

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 27 April 1999

- BiH delegation participates in EC Parliamentary Assembly in Strasbourg
- BiH deserves to be accepted into community of European peoples – Radisic in Strasbourg
- Best way Europe can help BiH is to accept it as full member in Council of Europe – Izetbegovic
- BiH should be differentiated from Yugoslavia by accepting it into Council of Europe – Westendorp
- NATO attacks TV Kosava, owned by Milosevic's daughter
- Montenegrins reluctant to celebrate Yugoslav Statehood Day
- Chernomyrdin to visit Belgrade on Wednesday
- NATO does not intend to use ships in Adriatic Sea for implementation of oil embargo against Yugoslavia
- It is necessary to stop violence and intensify efforts for peaceful solution in Kosovo – Montenegrin President Djukanovic
- Deputy US Secretary of State Talbot meets with Chernomyrdin for talks on Kosovo crisis
- Yugoslavia will accept investigation into war crimes committed in Kosovo – Draskovic
- Cook welcomes Russian peace initiatives
- NATO campaign against Yugoslavia goes as planned – Clark
- ICTY to investigate responsibility of command structures for crimes in Kosovo
- New wave of refugees from Kosovo enter Macedonia
- Prlic reports on visit to Washington and contacts with IMF and NATO officials
- RS National Assembly resumes interrupted second session
- BiH Federation House of Representatives to meet Wednesday
- Railway workers in BiH Federation begin strike
- Sarajevo Canton Government adopts new law on criminal procedures
- Roundtable in Mostar on protection of HVO veterans' rights
- CIH virus attacks many computers in Mostar region