There is a new coalition appearing for the forthcoming elections. The press release from today's meeting of the SPRS, SNS and the SNSD states that they agreed on suggesting to their bodies that they should establish a coalition. The parties agreed that the future coalition would propose joint candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of RS, member of the BiH Presidency and the list of representatives for the House of Representatives of the BiH parliament. All three parties will have independent lists of candidates for the RS NA, with an obligation to establish a joint Government.

The Speaker of the RS NA, Dragan Kalinic, stated that he has no intention to "resign under pressure". He said that his resignation is possible only if he decides to do so, or if the current coalition of the SDS and Radicals requests him to do so. Kalinic denied the thesis of the HR that the work of the RS NA is illegitimate and that the SRS and the SDS obliged themselves on a high party level to provide a seat of one Deputy Speaker in the RS NA for the Coalition for Single and Democratic BiH.
