The importance of the road to connect North – South and Sarajevo – Bihac was pointed out in talks which the Bechtel Company held separately with Haris Silajdzic, CoM Co-Chair Jadranko Prlic, BiH Foreign Minister and Ejup Ganic, Federation President. These talks were attended by US Ambassador Kauzlarich. The talks with Prlic also tackled the harbor Ploce which should have been the topic of the new round of bilateral talks in Sarajevo. But this round has been postponed. BiH TV learned that last year's active participation of a US team in the talks on Ploce, has been replaced with a new arrangement. The USA will in future offer only technical assistance in the negotiations over Ploce, Hasan Muratovic, BiH Ambassador to Croatia, said. Insistence of the Croat side to rent to the Federation a free zone in Ploce exclusively on a commercial basis, is also in the past. The Croatian and BiH negotiating teams will not meet tomorrow but, on Croatia's request, the day after tomorrow.
