RS President Biljana Plavsic stated in an interview for the German "Junge Welt" that the chances of dividing the RS were very small at the moment thanks to the wish to co-operate and to the opening up to the world. "The RS is going to survive and economically it will very soon be in a better position than Serbia. Only Bosnian Moslems want a single and centralised Bosnia. Serbs and Croats form the majority of the population and they are against such a state. Neither Serbs nor Croats will allow the creation of a Bosnia dominated by Moslems". According to Plavsic, RS Prime Minister Dodik is an open, direct, modern and flexible person – the right person for this political moment. Regarding the Hague Tribunal, she stated that it was unfair and unimaginable that only a Serb leader, Radovan Karadzic, should go to the Hague. He was the leader of the Serbs in the same way as Izetbegovic was the Moslem leader and Mate Boban the Croat one.

Member of the B&H Presidency, Momcilo Krajisnik, received the Portuguese Ambassador. At the meeting Krajisnik presented his view of the current political situation in the RS and about the work of the joint bodies. 1:00
