

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 22 February 1999

Kosovo remains in the spotlight and TVBiH dedicated its first two stories to it. With less than 24 hours till Kosovo deadline expires, there is no progress reported in Rambouillet TVBiH reported. The representatives of the two sides are still so apart in their positions that the negotiations might end up as a complete failure. The presence of U.S. and French mediators does not seem to help, TVBiH said. International community's pressure is being maximized, BiH reporter from Rambouillet said adding that Albanian Foreign Minister will join the talks to help. One of the indicators that the sides are nowhere near the final decision is Serb President's Milan Milutinovic's statement that "there will be no NATO deployment." The report on Rambouillet talks also said that NATO council had a meeting in Brussels on Kosovo but there were no details available.

European Bank for reconstruction and development so far has invested some 75 million US dollars in various projects in BiH, TVBiH said. The future activities of the Bank in Bosnia will be in banking and privatization of small and medium enterprises. "We came here to stay for a long time," regional director of European Bank told a presser. This is an economic not a political message he said. It is important that a single economic market is created in BiH thus enabling the bank to help the economy in the country. "We are not an aid agency," the director said. "Our projects have to make commercial sense and above all the money that we provide has to be paid back." So far the bank has allocated 15.2 million Euros for the privatization of small and medium enterprises and it is up to Bosnia to secure conditions for future credits in Bosnia, TV said.
