- RS President Biljana Plavsic – Beginning of the establishment of good relations between Serb and German peoples
- RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik – Brcko must remain within RS
- German Foreign Minister Klaus Kinkel – We want the Serb people to have their place in Europe
- Lieutenant General Momir Talic – New Commander of RS Army Headquarters

The Head of German diplomacy Klaus Kinkel arrived in an official visit to the RS. The delegation of the German government headed by Klaus Kinkel held separate meetings with the RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik and the RS President Biljana Plavsic. During open and friendly talks a few issues were discussed like the post war and economic reconstruction of the RS, refugee return, the Brcko issue and the issue of the indicted war criminals. "The road to Europe is opened for the RS because it cooperates with the IC and Serbs must take a position that belongs to them in the Union of the European Nations", Kinkel underlined. "Both Germany and the whole EU are going to support the RS", that was Kinkel's message to the RS residents. Afterwards, he met with Jovo Turanjanin, the RS Minister of Religions, the Banja Luka Mufti Ibrahim Halilovic and the Banja Luka Catholic Bishop Franjo Komarica. For some unknown reasons the representatives of the Serb Orthodox Church were not present at the meeting. Mr Kinkel had a short meeting with the IPTF representatives as well. After meetings Klaus Kinkel, Biljana Plavsic and Milorad Dodik held a joint press conference at which more than 100 national and international journalists were present. The talks were assessed as very successful ones.
