OHR BiH TV News Summary, 17 September 1998

OSCE Mission Chief, Barry presented the reasons of postponing the preliminary election results, today in Banja Luka. Barry said that the main reason for postponing the announcement of preliminary results was the complexity of elections in BiH. Barry also said that rumors on annulling the elections are launched by those who wish to manipulate the elections by electoral engineering. Barry said that the final results will be published on September 23 and 24. Barry said that the case of violation of the electoral blackout by Nikola Poplasen will go to the Election Appellation Subcommittee. SDS and Radicals yesterday celebrated election results, as their leaders announced them, with flags and car sirens. RS Prime Minister Dodik said that this "spontaneous gathering" is too "spontaneous", considering that it happened simultaneously in several towns of the RS. 2:00

OHR made an announcement in regard with HR decision to prolong the deadline for apartment retrieval. The announcement says that this decision was necessary so that everyone would be enabled to return. HR believes that many municipalities used illegal and unjust methods, which prevented citizens from submitting their requests for residential certificate retrieval. Westendorp expressed his disappointment and concern because the RS failed to adopt similar laws, but said he will use his authority to assure adoption of similar laws in the RS. 1:30

About 300 Bosniaks returned to the Hodbina settlement in Mostar-South municipality. The return went without any complications, and it was appealed to the international community members to take more active part in the reconstruction process in this area.
