Sarajevo – At the meeting of the Administrative Board for the DPA implementation, The Presidency members and CoM co-chairmen, it was concluded that if no progress is made by the 9 of December, when the Peace Conference in Bonn was scheduled, BiH will found itself in an economic crisis. This meeting was convoked because of obstructions from the Serb side. HR Westendorp expressed his concern about the economic crisis if the Quick Start Package is not implemented soon. Otherwise the MMF and the World Bank work will be disabled. The other issue was the laws that enable refugee return. Westendorp said that sometimes the problems are coming from the Federation, and sometimes they are made by Krajisnik, but we told them all to solve these problems, otherwise the obstructers will be removed.

Pale – The session of dissolved RS Parliament was held today at Jahorina, two weeks before the Parliament elections. Parliament President Kalinic said that the session was held in order to protect the representatives integrity. As it was told in the official announcement, the Parliament representatives are more and more attacked by the supporters of RS President Plavsic.

Plavsic yesterday accused SDS for continuing illegal trade which involves Karadzic's wife.

Zagreb newspaper "Vijesnik" published SDS President Buha's interview given to "Reporter", where he said that Karadzic's influence is still strong and he is not going to be removed just like that. This represents the most specific statement so far, given by a Serb official, regarding Karadzic.
