

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 20 July 1998

Rostovo, near Novi Travnik – Representatives of the OHR organised a meeting between the Croats, who decided a month ago to return to their villages of Rostovo and Sebesici and some international humanitarian organisations. The assistance in building material, donated by the Federal Government could not satisfy needs of the returnees, so the OHR initiated this meeting with the aim to urge contribution by other organisations. Ejup Ganic attended the meeting. Dr Ganic visited a camp Medex on Rostovo where around 2.000 children received education in the fight against land mines up to now.
