

Sarajevo once again becomes the heart of regional and international cinema

For the 32nd time, Sarajevo serves as a meeting place for filmmakers, artists, and cinema fans from across the region and around the world.

SFF is more than a celebration of cinema – it brings people together, showcases creativity and talent, and puts Sarajevo and Bosnia and Herzegovina firmly in the international spotlight.

Wishing the Festival, its guests, and audiences a fantastic week of film, conversation, and unforgettable moments!
