

Remembering the first victims of the Sarajevo siege

Principal Deputy High Representative and Brčko District Supervisor Louis Crishock paid his respects to Suada Dilberović and Olga Sučić, the first victims of the siege of Sarajevo, killed at Vrbanja Bridge on 5 April 1992.

“On this day, we remember the lives lost and the suffering endured. While honouring their memory, we reaffirm our commitment to peace, and to a future grounded in understanding, reconciliation, and respect for all in Bosnia and Herzegovina,” said Crishock.
