Serb returnees to Drvar, who were evacuated from there with the help of SFOR due to the recent Croat attacks, arrived in Banja Luka after 3:00 a.m. this morning. According to their statements, the majority of them were exposed to constant Croat terror which culminated on Friday, April 25. Thus, they were forced to leave their homes again. The German Foreign Minister, Klaus Kinkel, today condemned the attacks of the Croats against Serb returnees from Drvar, as well as the attacks against IPTF members in there. A special press conference of the IPTF was held in Banja Luka today, at which it was confirmed that, during the demonstrations of Croat extremists in Drvar, some Serbs and IC representatives were injured and much physical damage was done. Due to the situation in Drvar the return of the Grahovo people, who have been near the IEHL for three days already, is still uncertain.
