

High Representative meets Croatian Foreign Minister Grlić Radman

The High Representative, Valentin Inzko, met with the Croatian Minister of Foreign and European Affairs Gordan Grlić Radman today in Sarajevo. High Representative Inzko and Minister Grlić Radman discussed the overall political situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina. The High Representative informed Minister Grlić Radman about the status of the implementation of the Dayton Peace Agreement and partly about his forthcoming Report to the UN Security Council.

“Those in charge of political processes in Bosnia and Herzegovina need to develop a sense of urgency and responsibility in addressing the needs of the citizens and in implementing the necessary reforms. Friends in the international community, which are numerous, will help Bosnia and Herzegovina overcome all the obstacles in the integration processes, but the domestic political stakeholders must join the efforts of the International Community,” said the High Representative.

The High Representative Inzko thanked Minister Grlić Radman for all constructive steps that the Republic of Croatia extends to BiH on its European integration path.
