

New York: HR meets UN Assistant Secretary-General Jenca

High Representative Valentin Inzko met today in New York with United Nations Assistant Secretary-General for Political Affairs, Miroslav Jenca.

He informed the Assistant Secretary-General about the dominant political trends and developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and the pressing challenges that require immediate resolution.

High Representative Inzko placed particular emphasis on the need for swift completion of the government formation process, and strengthening of the rule of law.