The RS PM, Milorad Dodik, met with representatives of the RS Association of Farmers in BL today. The meeting discussed the situation in the field of agriculture and problems faced by farmers and concluded that the largest number of problems were caused by lack of financial resources. Thanks to the RS Government and its efforts to support agriculture the first credit worth US$10 million will shortly be allocated to help rehabilitate RS agricultural production.

An SDS high-level official denied a statement by the new RS PM designate claiming that he had visited Pale last night "to calm the SDS down". According to the SDS official, the SDS will have no motive not to support Miljus as the new RS PM, provided that he revises some of his statements and positions expressed on the Hague Tribunal, a multi-ethnic government of the RS and the return of refugees and, also, provided that he respects the concept of a new RS government that will have SDS ministers sitting in it.

The new RS PM designate, Brane Miljus, today stated he had not offered ministerial posts to any RS parliamentary party. Stressing that his first round of political negotiations was still ongoing, Miljus claimed that leaders of the "Sloga" Coalition were waging a sort of special war against him. In a statement given to BETA, Miljus also confirmed that he had visited Pale last night to calm the SDS down and that he had succeeded in that.

An SRT crew visited the location in the vicinity of Bileca where a piloteless aircraft, most likely an SFOR one, crashed some 30 hours ago. According to unconfirmed information, the aircraft was collecting data for the needs of SFOR. The SRT team was only allowed to reach a point some 30 metres from the scene of the crash. As we learnt after the SRT team returned from the spot, a special SFOR unit arrived there to remove the remains of the aircraft.
