Mostar – Problems in the Mostar and Hercegovina-Neretva Canton, then analysing of their cause and finding the way for their solution, were key reasons for today's visit of Ambassador Jacques Klein, Principal High Representative to Mostar. After a meeting which Klein held with Sir Martin Garrod, head of the OHR Regional Office, behind closed doors, Klein told the press, that the IC is worried about the situation in Mostar and H-N Canton relating to the non functioning of the joint city Government, as well as refusal of the Croat Deputies in the Cantonal Parliament to accept the OHR Arbitration decision in regard to the Draft Law on Courts. The IC wishes also to see Croat returns to Mostar. Analysing the failures we found out that there is a lack of Croatian co-operation in this regard, Klein said.
