

HR Christian Schmidt reaffirmed his commitment to the Hanns Seidel Foundation

Today in Munich, Christian Schmidt, reelected as a vice chairman of the German Hanns Seidel Foundation for Social Research and Political democratic Education, met with the newly elected chair of the Foundation Klaus Holetschek. Christian Schmidt reaffirmed his dedication to oversee and initiate international cooperation and programs to support international democratic resilience.

He underlined particularly the support of the young generation to overcome blockades and turn them into freedom and stability. The Hanns Seidel Foundation is active in BiH, like the Konrad Adenauer Foundation, the Friedrich Ebert Foundation, the Friedrich Naumann Foundation as well as the Heinrich Böll Foundation.
