

Principal Deputy High Representative and Brčko Supervisor Louis Crishock expresses sympathies following the devastating fire at Hadži Paša Mosque

Principal Deputy High Representative and Brčko Supervisor Louis Crishock has expressed his deepest sympathies over the devastating fire that severely damaged the historic Hadži Paša Mosque in Brčko during the early hours of December 26, 2024.

“I am deeply saddened by the serious damage to this treasured symbol of cultural and spiritual heritage. My thoughts are with Brčko’s Islamic Community, with its Chief Imam Mustafaf. Gobeljić, and with all the citizens of Brčko as they come to terms with this tragedy. I also want to commend the swift response of firefighters and police, whose efforts helped prevent further damage, injuries and loss of life,” Crishock stated.
