

Principal Deputy High Representative Louis Crishock hosts students from the University of North Carolina

Principal Deputy High Representative and Brčko District Supervisor Louis Crishock met with students from University of North Carolina today. They discussed current developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and the Office of the High Representative's work to uphold the Dayton Peace Agreement and to assist Bosnia and Herzegovina in building a stable and forward-looking future.