

Canadian Ambassador Lafrenière pays farewell visit to Acting High Representative Crishock

Acting High Representative Louis Crishock received François Lafrenière, Ambassador of Canada to Bosnia and Herzegovina, on his farewell visit, expressing appreciation for his dedicated engagement and contribution to the efforts of the international community in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Crishock thanked Ambassador Lafrenière for Canada's continuous and principled support to Bosnia and Herzegovina, particularly its commitment to peace, stability, democratic development, and its EU and Euro-Atlantic aspirations. He also expressed gratitude for Canada's steadfast support to the Office of the High Representative in carrying out its mandate under the Dayton Peace Agreement, wishing Ambassador Lafrenière success in his future endeavours.
