HR Westendorp announced issues of his forthcoming discussions with the Croatian President Tudjman. Westendorp said that Tudjman has been cooperative in many issues until now, such as voluntarily delivering of war criminals and removing the people who are blocking the peace process, but there are still problems to be solved. Westendorp also said that the problems of Drvar, Stolac, Capljina, Mostar and other towns of Central Bosnia will also have to be discussed. Westendorp also commented on Tudjman's recent statement regarding Bosnia as a Moslem state, saying that whenever there is a party congress or elections, politicians say things that they do not really think.

BiH Ambassador to Croatia, Trnka addressed a severe protest to the Croatian FA Minister, Granic. Trnka said that Tudjman's standpoints are unacceptable and improper and cannot be without influence to the future relations between BiH and Croatia. It can be explained as pretension towards the neighboring state and questioning of its territorial integrity. Trnka also said that these things show that the Croatian side does not have real intention to fully implement obligations from the DPA. BiH FA Minister deputy, Zivalj reacted to Prlic's statement regarding three political concepts in BiH and said that questions remain open: did we basically agree about full and specific interests of BiH, and do we have to accord totally, every day, about each matter, and did Mr. Minister specifically determined the contents of his comment with his two equal deputies as the representatives of three constitutional nations?

About 30 Citizens of Bosanska Krupa were banned to enter Croatia at the Licko Petrovo Selo borderline. Croatian customs officers explained that Bosanska Krupa is in the RS and that the special regime is valid for RS citizens. Croatian customs officers also stamped BiH citizens passports with "unwanted person" marks. These events also produced speculations about exchange of Bosanska Krupa for Brcko. The final explanation was that the BiH citizens will be allowed to Croatia, and that this was a misunderstanding because of some decision, expired long ago.
