may be perpetrated by advertent or inadvertent negligence.
- (2) The perpetrator acts with advertent negligence when he was aware that a prohibited consequence might have occurred as a result of his action or omission to act, but carelessly assumed that it would not occur or that he would be able to avert it.
- (3) The perpetrator acts with inadvertent negligence when he was unaware of the possibility that a prohibited consequence might have occurred, although, under the circumstances and according to his personal characteristics, he should and could have been aware of such possibility.

Mistake of Fact
Article 37

- (1) A person is not criminally responsible if at the time of the perpetration of a criminal offence he was not aware of one of its elements defined by law, or if he has mistakenly believed that circumstances existed which, if they had actually existed, would render such conduct permissible.
- (2) If the person's mistake resulted from his negligence, he shall be criminally responsible for the criminal offence perpetrated by negligence, provided that the criminal offence in question is punished by law when perpetrated by negligence.

Mistake of Law
Article 38

A perpetrator of a criminal offence, who had justifiable reason for not knowing that his conduct was prohibited, may be released from punishment.

VII CHAPTER SEVEN

PUNISHMENT

The Purpose of Punishment
Article 39

The purpose of punishment is:

- a) To express the community's condemnation of a perpetrated criminal offence;
- b) To deter the perpetrator from perpetrating criminal offences in the future;
- c) To deter others from perpetrating criminal offences; and
- d) To increase the consciousness of citizens of the danger of criminal offences and of the fairness of punishing perpetrators.

Types of Punishment
Article 40

The following punishments may be imposed on perpetrators of criminal offences who are criminally responsible:

- a) Imprisonment;
- b) Fine.

Principal and Accessory Punishment
Article 41

- (1) Imprisonment may be imposed only as principal punishment.
- (2) A fine may be imposed both as a principal and as an accessory punishment.
- (3) If both punishments are prescribed for a criminal offence, only one of them may be imposed as a principal punishment.
- (4) For criminal offences motivated by greed, a fine may be imposed as an accessory punishment even when that is not specifically prescribed by the law or in cases where the law prescribes that the perpetrator shall be punished by imprisonment or a fine, and the court decides to impose the punishment of imprisonment as the principal punishment.

Imprisonment
Article 42

- (1) Imprisonment may not be shorter than thirty days or longer than twenty years.
- (2) For the gravest forms of serious criminal offences perpetrated with intent, imprisonment for a term of twenty to forty-five years may be exceptionally prescribed (long-term imprisonment).
- (3) Long-term imprisonment may never be prescribed as the sole principal punishment for a particular criminal offence.
- (4) Long-term imprisonment cannot be imposed on a perpetrator who has not reached twenty-one years of age at the time of perpetrating the criminal offence.
- (5) Juvenile imprisonment may be imposed under the conditions prescribed by Chapter X (Rules Relating to Educational Recommendations, Educational Measures and Punishing Juveniles) of this Code. Juvenile imprisonment is in its purpose, nature, duration and manner of execution a special punishment of deprivation of liberty.
- (6) Imprisonment shall be imposed in full years and months; however, the punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months may also be measured in full days. Long-term imprisonment shall be imposed only in full years.
- (7) If long-term imprisonment has been imposed, amnesty or pardon may be granted only after three-fifths of the punishment has been served.

Community Service
Article 43

- (1) When the court assesses and imposes imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, at the same time it may decide that such punishment, with the consent of the accused, be replaced with community service.
- (2) The decision to replace imprisonment with community service shall be based upon the assessment that, considering all the circumstances determining the type and range of the sentence, the execution of imprisonment would not be necessary to realise the purpose of punishment, but at the same time a suspended sentence would not be sufficient to accomplish the general purpose of criminal sanctions.
- (3) Community service shall be determined for a duration proportional to the imposed imprisonment, from a minimum of ten to a maximum of sixty working days. The period for performing community service shall be neither shorter than one month nor longer than one year.
- (4) In assessing the duration of community service, as well as the period for its performance, the court shall take into consideration the imposed imprisonment that is being substituted and the perpetrator's possibilities regarding personal circumstances and employment.
- (5) When, upon the expiry of the determined period, the convicted person has not completed or has only partly completed the community service, the court shall render a decision on the execution of imprisonment for a period proportional to the unfulfilled community service.
- (6) The substitution of imprisonment with community service may also be applied in the case of substituting a fine with imprisonment pursuant to Article 47 (Substitution of Fine) of this Code.
- (7) Placement in community service as to the type and the place of work shall be made by the Ministry of Justice, taking into consideration the capacities and the skills of the convicted person.

Release on Parole
Article 44

- (1) A convicted person who has served one half of his sentence, and as an exception, a convicted person who has served one third of his sentence, may be released from serving the punishment of imprisonment under condition that he does not perpetrate another criminal offence before expiration of the time of the sentence (parole, conditional release).
- (2) A convicted person who has served one-half of his sentence, may be released from serving the punishment of imprisonment if in the course of serving his sentence he has improved to the point where he can reasonably be expected to behave himself well after his release from serving the punishment of imprisonment, and particularly not perpetrate criminal offences. In determining whether to release a convicted person on parole, account shall be taken of his conduct during the term of the sentence, as well as other circumstances indicating that the purpose of the punishment has been attained.
- (3) A convicted person who has served one third of his sentence may be released on parole, provided that the conditions referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article exist, and provided that special circumstances relating to the personality of the convicted person manifestly indicate that the purpose of the punishment has been attained.

(4) The person punished by long-term imprisonment may be granted conditional release after three-fifths of the punishment have been served.

Revocation of Parole Article 45

(1) The court shall order revocation of parole if the convicted person, while on parole, perpetrates one or more criminal offences for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term of one year or a more severe punishment has been imposed.

(2) The court may order revocation of parole if the parolee perpetrates one or more criminal offences for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term up to one year has been imposed. In deciding whether to revoke the parole or not, the court shall take into special consideration the similarity in the nature of the acts perpetrated, their significance, the motives from which they were perpetrated, as well as other circumstances indicating the appropriateness of revoking parole.

(3) When the court orders revocation of parole, it shall impose punishment considering the previously imposed sentence as an already fixed punishment. The part of the punishment that the convicted person served under the earlier sentence shall be credited toward service of the subsequent sentence, whereas the period of time spent on parole shall not be credited.

(4) The provisions of paragraphs 1 through 3 of this Article shall also be applied when the parolee is tried for a criminal offence perpetrated prior to his release on parole.

(5) If the parolee is convicted to imprisonment for a term up to one year, and if the court does not order revocation of parole, the term of the release on parole shall be extended for a period of time the convicted person spent serving the punishment of imprisonment.

Fines Article 46

(1) Fines are imposed in daily amounts and if that is not possible, then in a fixed amount.

(2) If a fine is imposed in daily amounts, it may be a minimum of five and maximum of three hundred sixty daily amounts, whereas for offences motivated by greed, a maximum imposable fine is one thousand five hundred daily amounts, except in the cases foreseen by this Code.

(3) If a fine is imposed in a fixed amount, a minimum amount may not be less than 150 KM and a maximum one may not exceed 50.000 KM whereas for offences motivated by greed, a maximum fixed amount imposable may not exceed 1.000.000 KM, except in the cases foreseen by this Code.

(4) In imposing a fine for offences motivated by greed, the court may determine a fine exceeding the maximum prescribed amount in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article if the value of the illegal gain resulted from the perpetration of the offence exceeds the amount of 1.000.000 KM. In such case the offender may be imposed a fine in an amount that may not exceed the double amount of the value of the illegal gain resulted from the perpetration of the offence for which he or she is being punished by a fine.

(5) A number of daily amounts is determined by the court according to the general rules on meting out penalties. A daily amount is determined by the court according to the amount of the offender's daily income calculated on the basis of his net salary during three months and his other income and family responsibilities. In determining the amount, the court relies on the data not older than six months at the moment when the fine is imposed.

(6) If data referred to in the preceding paragraph are unavailable to the court, they will be provided by the accused within the deadline as set by the court but not later than by the closing of the main trial. If the circumstances relevant for the determination of a daily amount of fine are not made available to the court by the end of the main trial or those relevant circumstances are unreliable, a fine is imposed in a fixed amount whereby the general rules for meting out penalties are respected.

(7) A minimum daily amount of fine is 1/60 and a maximum amount is 1/3 of the most recent officially published employee's average net salary in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as published by the Agency of Statistics of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(8) The court determines in the judgement a deadline for payment of the fine. Such deadline may not be shorter than fifteen days or longer than six months, but the court may allow in justified cases that the convicted pays the fine in instalments, whereby the deadline for payment may not exceed two years.

(9) Fines imposed and collected under this Code shall belong to the Budget of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Substitution of Fine Article 47

(1) Fine shall not be collected by force.

(2) If a fine is not paid in full or in part within the period determined in the judgement, the court shall, without delay, bring a decision to substitute the fine by imprisonment.

(3) The fine shall be substituted by imprisonment in such a way that each daily amount started, or if the fine was imposed in a fixed amount each 50 KM started, is substituted by one day of imprisonment, whereby the imprisonment may not exceed one year.

(4) If the convicted person has only paid a portion of the fine, the remaining amount will be proportionally converted into imprisonment and if he then pays the remaining amount, the execution of imprisonment ceases.

General Principles of Meting out Punishments Article 48

(1) The court shall impose the punishment within the limits provided by law for that particular offence, having in mind the purpose of punishment and taking into account all the circumstances bearing on the magnitude of punishment (extenuating and aggravating circumstances), and, in particular: the degree of criminal liability, the motives for perpetrating the offence, the degree of danger or injury to the protected object, the circumstances in which the offence was perpetrated, the past conduct of the perpetrator, his personal situation and his conduct after the perpetration of the criminal offence, as well as other circumstances related to the personality of the perpetrator.

(2) In ruling on the punishment for the criminal offence in recidivism, the court shall take into special consideration whether the most recent offence is of the same type as the previous one, whether both acts were perpetrated from the same motive, and it will also consider the period of time which has elapsed since the pronouncement of the previous conviction, or since the punishment has been served or pardoned.

(3) In fixing a fine, the court shall take into consideration the situation of the perpetrator in terms of property, taking into account the amount of his salary, his other income, his assets and his family obligations.

Reduction of Punishment Article 49

The court may set the punishment below the limit prescribed by the law, or impose a milder type of punishment:

- a) When law provides the possibility of reducing the punishment; and
- b) When the court determines the existence of highly extenuating circumstances, which indicate that the purpose of punishment can be attained by a lesser punishment.

Limitations in Reduction of Punishments Article 50

(1) When the conditions for the reduction of punishment referred to in Article 49 (Reduction of Punishment) of this Code exist, the punishment shall be reduced within the following limits:

- a) If a punishment of imprisonment of ten or more years is prescribed as the lowest punishment for the criminal offence, it may be reduced to five years of imprisonment;
- b) If a punishment of imprisonment of three or more years is prescribed as the lowest punishment for the criminal offence, it may be reduced to one year of imprisonment;
- c) If a punishment of imprisonment of two years is prescribed as the lowest punishment for the criminal offence, it may be reduced to six months of imprisonment;
- d) If a punishment of imprisonment of one year is prescribed as the lowest punishment for the criminal offence, it may be reduced to three months of imprisonment;
- e) If a punishment of imprisonment not exceeding one year is prescribed as the lowest punishment for the criminal offence, it may be reduced to thirty days of imprisonment;
- f) If a punishment of imprisonment is prescribed for a criminal offence without indication of the lowest limit, the court may impose a fine in lieu of imprisonment;
- g) If a fine is prescribed as the lowest limit for the punishment for a criminal offence, it may be reduced to five daily amounts and if it is imposed in the fixed amount, it may be reduced to 150 KM.

(2) When deciding on the extent of reducing punishments in accordance with the rules set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall take into special consideration the smallest and the largest punishment prescribed for the particular criminal offence.

Release from Punishment
Article 51

(1) The court may release the perpetrator from punishment when such possibility is explicitly provided by law.

(2) In cases when the court is allowed to release the perpetrator from punishment, the court may decide to reduce the punishment having no regard to limitations prescribed for reduction of punishment in Article 49 (Reduction of Punishment) of this Code.

Special Condition for Release from Punishment for Criminal Offences Perpetrated by Negligence
Article 52

The court may release the perpetrator from punishment for a criminal offence perpetrated by negligence when the consequences of the criminal offence perpetrated affect the perpetrator so severely that imposing a punishment would obviously not serve the purpose of punishment.

Concurrence of Criminal Offences
Article 53

(1) If the perpetrator, by a single action or by several actions, has perpetrated several criminal offences, for which he is tried at the same time, the court shall first assess the punishment for each of the offences separately, and then proceed with imposing a compound punishment of imprisonment, long-term imprisonment or a compound fine for all the offences taken together.

(2) The court shall adhere to the following rules in imposing compound punishment:

- a) If the court has ruled punishment of long-term imprisonment for one of several criminal offences perpetrated, this will be the only punishment imposed;
- b) If the court has determined punishment of imprisonment for the concurrent criminal offences, the compound punishment must be higher than each of the individual punishments, but the compound punishment may not be as high as the sum of all incurred punishments, nor may it exceed a period of twenty years;
- c) If for each of the offences perpetrated in concurrence a punishment of imprisonment not exceeding three years is prescribed, the compound punishment may not exceed eight years;
- d) If fines only have been meted out by court for the criminal offences in concurrence, the compound punishment must be bigger than any individual determined fine, but it may not exceed the sum of all fines meted out.

(3) If the court has meted out punishments of imprisonment for some of the concurrent criminal offences, and fines for others, it shall impose one punishment of imprisonment and one fine, in accordance with the provisions set forth in items b) through d) of paragraph 2 of this Article.

(4) The court shall impose an accessory punishment if it is determined for any one of the concurrent criminal offences, and if it has meted out several fines, it shall impose a single fine in following the provisions set forth in item d), paragraph 2 of this Article.

(5) If the court has meted out a punishment of imprisonment and juvenile imprisonment for the concurrent criminal offences, it shall impose punishment of imprisonment as the compound sentence, applying the rules set forth in item b) and c) of paragraph 2 of this Article.

(1) The provisions of this Code regarding concurrence of criminal offences shall not apply to a criminal offence arising out of the same transaction.

(2) A criminal offence arises out of the same transaction when the perpetrator intentionally perpetrates a number of identical criminal offences or offences of the same type in which, according to the manner of perpetration, the temporal connection and other material circumstances connecting them constitute a whole.

(3) When a criminal offence arising of the same transaction comprises offences of the same legal description, the court shall choose the type and the range of the punishment prescribed for such a criminal offence. If criminal offences of the same type are at issue, the court shall choose the type and the range of punishment prescribed for the most serious of these offences.

Meting out Punishment of a Convicted Person

Article 55

(1) If a convicted person is tried for a criminal offence he had perpetrated before commencing to serve the previous sentence, or for a criminal offence he perpetrated while serving a sentence of imprisonment, long-term imprisonment or juvenile imprisonment, the court shall impose a compound punishment for all the criminal offences applying provisions set forth under Article 53 (Concurrence of Criminal Offences) of this Code, taking the punishment from the earlier sentence as an already fixed punishment. The sentence or part of the sentence, which the convicted person had already served, shall be credited towards the imposed sentence of imprisonment or long-term imprisonment.

(2) For criminal offences perpetrated during the course of serving the punishment of imprisonment, long-term imprisonment, or juvenile imprisonment, the court shall determine the perpetrator's punishment independently of the punishment for the earlier sentence in cases when the application of the provisions set forth under Article 53 of this Code would lead to failure to achieve the purpose of punishment considering the duration of non-served portion of the previous sentence.

(3) If a convicted person, while serving the punishment of imprisonment, long-term imprisonment or juvenile imprisonment, perpetrates a criminal offence punished by law with a fine or punishment of not exceeding one year of imprisonment, he shall be punished with a disciplinary measure.

Credit for the Period Spent in Custody and Credit for Punishment under an Earlier Sentence
Article 56

(1) The time spent in custody pending trial, as well as any deprivation of freedom related to the criminal offence, shall be counted as part of the sentence of imprisonment, long-term imprisonment, juvenile imprisonment or the fine.

(2) In each counting of the credit, one day spent in custody pending trial, one day of deprivation of freedom, one day of juvenile imprisonment, one day of imprisonment, one day of long-term imprisonment and a fine of 50 KM, shall be deemed equal.

Credit for the Detention and Sentence Served Abroad
Article 57

The detention, deprivation of freedom in the course of an extradition procedure, as well as the punishment which the perpetrator served upon a judgement of a foreign court, shall be credited toward service of the sentence imposed by the domestic court for the same criminal offence, whereas if the punishments are not of the same kind, the deduction of the punishment served abroad shall be effected in a way the court finds fit.

VIII CHAPTER EIGHT

SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Purpose of Suspended Sentence
Article 58

The purpose of a suspended sentence is to give to a perpetrator of a criminal offence an admonition with a threat of punishment (suspended sentence), which achieves the purpose of criminal sanctions by pronouncing a punishment without executing it, when the execution of punishment is not necessary to ensure legal protection.

Suspended Sentence

Article 59

(1) When it imposes a suspended sentence, the court imposes a punishment on the perpetrator of criminal offence, but at the same time it orders that the sentence shall not be carried out if the convicted person does not perpetrate another criminal offence over a period of time established by the court, and which may not be shorter than one or longer than five years (probation period).

(2) In deciding whether to impose a suspended sentence, the court shall, taking into account the purpose of the suspended sentence, pay special attention to the personality of the perpetrator, his conduct in the past, his behaviour after the perpetration of the criminal offence, the degree of criminal responsibility and other circumstances under which the criminal offence has been perpetrated.

(3) A suspended sentence may be imposed when a perpetrator has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine.

(4) The court may impose a suspended sentence for criminal offences for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term of ten years or a more severe punishment may be imposed only when the sentence referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article has been imposed by the reduction of punishment prescribed by the law.

(5) The suspended sentence cannot be imposed for criminal offences for which even after a reduction of the punishment, a punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year cannot be imposed.

(6) If the perpetrator has been sentenced to both imprisonment and a fine, the suspended sentence may be imposed either for both sentences or only for the sentence of imprisonment.

(7) Security measures, ordered alongside a suspended sentence, shall be executed.

Obligations of the Person under Suspended Sentence

Article 60

(1) Together with imposing a suspended sentence, the court may order the following obligations: that the convicted person shall restitute the gain acquired by the perpetration of the criminal offence, that the convicted person shall compensate for the damage caused by the perpetration of the criminal offence, or that the convicted person shall fulfil other obligations provided for in criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(2) For the fulfilment of an obligation referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall determine the period, which period shall be within the assessed period of probation.

Revocation of Suspended Sentence because of a New Criminal Offence

Article 61

(1) The court shall revoke the suspended sentence if the convicted person perpetrates one or more criminal offences for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term of two years or a more severe punishment had been imposed before the probation period expired.

(2) If the convicted person perpetrates one or more criminal offences during the probation period for which the punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine has been imposed, the court shall decide, upon consideration of all circumstances related to the criminal offences perpetrated as well as to the perpetrator, particularly the possible similarity of the perpetrated offences, their significance and motives from which the offences have been perpetrated, whether to revoke the suspended sentence. In taking such decision, the court is bound by the prohibition on imposing a suspended sentence if a punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding two years (Article 59, Suspended Sentence, paragraph 3 of this Code) needs to be imposed on the perpetrator for the criminal offence for which the suspended sentence was imposed and for new criminal offences.

(3) In the event of revocation of the suspended sentence, the court shall impose one compound punishment both for the previously perpetrated and the new criminal offence, pursuant to the provisions of Article 53 (Concurrence of Criminal Offences) of this Code, taking the revoked suspended sentence as an already fixed punishment.

(4) In the event that the court does not revoke a suspended sentence, it may impose a suspended sentence or a punishment of imprisonment for a newly perpetrated criminal offence. If the court decides that a suspended sentence should be imposed for the newly perpetrated criminal offence as well, the court shall apply provisions set forth under Article 53 of this Code to impose one compound sentence both for the previously perpetrated and the new criminal offence and it shall also determine one compound probation period which can not be shorter than one or longer than five years, commencing on the day the new sentence became effective. If the court imposes a punishment of imprisonment for the new criminal offence, the period of time spent serving that punishment of imprisonment shall not be deducted from the probation period established by the suspended sentence for the previously perpetrated criminal offence.

Revocation of Suspended Sentence because of Previously Perpetrated Criminal Offence Article 62

(1) The court shall revoke a suspended sentence in case that, after it was imposed, it learned that the perpetrator had perpetrated a criminal offence prior to the imposition of the suspended sentence, and it is felt by the court that there would have not been enough grounds for the imposition of a suspended sentence had the existence of that offence been known. In such a case, the provision set forth under Article 61 (Revocation of Suspended Sentence Because of a New Criminal Offence) paragraph 3 of this Code shall be applied.

(2) If the court does not revoke a suspended sentence, it shall apply the provision set forth under Article 61, paragraph 4 of this Code.

Revocation of Suspended Sentence caused by Failure to Fulfil Particular Obligations Article 63

(1) The court shall revoke the suspended sentence and order the execution of the imposed punishment if the convicted person, within the course of the determined probation period, does not fulfil the obligations imposed on him in cases where he could have fulfilled them.

(2) In the case of the impossibility of fulfilling the obligations, the court may extend the deadline for the performance of the obligations, or may replace such obligations with other obligations provided for in criminal legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, or relieve the convicted person of the obligations.

Deadlines for Revocation of Suspended Sentence Article 64

(1) A suspended sentence may be revoked during the probation period.

(2) If a convicted person perpetrates a criminal offence entailing revocation of the suspended sentence during this period, but it is established by judgement only after the expiration of the probation period, the suspended sentence may be revoked at the latest one year after the probation period has expired.

(3) If a convicted person fails to fulfil a certain obligation referred to in Article 60 (Obligations of the Person under Suspended Sentence) paragraph 1 of this Code within the determined deadline, the court may revoke the suspended sentence no later than one year after the expiration of the probation period, and order execution of the punishment imposed as the suspended sentence.

Suspended Sentence with Protective Guardianship
Article 65

(1) The court may order that a perpetrator who has been subject to a suspended sentence is placed under protective guardianship if, upon having considered the circumstances of the criminal offence, personality of the perpetrator, his earlier conduct and his behaviour after perpetrating the criminal offence, it has arrived at the conclusion that it would contribute to achieving more efficiently the purpose of suspended sentencing and social rehabilitation.

(2) Protective guardianship encompasses measures of assistance, care, supervision and protection outlined under this Code, provided that this protective guardianship may not last less than six months nor it may exceed two years.

Contents of Protective Guardianship
Article 66

Protective guardianship may include the following obligations:

- a) Treatment in an appropriate health institution;
- b) Refraining from intake of alcoholic drinks or opiates (intoxicating drugs);
- c) Attending particular psychiatric, psychological or other counselling centres and acting in accordance with their instructions;
- d) Training for a profession;
- e) Accepting employment which is appropriate to the skills and abilities of the perpetrator;
- f) Disposing with the salary or other income and property in an appropriate way and in accordance with marital or family obligations.

Ordering Protective Guardianship
Article 67

(1) The court may impose one or several obligations set forth under Article 66 (Contents of Protective Guardianship) of this Code, closely defining what exactly they cover.

(2) When selecting the obligations from Article 66 of this Code, the court shall take into special consideration the age of the perpetrator, his general physical and mental condition, his life inclinations and habits, especially at home, in school or at work, the motives from which the criminal offence has been perpetrated and his conduct after perpetrating the criminal offence, his earlier life, personal and family circumstances, as well as other circumstances related to the personality of the perpetrator which are important for deciding on the measure of protective guardianship and its duration.

(3) If during protective guardianship the court establishes that the purpose of the sentence has been attained, it may terminate the protective guardianship even before its expiration.

(4) If a convicted person who has been subject to a protective guardianship fails to fulfil obligations imposed on him by the court, the court may warn him or may replace earlier obligations with others or extend the protective guardianship within the probation period, or may revoke the suspended sentence.

IX CHAPTER NINE

SECURITY MEASURES

Purpose of Security Measures

Article 68

The purpose of security measures is to remove situations or conditions that might influence a perpetrator to perpetrate criminal offences in the future.

Types of Security Measures

Article 69

The following security measures may be imposed on perpetrators of criminal offences:

- a) Mandatory psychiatric treatment,
- b) Mandatory medical treatment of addiction,
- c) Prohibition to carry out a certain occupation, activity or duty,
- d) Forfeiture.

Imposing Security Measures

Article 70

The court may impose one or several security measures on a perpetrator of a criminal offence, when grounds for imposing them exist under this Code.

Mandatory Psychiatric Treatment

Article 71

(1) The security measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment may be imposed to a perpetrator who perpetrates a criminal offence in a state of considerably diminished mental capacity or diminished mental capacity, if there is a danger that the causes of such a state may in the future also induce the perpetrator to perpetrate another criminal offence.

(2) The security measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment may, under the conditions provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article, be carried out during imprisonment or along with community service, or a suspended sentence.

(3) The security measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment shall last until the termination of the reason for which it has been imposed, but in any event no longer than the punishment of imprisonment or the completion of community service or the expiry of the probation period accompanying a suspended sentence.

(4) As in the case referred to in Article 43 (Community Service) paragraph 5 of this Code, the execution of imprisonment may be ordered against the perpetrator of a criminal offence who, while performing community service as a substitute to imprisonment, fails to submit himself to mandatory psychiatric treatment.

(5) Under the conditions provided for in paragraph 2 of this Article, after a convicted person has been conditionally released, his mandatory psychiatric treatment may continue outside an institution. If he does not continue the treatment, his conditional release shall be revoked.

(6) The perpetrator of a criminal offence, who does not submit himself to psychiatric treatment during a probation period set in a suspended sentence, may be treated pursuant to the provision of Article 63 (Revocation of Suspended Sentence Caused by Failure to Fulfil Particular Obligations) of this Code.

Mandatory Medical Treatment of Addiction Article 72

(1) The security measure of mandatory medical treatment of addiction may be imposed on a perpetrator who perpetrates a criminal offence under the decisive influence of addiction to alcohol or to narcotic drugs, if there is a danger that due to such an addiction he will repeat the offence.

(2) Under the conditions provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article, the security measure of mandatory medical treatment of addiction may be imposed along with the same criminal sanctions, for the same duration, and in the same manner as prescribed for the security measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment by this Code.

(3) As in the case referred to in Article 43 (Community Service) paragraph 5 of this Code, the execution of imprisonment may be ordered against the perpetrator of a criminal offence who, while performing community service as a substitute to imprisonment, fails to submit himself to mandatory treatment of addiction.

(4) Under the conditions provided for in Article 71 (Mandatory Psychiatric Treatment) paragraph 2 of this Code, after a convicted person has been conditionally released, his mandatory treatment of addiction may continue outside an institution. If he does not continue the treatment, his conditional release shall be revoked.

(5) The perpetrator of a criminal offence, who does not submit himself to the treatment of addiction during a probation period set in a suspended sentence, may be treated pursuant to the provision of Article 63 (Revocation of Suspended Sentence Caused by Failure to Fulfil Particular Obligations) of this Code.

Ban on Carrying out a Certain Occupation, Activity or Duty Article 73

(1) The security measure of ban on carrying out a certain occupation, activity or duty may be imposed to a perpetrator who perpetrates a criminal offence with regard to property entrusted or accessible to him by virtue of his occupation, activity or duty, if there is a danger that such role could induce the perpetrator to perpetrate another criminal offence through the abuse of the occupation, activity or duty with regard to the property entrusted or accessible to him.

(2) The security measure of ban on carrying out a certain occupation, activity or duty may be imposed for a term which exceeds one but does not exceed ten years, counting from the date the decision becomes final, with the provision that the time spent serving the punishment of imprisonment shall not be credited towards the term of this security measure.

(3) As in the case referred to in Article 43 (Community Service) paragraph 5 of this Code, the execution of imprisonment may be ordered against the perpetrator of a criminal offence who, while performing community service as a substitute to imprisonment, fails to act in accordance with the ban on carrying out a certain occupation, activity or duty.

(4) The perpetrator of a criminal offence who does not act in accordance with the ban on carrying out a certain occupation, activity or duty during a probation period set in a suspended sentence, may be treated pursuant to the provision of Article 63 (Revocation of Suspended Sentence Caused by Failure to Fulfil Particular Obligations) of this Code.

Forfeiture Article 74

(1) Forfeiture shall be ordered with regard to objects used or destined for use in the perpetration of a criminal offence, or to those that resulted from the perpetration of a criminal offence, when there is a danger that those objects will be used again for the perpetration of a criminal offence or when the purpose of protecting the public safety or moral reasons make the forfeiture seem absolutely necessary, if those objects are owned by the perpetrator.

(2) Objects referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be forfeited even if not owned by the perpetrator when consideration of public safety or moral reasons so require, but such forfeiture does not affect the rights of third parties to obtain damage compensation from the perpetrator.

(3) The law may provide for mandatory forfeiture in the case of paragraph 2 of this Article.

X CHAPTER TEN

RULES RELATING TO EDUCATIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS, EDUCATIONAL MEASURES AND PUNISHING JUVENILES

Special Provisions of Criminal Code Applicable to Juveniles Article 75

(1) The provisions of this Chapter are applicable to juveniles who have perpetrated criminal offences, while other criminal provisions, set forth in the other laws shall be applied to juveniles only insofar as they do not exceed the boundaries defined by special provisions for juvenile perpetrators of criminal offences.

(2) Special provisions for juvenile perpetrators of criminal offences are also applied under conditions set forth in the provisions of this Chapter to adult persons who are being tried for criminal offences that they have perpetrated as juveniles, and exceptionally to persons who have perpetrated a criminal offence as young adults.

Conditions for Applying Educational Recommendations
Article 76

- (1) Educational recommendations may be applied to a juvenile for criminal offences for which a fine or a punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years is prescribed.
- (2) The educational recommendations may be applied to a juvenile by a competent prosecutor or judge for juvenile perpetrators.
- (3) The conditions for application of educational recommendations are: the juvenile's admission that he has perpetrated the criminal offence, and his expressed willingness to make amends with the injured party.

Purpose of Educational Recommendations
Article 77

The purpose of educational recommendations is:

- a) To avoid initiation of criminal procedures against juvenile perpetrators; and
- b) To use the educational recommendations as a means of influencing juveniles not to perpetrate criminal offences.

Types of Educational Recommendations
Article 78

- (1) Educational recommendations are:
 - a) Personal apology to the injured party;
 - b) Compensation of damage to the injured party;
 - c) Regular school attendance;
 - d) Working for a humanitarian organisation or local community;
 - e) Accepting an appropriate job;
 - f) Being placed in another family, home or institution;
 - g) Treatment in an adequate health institution;
 - h) Attending instructive, educational, psychological and other forms of counselling;
- (2) Educational recommendations given under items a) through c) and h) of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be applied by the competent prosecutor, while the recommendations given under items d) through g) shall be applied by the juvenile judge.

Selection of Educational Recommendations
Article 79

- (1) When deciding which particular educational recommendation to apply, the competent prosecutor or judge for juveniles shall take into consideration the overall interests of the juvenile and the injured party. In doing so, he shall pay special attention not to jeopardise the juvenile's regular schooling or work by applying educational recommendations.
- (2) The educational recommendations may not last longer than one year.
- (3) Upon becoming effective, one educational recommendation may be replaced with another, or it may be cancelled.
- (4) The selection and application of educational recommendations is done in collaboration with the juvenile's parents or guardians and institutions of social care.

Criminal Sanctions for Juveniles
Article 80

- (1) Educational measures and certain security measures may be imposed to a juvenile perpetrator of a criminal offence, while in extreme cases, the punishment of juvenile imprisonment may be imposed on an older juvenile.
- (2) To a juvenile who at the time of perpetration of a criminal offence had attained fourteen years of age but had not reached sixteen years of age (a junior juvenile) only educational measures may be imposed.
- (3) To a juvenile who at the time of perpetration of a criminal offence had attained sixteen years of age but had not yet reached eighteen years of age (a senior juvenile) educational measures may be imposed under conditions laid down by this Code, and exceptionally a punishment of juvenile imprisonment may be imposed.
- (4) Security measures may be imposed on juveniles under the conditions laid down under this Code.
- (5) A suspended sentence may not be imposed on a juvenile.

Purpose of Educational Measures and Juvenile Imprisonment
Article 81

The purpose of educational measures and of juvenile imprisonment is to ensure the education, rehabilitation and proper development of juveniles who have perpetrated criminal offences by extending protection, assistance and supervision to them, providing them with vocational training and developing their personal responsibility. In addition, the purpose of juvenile imprisonment is to exercise special influence on juvenile perpetrators in order to prevent them from perpetrating criminal offences in the future, as well as to deter other juveniles from perpetrating criminal offences.

Types of Educational Measures
Article 82

- (1) Educational measures are:

- a) Disciplinary measures;
- b) Measures of intensified supervision;
- c) Institutional measures.

(2) Disciplinary measures shall be imposed on a juvenile perpetrator of a criminal offence who does not need to be submitted to extended educational or reformatory measures, in particular if he has perpetrated a criminal offence out of thoughtlessness or frivolity.

(3) Measures of intensified supervision shall be imposed on a juvenile perpetrator of a criminal offence if it appears necessary to submit the juvenile to extended measures of education, rehabilitation or treatment under adequate supervision, but where it is not necessary to completely isolate him from the old environment.

(4) Institutional measures shall be imposed on a juvenile perpetrator of a criminal offence when it appears necessary to submit him to extended measures of education, rehabilitation or treatment, as well as to detach him completely from his old environment. Institutional measures may not last more than five years.

Educational Measures

Article 83

On a juvenile perpetrator of a criminal offence, the following educational measures may be imposed:

- a) Disciplinary measure of committal to a disciplinary centre for juveniles;
- b) Measures of intensified supervision: on the part of the parents, adoptive parents or guardians, in a foster home, or on the part of a competent social care body;
- c) Institutional measures: committal to an educational institution, to an educational-reformatory home or some other training establishment.

Selection of Educational Measures

Article 84

When deciding on the appropriate educational measure, the court shall take into account the age of the juvenile, the degree of his mental development, psychological traits, his propensities, the motives from which he perpetrated the deed, the education and upbringing he was as yet provided with, his environment and living conditions, the gravity of his deed, whether he has a previous record of punishment or whether an educational measure has previously been ordered to him, and all other circumstances relevant to the selection of such a measure.

Committal to Disciplinary Centre for Juveniles

Article 85

(1) The court shall impose the educational measure of committal to a disciplinary centre for juveniles when it appears necessary to exert an influence on the personality and conduct of a juvenile perpetrator of criminal offence by means of appropriate short-term measures.

(2) A juvenile upon whom a measure set forth under paragraph 1 of this Article has been imposed may be committed by the court to the disciplinary centre:

- a) For a specified number of hours on holidays, but for not more than four consecutive days of a holiday;
- b) For a specified number of hours during a day, but for not more than one month;
- c) For a continuous stay over a specified number of days, totalling to not more than twenty days.

(3) In ordering a measure set forth under paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall make sure that the juvenile does not fall behind in his regular studies or work due to the enforcement of the measure.

(4) The juvenile may be employed in the disciplinary centre with useful labour appropriate to his age, if he or his legal guardian consents to the labour.

(5) In imposing the educational measure of committal to the disciplinary centre for juveniles, the court may impose the educational measure of intensified supervision on the part of the competent social care body, which will be executed after the execution of the educational measure of committal to the disciplinary centre for juveniles.

Intensified Supervision on the Part of Parents, Adoptive Parents or Guardian Article 86

(1) The educational measure of intensified supervision on the part of parents, adoptive parents or guardians, shall be ordered by the court if the parents, adoptive parents or guardians have failed in supervising the juvenile, although they are capable of exercising such supervision.

(2) When imposing the educational measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court may give necessary instructions to the parents, adoptive parents or guardians, and order them to carry out particular duties with respect to measures that need to be undertaken towards the education of the juvenile, towards his medical treatment and averting harmful influences upon him.

(3) In imposing the educational measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court may make an order upon the competent social care body to check its enforcement and render assistance to the parents, adoptive parents or guardians. The court shall subsequently decide on the termination of this control, with the provision that it may not be shorter than one or longer than three years.

Intensified Supervision in a Foster Home Article 87

(1) If the parents, adoptive parents or guardians of a juvenile are not in a position to supervise him, or if they cannot be reasonably expected to do so, the court shall impose on the juvenile the educational measure of intensified supervision in a foster home placing him with another family that is willing to accommodate him and that has the ability to exercise an intensified supervision over him.

(2) The enforcement of the educational measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be discontinued when it becomes possible for the parents, adoptive parents or guardians of the juvenile to exercise intensified supervision over him, or when as a result of the education process the intensified supervision becomes no longer required.

(3) In imposing the educational measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall make an order upon the competent social care body to check, throughout the duration of the measure, its enforcement, as well as to render necessary assistance to the family with which the juvenile has been accommodated.

Intensified Supervision on the Part of the Competent Social Care Body Article 88

(1) If the parents, adoptive parents or guardians are in no position to intensively supervise the juvenile, and if the conditions for imposing the educational measure of intensified supervision in a foster home do not exist, the court shall impose on to juvenile the educational measure of intensified supervision on the part of the competent social care body.

(2) The court shall subsequently decide on the date of discontinuation of the educational measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, providing that its duration may not be shorter than one year or longer than three years. During the enforcement of the measure, the juvenile shall stay with his parents, adoptive parents or guardians, while the intensified supervision over him shall be exercised by an authorised person of the competent social care body.

(3) The authorised person of the competent social care body shall take care of the juvenile's studies, his employment, his detachment from the environment affecting him in a harmful way, his necessary medical treatment and the improvement of his living conditions.

Special Obligations in Conjunction with Measures of Intensified Supervision Article 89

(1) In imposing an educational measure of intensified supervision referred to under Articles 86 (Intensified Supervision on the Part of Parents, Adoptive Parents or Guardian), 87 (Intensified Supervision in a Foster Home) and 88 (Intensified Supervision on the Part of the Competent Social Care Body) of this Code, the court may order to a juvenile one or more special obligations, if necessary for the successful enforcement of the measure, provided that the obligations cannot last longer than the educational measure itself.

(2) The court may order to the juvenile the following obligations in particular: that he should apologise to the injured party, pay for the damage within his abilities, go to school regularly, undergo training for a job suitable for his capabilities and propensities, restrain from using liquor and intoxicating drugs, visit an appropriate health institution or counselling office, and not to associate with persons who have bad influence on him.

(3) The court may subsequently cancel or modify obligations it has ordered.

(4) In the event that the obligations referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article are not fulfilled, the court may substitute the imposed measure of intensified supervision with some other educational measure.

(5) In ordering the obligations referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the court shall alert a juvenile to the consequences referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article.

Committal to Educational Institution
Article 90

(1) The court shall impose the educational measure of committal to an educational institution on a juvenile who has to be submitted to lasting supervision on the part of trained educators in the institution for the education of juveniles.

(2) The juvenile shall remain in the educational institution for a term not shorter than six months and not longer than three years. When imposing the measure, the court shall not determine its duration, but shall subsequently decide thereupon (Article 93, Discontinuance and Modification of Decision on Educational Measures, paragraph 2 of this Code).

Committal to an Educational-Reformatory Home
Article 91

(1) The court shall impose the educational measure of committal to an educational-reformatory home for juvenile perpetrators to a juvenile to whom intensified reformatory measures have to be applied.

(2) In deciding whether to impose the educational measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall take into particular consideration the gravity and nature of the offence perpetrated, as well as the circumstance whether educational measures or juvenile imprisonment have already been imposed on the juvenile.

(3) The juvenile shall remain in the educational-reformatory home for a term not shorter than one year or longer than five years. When imposing the educational measure referred to under paragraph 1, the court shall not determine its duration, but shall subsequently decide thereupon (Article 93, Discontinuance and Modification of Decision on Educational Measures, paragraph 2 of this Code).

Committal to Another Training Institution
Article 92

(1) To a juvenile whose mental or physical development is impeded the court may impose the educational measure of committal to another training institution in lieu of the educational measure of committal to an educational institution or the educational measure of committal to an educational-reformatory home.

(2) The juvenile shall remain in the training institution as long as it appears necessary for his medical treatment or rehabilitation, but when the juvenile comes of age the need for his further stay in the institution shall be reassessed.

Discontinuance and Modification of Decisions on Educational Measures
Article 93

(1) If after the decision on imposing an educational measure of intensified supervision or an institutional educational measure, circumstances appear which had not existed at the time of the decision or had then been unknown, but might have affected the making of the decision, the enforcement of the measure imposed may be discontinued, or the measure imposed may be substituted with another educational measure of intensified supervision or an institutional educational measure.

(2) In addition to the cases referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, unless otherwise provided with respect to certain measures, the enforcement of educational measures of intensified supervision or institutional educational measures may be discontinued due to the success achieved in the educational process, or these measures may be substituted by other such measures better suited to attainment of the purpose of educational measures.

(3) The discontinuance or substitution of an institutional educational measure by another type of institutional educational measure shall be subject to the following restrictions:

- a) Enforcement of the educational measure of committal to an educational institution may not be discontinued before the expiration of a term of six months, and until such time can only be substituted by the educational measure of committal to an educational-reformatory home or the educational measure of committal to some other training institution;
- b) Enforcement of the educational measure of committal to an educational-reformatory home may not be discontinued before the expiration of a term of one year, and before such time may only be substituted by the educational measure of a committal to some other training institution.

(4) Exceptionally, enforcement of the educational measure of committal to educational institution or the educational measure of committal to an educational-reformatory home may be discontinued or be substituted by some other measure even before the expiration of the time-limits referred to in items a) and b) of paragraph 3 of this Article if special circumstances that relate to the personality of the juvenile manifestly show that the purpose of these measures has been attained.

Reconsideration of Educational Measures

Article 94

(1) The court shall reconsider the need of enforcing the educational measure imposed if more than one year has elapsed since the day when the decision imposing an educational measure of intensified supervision or an institutional educational measure took effect, and if until such time the enforcement of the measure has not commenced. Reconsidering it, the court may decide that the previously imposed measure be enforced, not enforced or substituted with another measure.

(2) The educational measure of committal to a disciplinary centre for juveniles shall not be executed if more than six months have elapsed since the day when the decision imposing the measure took effect, and if the enforcement of the measure has not yet commenced.

Punishment of Senior Juveniles

Article 95

Only a senior juvenile criminally liable may be punished if he has perpetrated a criminal offence for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding five years has been prescribed, if it would not be justifiable to apply an educational measure because of the grave consequences of the offence perpetrated and the high degree of criminal responsibility.

Juvenile Imprisonment
Article 96

(1) The duration of the sentence of juvenile imprisonment may not be shorter than one or longer than ten years, and shall be measured in full years or half-years.

(2) In meting out punishment for a senior juvenile for a criminal offence, the court may not impose juvenile imprisonment for a term exceeding that of imprisonment prescribed for that particular criminal offence, but the court shall not be bound by the minimal punishment prescribed for the particular criminal offence.

Meting Out Juvenile Imprisonment
Article 97

In meting out juvenile imprisonment for a senior juvenile, the court shall take into consideration all circumstances that may influence the sentence being longer or shorter (Article 48, General Principles of Meting out Punishments), paying special attention to level of mental development of the juvenile and time needed for his correction and occupational training.

Imposing Educational Measures and Juvenile Imprisonment for Concurrent Criminal Offences
Article 98

(1) The court shall impose only one educational measure on a juvenile for concurrent criminal offences, or only a sentence of juvenile imprisonment when legal conditions exist for that sentence to be imposed and when the court finds that it should be imposed.

(2) The court shall proceed in the same manner as set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article in case it establishes that a juvenile had perpetrated a criminal offence prior or after an educational measure or juvenile imprisonment has been imposed.

Statute of Limitation on Execution of the Punishment of Juvenile Imprisonment
Article 99

The execution of the sentence to juvenile imprisonment is barred when the following time periods have elapsed from the date of entering into force of the judgement by which a punishment of juvenile imprisonment has been imposed:

- a) Ten years if the punishment of juvenile imprisonment for a term exceeding five years has been imposed;
- b) Five years if the punishment of juvenile imprisonment for a term exceeding three years has been imposed;
- c) Three years if the punishment of juvenile imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years has been imposed.

Imposing Criminal Sanctions on Adults for Offences They Have Perpetrated as Juveniles
Article 100

(1) An adult who has reached twenty-one years of age may not be tried for a criminal offence he perpetrated as a junior juvenile.

(2) If an adult has not reached twenty-one years of age at the time of the trial, he may be tried only for criminal offences for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term exceeding five years has been prescribed. The court may impose on such a person only the appropriate institutional educational measure, taking into account, when considering whether to impose such a measure or not, all the relevant circumstances of the case, in particular the gravity of the criminal offence perpetrated, the time that has elapsed since the perpetration, the conduct of the perpetrator and the purpose of the educational measure.

(3) An appropriate institutional educational measure may be imposed on an adult for a criminal offence he perpetrated as a senior juvenile, and under conditions referred to in Article 96 (Juvenile Imprisonment) of this Code, a punishment of juvenile imprisonment may also be imposed. In deciding whether to impose a sanction and which of the sanctions to impose, the court shall take into account all the relevant circumstances of the case, in particular the gravity of the criminal offence perpetrated, the time that has elapsed since its perpetration, the conduct of the perpetrator, as well as the purpose of these sanctions.

(4) As an exception to the provision set forth in paragraph 3 of this Article, in lieu of juvenile imprisonment the court may sentence to imprisonment or impose a suspended sentence on an adult who has reached twenty-one years of age at the time of the trial. Regarding rehabilitation, deleting the sentence and legal consequences of the sentence, the sentence of imprisonment in this case shall have the same legal effect as a sentence to juvenile imprisonment.

Imposing Educational Measures on Young Adults Article 101

(1) The court may impose an appropriate institutional measure on a perpetrator who has perpetrated a criminal offence as an adult, but who has not reached twenty-one years of age at the time of trial, if, given his personality and circumstances in which he perpetrated the criminal offence, it may reasonably be expected that the educational measure would have the same result as an imprisonment sentence.

(2) Under the conditions defined in this Code, the court may impose on a young adult on whom it had imposed an educational measure any security measure prescribed in this Code, other than the security measure of prohibition to carry out a certain occupation, activity or duty.

(3) The educational measure imposed may last only until the perpetrator reaches twenty-three years of age.

Imposing Security Measures to a Juvenile Article 102

(1) Security measures referred to in Article 69 (Types of Security Measures), items a), b) and d) of this Code may, under conditions determined in law, be imposed on a juvenile perpetrator on whom an educational measure or a sentence to juvenile imprisonment has been imposed.

(2) A security measure of mandatory treatment of addiction may not be imposed together with disciplinary measures.

(3) Instead of a security measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment, an educational measure of committal to another training establishment may be imposed if the treatment and the supervision may be enforced in that institution and thus the purpose of the security measure attained. In addition, the security measure of forfeiture may also be imposed.

Impact of Punishment on Educational Measures Article 103

(1) If the court imposes a punishment of juvenile imprisonment on a senior juvenile during the course of an educational measure, such educational measure shall terminate with commencement of the service of the punishment.

(2) If the court imposes on an adult a punishment of juvenile imprisonment or imprisonment for a term of at least one year during the course of an educational measure, such educational measure shall terminate with commencement of the service of the punishment.

(3) If the court imposes on an adult a punishment of imprisonment for a term shorter than one year during the course of an educational measure, the court shall decide in the judgement whether upon the completion of the imprisonment term the educational measure would be continued or cancelled.

Effect of Educational Measures and Sentencing to Juvenile Imprisonment Article 104

(1) Educational measures and juvenile imprisonment do not entail the legal consequences consisting of the bar to acquire certain rights as set under Article 114 (Types of Legal Consequences Incident to Conviction), paragraph 2 of this Code.

(2) The provisions of Article 108 (Labour by Convicted Persons) of this Code also apply to the persons serving the educational measure of committal to an educational-reformatory home or sentence of juvenile imprisonment.

Records on Educational Measures Imposed Article 105

(1) Records on educational measures imposed are to be kept with competent social care bodies pursuant to regulations adopted by the body in charge of social care in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, in the Republika Srpska and in the Brčko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(2) Data on educational measures imposed may be revealed only to the court, public prosecutor's office, internal affairs organs and social care bodies in relation to criminal proceedings against persons on whom the educational measures were imposed.

XI CHAPTER ELEVEN

GENERAL PROVISIONS ON EXECUTION OF CRIMINAL SANCTIONS

Execution of Sentence of Imprisonment or Long-term imprisonment Article 106

(1) The sentence of imprisonment or juvenile imprisonment shall be carried out in closed, semi-open or open institutions for the execution of punishments.

(2) The sentence of long-term imprisonment shall be carried out in the closed-type institution for execution of punishments.

Limits as to the Execution of Punishments

Article 107

A person upon whom a punishment is to be executed shall be deprived of his rights or have his rights restricted pursuant to the law only insofar as it may be necessary to achieve the purpose of the particular sentence.

Labour by Convicted Persons

Article 108

(1) A person sentenced to imprisonment, long-term imprisonment or juvenile imprisonment, if able to work, may work if he consents to it.

(2) If a convicted person requests or consents to work, carrying out of such work shall be enabled.

(3) The work of convicted persons should be useful and should correspond as much as possible to the contemporary way of performing the same kind of work at liberty, and to the professional and other abilities of the convicted persons.

Execution of Sentence of Juvenile Imprisonment

Article 109

(1) The sentence of juvenile imprisonment is served by senior juveniles in special institutions for juvenile offenders, where they are allowed to stay until they reach eighteen years of age. Those who have reached eighteen but who have not reached twenty-three years of age (younger juveniles) shall serve the sentence of juvenile imprisonment in special institutions for younger juveniles or in a special department of the institution where adults are serving sentence, where measures are to be taken in order to ensure that contact of juveniles and older convicted persons is prevented. If a person has not completed serving the punishment until the time he reached twenty-three years of age, he shall be sent to prison for adults.

(2) A younger juvenile may stay in the institution for juvenile offenders as long as it is necessary in order to complete his schooling or training. A younger juvenile may not stay, under any circumstances, in the institution for juvenile offenders if this would be detrimental, in any way, for juveniles serving the sentence there.

(3) The choice of occupation for convicted juveniles shall be made in accordance with their abilities and inclinations towards some occupation, aiming to occupational training and in accordance with the possibilities available at the institution for juvenile offenders. Younger juveniles shall also have the possibility for education and training regardless of whether they are serving the sentence in special institutions or in special departments of prisons for adults.

(4) Working hours of the convicted juveniles are set so to enable schooling and training, and to leave enough time for physical exercise and entertainment.

(5) The convict can be released on parole if he has served one third of his sentence, but not before one year of the time to be spent in the institution for juvenile offenders has elapsed. During the parole, the court may order the measure of intensified supervision by a competent social care body. Revocation of parole shall be done in accordance with the provisions of Article 45 (Revocation of Parole) of this Code.

(6) The convicted juveniles, except in special circumstances, shall be entitled to maintain contacts with their family through letters and visits.

XII CHAPTER TWELVE

CONFISCATION OF MATERIAL GAIN ACQUIRED THROUGH PERPETRATION OF A CRIMINAL OFFENCE AND LEGAL CONSEQUENCES INCIDENT TO CONVICTION

The Basis of the Confiscation of Material Gain

Article 110

(1) Nobody is allowed to retain material gain acquired by the perpetration of a criminal offence.

(2) The gain referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be confiscated by the court decision, which established the perpetration of a criminal offence, under the terms set forth under this Code.

(3) The court may also confiscate the gain referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in a separate proceeding if there is a probable cause to believe that the gain derives from a criminal offence and the owner or possessor is not able to give evidence that the gain was acquired legally.

Ways of Confiscating Material Gain

Article 111

(1) All the money, valuable objects and every other material gain acquired by the perpetration of a criminal offence shall be confiscated from the perpetrator, and in case the confiscation is not feasible - the perpetrator shall be obliged to pay an amount of money which corresponds to the acquired material gain. Material gain acquired by perpetration of a criminal offence may be confiscated from persons to whom it has been transferred without compensation or with a compensation which does not correspond to the real value, if the persons knew or should have known that the material gain had been acquired by the perpetration of a criminal offence.

(2) If proceeds of a criminal offence have been intermingled with property acquired from legitimate sources, such property shall be liable to confiscation not exceeding the assessed value of the intermingled proceeds.

(3) Income or other benefits derived from the proceeds of a criminal offence, from property into which proceeds of criminal offence have been converted, or from property with which proceeds of criminal offence have been intermingled shall also be liable to the measures referred to in this Article, in the same manner and extent as the proceeds of the criminal offence.

Protection of Injured Party
Article 112

(1) If criminal procedure has resulted in awarding property claims to the injured party, the court shall order the confiscation of material gain if it exceeds the awarded property claim of the injured party.

(2) The injured party who has been directed to initiate civil litigation in the course of criminal proceedings regarding his property claim, may demand that he be reimbursed from the amount of the confiscated value, provided that the civil case is started within six months from the day when the decision by which he has been directed to litigate took effect and if he demands to be compensated from the confiscated value within three months from the day when his claim was legally established.

(3) An injured party who did not report a property claim during the course of a criminal proceedings may demand compensation from the confiscated value, if he has begun litigating his claims within three months from the day when he found out about the judgement which confiscates a material gain, but no longer than within two years from the day when the decision on the confiscation of material gain took effect, or if within three months from the day when the decision by which his claim was established he demands compensation from the confiscated value.

Taking Effect of the Legal Consequences Incident to Conviction
Article 113

(1) Sentences for particular criminal offences may entail as legal consequences the termination or loss of certain rights, or bar on the acquisition of certain rights.

(2) Legal consequences incident to conviction may not occur when the perpetrator of a criminal offence has been imposed a fine or a suspended sentence, or when the court has released him from punishment.

(3) Legal consequences incident to conviction may be prescribed only by law and they take effect by the force of the law in which they were set forth.

Types of Legal Consequences Incident to Conviction
Article 114

(1) Legal consequences incident to conviction relating to the termination or loss of certain rights are the following:

- a) Cessation of the performance of particular jobs or functions in government agencies, business enterprises or other legal persons;
- b) Termination of employment or cessation of the performance of a particular profession, occupation or activity;
- c) Deprivation of decorations.

(2) Legal consequences incident to conviction which consist of a bar on the acquisition of particular rights are as follows:

- a) Bar on the performance of certain jobs or functions in government agencies, business enterprises or other legal persons;
- b) Bar on the acquisition of a particular office, title, position or promotion in service;
- c) Bar on the acquisition of particular permits or licenses that are issued by a decision of government agencies.

Beginning and Duration of Legal Consequences Incident to Conviction
Article 115

(1) The legal consequences incident to conviction take effect on the day of effectiveness of the sentence.

(2) The legal consequences incident to conviction which consist of a bar on the acquisition of particular right may not exceed ten years from the day on which the punishment has been served, pardoned or amnestied, or has been barred by the statute of limitation, except for certain legal consequences for which law provides a shorter period of duration.

(3) The legal consequences incident to conviction cease by the deletion of the sentence.

Termination of Security Measures and Legal Consequences Incident to Conviction on the Basis of the Court Decision
Article 116

(1) The court may decide to discontinue the application of the security measure of a prohibition to carry out a certain occupation, activity or duty, if three years have elapsed from the day on which the security measure took effect.

(2) The court may decide to terminate the legal consequence of a sentence consisting in the bar on the acquisition of a certain right after the lapse of three years from the day on which the punishment has been served, pardoned or amnestied, or barred by the statute of limitation.

(3) In deciding whether to order the termination of a security measure or a legal consequence of a sentence, the court shall take into account the conduct of the convicted person after the conviction, his readiness to compensate damage caused by the perpetration of a criminal offence and to return material gain acquired by the perpetration of a criminal offence, as well as other circumstances which indicate the justifiability of the termination of a security measure or a legal consequence of a sentence.

(4) The termination of legal consequences incident to conviction in no way affects the rights of third parties originating from the judgement.

XIII CHAPTER THIRTEEN

REHABILITATION, AMNESTY, PARDON AND DELETION OF CONVICTION

Rehabilitation Article 117

(1) Following release from the institution where they had served sentences of imprisonment, long-term imprisonment or juvenile imprisonment or after being pardoned or amnestied, or after the punishment was barred by the statute of limitation, convicted persons shall freely enjoy all rights provided by the constitution, law and other regulations, and may acquire all rights other than those whose exercise is limited as a result of a security measure imposed on them or a legal consequence of the conviction.

(2) The provision of paragraph 1 of this Article also applies to persons on parole, unless their rights are limited by special provisions on release on parole.

Amnesty Article 118

(1) By an amnesty, to the persons covered by it, a release from criminal prosecution, complete or partial release from the execution of punishment, substitution of the imposed punishment by a less severe one, deletion of the conviction, or cancellation of legal consequences incident to conviction is given.

(2) An amnesty for the criminal offences prescribed under this Code, may be granted by the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina by virtue of a law.

Pardon Article 119

(1) By means of pardon, to the specifically designated persons, a release from criminal prosecution, complete or partial release from the execution of punishment, substitution of the imposed punishment by a less severe one, deletion of the conviction, or annulment or shortening the duration of the security measure of prohibition to carry out a certain occupation, activity or duty, or a certain legal consequence incident to conviction is given.

(2) A pardon for the criminal offences prescribed under this Code, may be granted by the decision of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina in accordance with law.

Impact of Amnesty and Pardon on Third Parties Article 120

Granting amnesty or pardon shall in no way affect the rights of third parties that stem from the sentence.

Deleting Conviction Article 121

(1) A sentence by which a person who has perpetrated a criminal offence has been released from punishment shall be deleted from the criminal record, provided he does not perpetrate a new criminal offence within the period of one year from the date of entry into force of the decision.

(2) A suspended sentence shall be deleted from the criminal record after the period of one year from the expiration of the probation period has elapsed, unless the person convicted has perpetrated another criminal offence within that period.

(3) A sentence of a fine shall be deleted from the criminal record after the lapse of the period of three years from the day on which the punishment has been executed, pardoned or amnestied, or barred by the statute of limitation, provided the convicted person does not perpetrate a new criminal offence within that period.

(4) The sentences to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to juvenile imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, shall be deleted from the criminal record after the lapse of the period of five years from the day on which the punishment has been served, pardoned or amnestied, or has been barred by the statute of limitation, provided that the convicted person does not perpetrate a new criminal offence within that period.

(5) Upon appeal by a convicted person, the court may decide to delete a sentence of imprisonment for a term between one year and three years from the criminal record, if a period of five years has expired from the day on which the punishment has been served, pardoned or amnestied, or barred by lapse of time, provided that the convicted person has not perpetrated a new criminal offence within that period. In deciding on deleting the sentence, the court shall take into account the conduct of the convicted person after serving his sentence, the nature of the criminal offence, and other circumstances that might be relevant for the evaluation of the justifiability of the deletion.

(6) Sentences may not be deleted from criminal records for as long as security measures are in force.

(7) If, during the period set for deletion of sentence, the convicted person is punished by imprisonment for a term exceeding three years, neither previous nor subsequent sentences shall be deleted from criminal record.

(8) Several sentences which have been imposed on the same person may be deleted from the criminal record only simultaneously, and only if conditions exist for each of the sentences to be deleted.

XIV CHAPTER FOURTEEN

LIABILITY OF LEGAL PERSONS FOR CRIMINAL OFFENCES

Liability of Legal Persons Article 122

(1) This Chapter regulates criminal liability of a legal person, with the exclusion of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Republika Srpska, the Brčko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina, canton, city, municipality and local community, for a criminal offence perpetrated by the perpetrator in the name of, for account of or in favour of the legal person.

(2) This Chapter regulates punishments and other criminal sanctions that may be imposed on a legal person, as well as legal consequences of the sentence for a criminal offence imposed on the legal person.

(3) The application of some punishments or other criminal sanctions that may be imposed on legal persons may be excluded or limited under the conditions stipulated by a law and for certain legal persons.

(4) The criminal procedure against legal persons shall be conducted according to the Criminal Procedure Code of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Territorial Applicability of this Code regarding Criminal Liability of Legal Person
Article 123

(1) Domestic and foreign legal persons shall, pursuant to this Code, be liable for criminal offences perpetrated within the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(2) Domestic and foreign legal persons shall, pursuant to this Code, also be liable for a criminal offence perpetrated outside the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina if the legal person has its seat in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina or if it carries out its activities in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, if the offence was perpetrated against the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina, its citizens or domestic legal persons.

(3) Pursuant to this Code a domestic legal person shall also be liable for a criminal offence perpetrated outside the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina against a foreign state, foreign citizens or foreign legal persons, subject to the conditions referred to in Article 12 (Applicability of Criminal Legislation of Bosnia and Herzegovina for Offences Perpetrated Outside the Territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina) of this Code.

Basis of Liability of a Legal Person
Article 124

For a criminal offence perpetrated in the name of, for account of or for the benefit of the legal person, the legal person shall be liable:

- a) When the purpose of the criminal offence is arising from the conclusion, order or permission of its managerial or supervisory bodies; or
- b) When its managerial or supervisory bodies have influenced the perpetrator or enabled him to perpetrate the criminal offence; or
- c) When a legal person disposes of illegally obtained property gain or uses objects acquired in the criminal offence; or
- d) When its managerial or supervisory bodies failed to carry out due supervision over the legality of work of the employees.

Limits of Liability of a Legal Person
Article 125

(1) With the conditions referred to in Article 124 (Basis of Liability of a Legal Person) of this Code, a legal person shall also be liable for a criminal offence when the perpetrator is not criminally liable for the perpetrated criminal offence.

(2) Liability of the legal person shall not exclude criminal liability of physical or responsible persons for the perpetrated criminal offence.

(3) For criminal offences perpetrated out of negligence, a legal person may be liable under the conditions referred to in Article 124, item d) of this Code, and in that case the legal person may be punished less severely.

(4) When in the legal person except from the perpetrator there is no other person or body that could direct or supervise the perpetrator, the legal person shall be liable for the criminal offence within the limits of the perpetrator's liability.

Liability Incident to the Change of Status of a Legal Person
Article 126

(1) A legal person under bankruptcy may be criminally liable for a criminal offence regardless of whether the criminal offence was perpetrated before the beginning of the bankruptcy proceedings or in the meantime, but no punishment may be imposed on a legal person under bankruptcy, but only the security measure of forfeiture or the confiscation of property gain.

(2) In the event that the legal person has ceased to exist before the criminal proceedings are completed with a final judgement, and in the criminal proceedings that legal person was found liable, punishments and other criminal sanctions shall be imposed on the legal person which is its legal successor, if its managerial or supervisory bodies had knowledge of the perpetrated criminal offence before the cessation of existence of the legal person.

(3) The security measure of forfeiture or the confiscation of material gain shall be imposed upon the legal person, which is the legal successor of the convicted legal person, if its management or supervision bodies had knowledge of the perpetrated criminal offence.

(4) In the event the legal person has ceased to exist upon the final completion of the criminal proceedings, the criminal sanction shall be executed pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article.

Liability of a Legal Person for an Attempt
Article 127

(1) If the perpetrator commences the execution of a planned criminal offence, but does not complete such offence, under the terms of Article 124 (Basis of Liability of a Legal Person) of this Code, the legal person shall be liable where the law prescribes that the attempt is punishable.

(2) The legal person shall be punished equally as if it were for the completed criminal offence but may nevertheless be punished less severely.

(3) If the managerial or supervisory authorities of the legal person have prevented the perpetrator from completing the commenced criminal offence, the legal person may be released from punishment.

Continued Criminal Offence and Criminal Liability of Legal Person
Article 128

Where the same grounds for liability of the legal person exist in regard to several same-type and time-related criminal offences perpetrated by several perpetrators, such legal person shall be liable as if a single criminal offence has been perpetrated.

Complicity of Legal Persons
Article 129

(1) In the event that two or more legal persons are found to have partaken in the perpetration of a criminal offence, each shall be subject to liability pursuant to Article 124 (Basis of Liability of a Legal Person) of this Code.

(2) Where there is complicity of legal persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, each legal person shall be held accountable as if it were the only legal person criminally responsible for the criminal offence.

General Reasoning for Less Severe Punishment of Legal Person or Release from Punishment
Article 130

(1) A legal person, whose managerial or supervisory authority has willingly reported on the perpetrator upon a criminal offence perpetrated, may be punished less severely.

(2) A legal person whose managerial or supervisory authority, following the perpetration of a criminal offence, decides to return the illegally obtained material gain or to remove the caused harmful effects or to communicate the information concerning the grounds for holding the other legal persons responsible, may be released from punishment.

Punishment for Legal Persons
Article 131

The following types of punishment may be imposed upon the legal persons:

- a) Fines;
- b) Seizure of property;
- c) Dissolution of the legal person.

Fines for Legal Persons
Article 132

(1) Fines imposable on a legal person shall be no less than 5.000 KM and shall not exceed 5.000.000 KM.

(2) In the event that, by perpetrating the criminal offence, the legal person has caused material damage to another party or the legal person has come into possession of an unlawful material gain, the scope of the imposed fine may be twice as much as the amount of this damage or benefit.

Seizure of Property Article 133

(1) The seizure of property may be imposed for criminal offences for which a punishment of imprisonment for a term of five years or more severe punishment is prescribed.

(2) From a legal person at least half of the property or the major part of the property or the entire property may be seized.

(3) In the event of bankruptcy proceedings being brought about as a consequence of the imposed seizure punishment, the creditors shall be permitted to settle their claims out of the mass of the seized bankruptcy assets.

Dissolution of the Legal Person Article 134

(1) Dissolution of a legal person may be imposed in the case that its activities were entirely or partly being used for the purpose of perpetrating criminal offences.

(2) Besides the dissolution of a legal person, the property seizure punishment may be imposed.

(3) In addition to the dissolution of a legal person, the court shall propose the opening of a liquidation procedure.

(4) Creditors may be paid out from the property of the legal person upon which the punishment of dissolution has been imposed.

Meting out Punishment for Legal Persons Article 135

(1) When meting out punishment for a legal person, in addition to the general rules of meting out punishments referred to in Article 48 (General Principles of Meting out Punishments) of this Code, the economic power of the legal person shall also be taken into account.

(2) When meting out the fine for criminal offences for which, in addition to a fine also a property seizure punishment is imposed, the punishment may not exceed a half of the amount of the legal person's property.

Imposing a Suspended Sentence to a Legal Person Article 136

(1) The court may impose a suspended sentence on the legal person instead of a fine.

(2) When imposing a suspended sentence the court may impose on the legal person a fine not exceeding 1.500.000 KM, but at the same time decide that the same shall not be executed unless the legal person becomes liable for other criminal offences within the period of time not shorter than one year or longer than five years.

Security Measures for Legal Persons
Article 137

In addition to the security measure of forfeiture referred to in Article 74 (Forfeiture) of this Code, the following security measures may be imposed for criminal offences perpetrated by legal persons:

- a) A publication of judgement;
- b) A ban on performing a certain economic activity.

Publication of Judgement
Article 138

(1) The security measure of a judgement publication shall be ordered in case it would be useful for the public to learn about the judgement, especially if the announcement would be useful in order to remove a threat to life or health of people or to provide for safety of traffic or to obtain certain benefits for economy.

(2) Concerning the significance of a criminal offence the court shall also assess the need for the public to learn about the judgement, the need as to whether the judgement shall be published in the printed media, by way of radio or television or in several aforesaid media altogether and at the same time as to whether its grounds shall be published entirely or as an abstract. The court shall make sure that the applied method of publication allows that all those concerned by the need for publication of the judgement should be informed.

Ban on Certain Economic Activities
Article 139

(1) By ordering the security measure of a ban on certain economic activities, the court may prohibit a legal person from manufacturing certain products or performing certain businesses, or prohibit a legal person from performing certain activities of trade in commodities or from performing other economic activity.

(2) The security measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be imposed on a legal person if its further performing of a certain economic activity would present a threat to life and limb of people or be prejudicial to the economic and financial operation of other legal persons or detrimental to the economy, or if the legal person has already been sentenced for the same or a similar criminal offence over the past two years preceding the perpetration of the criminal offence.

(3) The security measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be imposed for a period of six months to five years, commencing on the day of the entering into force of the judgement.

Confiscating Material Gain from a Legal Person
Article 140

If a legal person acquires material gain by the perpetration of a criminal offence, the material gain acquired by the perpetration of a criminal offence shall be confiscated from the legal person.

Legal Consequences Incident to Conviction for a Legal Person
Article 141

- (1) Legal consequences incident to conviction for a legal person are:
- a) Bar on work based on a permit, authorisation or concession issued by the authorities of foreign countries;
 - b) Bar on work based on a permit, authorisation or concession issued by the institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- (2) Legal consequences incident to conviction for a legal person may take effect even when a fine has been imposed on a legal person for the perpetration of a criminal offence.

Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Institution of Criminal Prosecution and Execution of Criminal Sanctions Imposed on Legal Persons
Article 142

- (1) On the bar to criminal prosecution of a legal person by the lapse of time, Article 14 (Period Set by Statute of Limitation Regarding the Institution of Criminal Prosecution) of this Code is applied.
- (2) The execution of a sentence imposed on the legal person shall become time-barred when the following periods from the date of the entry into force of the judgement whereby such punishment has been imposed have elapsed:
- a) Three years for execution of a fine;
 - b) Five years for execution of the property seizure punishment and of the punishment of dissolution of legal person.
- (3) The execution of a security measure shall become time-barred after the lapse of:
- a) Six months from the date of entry into force of the judgement whereby the publication of the judgement was imposed;
 - b) The period that equals the time for which the measure of ban on performing certain economic activity of the legal person was imposed.
