Following yesterday's session of the RS NA, Mrs Elizabeth Rehn today met with Prime Minister Dodik on the reconstruction of the RS police. The meeting focused on the formation of a multi-ethnic police force in BH. Rehn claimed that a multi-ethnic police force was an obligation deriving from the Dayton Agreement, and that the conferences in London, Bonn and Luxembourg all discussed the issue. Mrs Elizabeth Rehn assessed yesterday's session of the RS NA as "interesting."

SRNA quotes news reports from Greek media assessing the ongoing visit of the RS President to this country as very successful and noting that not many statesmen have so far had the opportunity to meet with the entire Greek political leadership during one visit alone. The meetings so far expressed a high level of understanding between the two countries on a number of issues, including Kosovo. President Plavsic is now expected to meet with the Greek Prime Minister and the Foreign Minister tomorrow and with Greek religious leaders the day after.
