The DHR Hanns Schumacher denied the allegations published recently in the daily "Dnevni Avaz" according to which he threatened the RS with the sanctions. "I have never mentioned the phrase sanctions against the RS and one should not joke with it," warned Schumacher in a program of the radio Deutsche Welle. Schumacher stressed that OHR would keep on pressuring the RS in order to have it bring the Law on abandoned property before the September elections.

The spokesman for OHR Simon Haselock denied the writing of the daily "Dnevni Avaz". "What is important is that Schumacher was not talking about the sanctions but the consequences for the RS unless it fulfills its obligations which equally refers to the FBiH as well if it does not fulfill its obligations," Haselock concluded.

Commenting on the statement allegedly given by DHR Hanns Schumacher on imposing the sanctions against the RS, the spokesman for OHR Duncan Bullivant said the comment was misreported.

Speaking about recently opened office of the Croatian consulate in Banja Luka, Bullivant said that was a positive step and the expression of a good will of Croatian authorities to fulfill their obligations assumed at the Banja Luka Conference on Return.

Bullivant informed the journalists about opening of the radio and telephone lines between Prijedor and Sanski Most which is, according to him, positive for the refugee return.

Regarding the delays in passports issuance, Bullivant said that the IC was not to bear any responsibilities.

Therefore, the HR Carlos Westendorp appeals to the Ministries of Interior of RS and FBiH to undertake all necessary steps with the Ministry of Civil Affairs and Communication of BiH to start issuing passports as soon as possible.

Bullivant announced today the nomination of the Ambassador Miguel Arias Estevez to the post of the assistant to the HR and the head of OHR office in Banja Luka.
