

Agreement – Dayton, 10/11/95

Dayton Agreement On Implementing The Federation Of Bosnia And Herzegovina

signed in Dayton 10 November 1995

I. General Principles The complete establishment of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina is an essential prerequisite for peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Without a strong and fully functioning Federation, as one of the two constituent entities of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the proximity talks in Dayton cannot result in a lasting peaceful settlement.

Twenty months after the adoption of the Federation Constitution, the process of strengthening the Federation and building trust between its constituent peoples has still not produced satisfactory results. We, the undersigned, have therefore agreed to radical steps to achieve the political, economic and social integration of the Federation.

The responsibilities and the organization of the Government of the Federation and the Government of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina must be separated. While working together in a spirit of cooperation for the benefit of the population, neither government may interfere in the exclusive competencies of the other government. Without prejudice to the continuing sovereignty and territorial integrity of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Government of the Republic must now transfer functions to the Government of the Federation in accordance with the Federation Constitution.

The Government of the Republic must retrain only those functions that enable it to act as the government of the internationally recognised state of Bosnia and Herzegovina, in accordance with the Constitution of Bosnia and Herzegovina developed during the proximity talks in Dayton. All other functions will be transferred to the Government of the Federation. In parallel, the existing civilian authorities and their organs in the areas of the Federation controlled by the HVO must now transfer all their functions to the Federation organs and be dissolved.

This Agreement shall be brought into conformity with a peace settlement for Bosnia and Herzegovina, when adopted.

In accordance with these principles, we have agreed as follows:

II. Decisions

A. Transfer of Responsibilities to the Federation By 10 December 1995, we shall introduce in the Constituent Assembly of the Federation and the Assembly of the Republic legislation that encompasses the following provisions on the functions and powers of the Federation and Republic Governments, with a view to passage by 20 December.
