Sarajevo - The BiH CoM held a session today to discuss preparations for a Donors Conference. After the session, the press were told that the terms of the conference had been postponed for 12 July. Co-chair Haris Silajdzic commented by saying that the BiH CoM did its best to prepare for the conference. However, he added that the main reason for the postponement was obstruction of the Pale leadership regarding the Quick Start Package and customs tariff laws in particular.

Members of the CoM reviewed other issues such as financial arrangements with the IMF, appointed a delegation to take part in the work of the London Club and discussed details related to the upcoming meeting of the Euro Control in Brussels.

The report maintained that although the RS outstanding debt had not been discussed at the session, according to available information the problem had been resolved by an agreement between the WB and the RS.

The CoM is supposed to hold a another session tomorrow to further discuss the Donors Conference, arrival of NATO Secretary General Javier Solana and opening of airports throughout BiH.

Sarajevo - Carlos Westendorp has officially taken over the duties of the HR, and time will tell whether he will be more successful than his predecessor. Prior to the hand-over of duties, Bildt and Westendorp held a press conference, in which Westendorp was realistic and cautious, underlining that the situation is difficult and that every further step must be carefully prepared in advance. He said that preservation of peace, economic reconstruction, holding of the local elections and freedom of movement and press are the main tasks that lie ahead. The new HR stressed that neither the OHR nor SFOR have the mandate to arrest war criminals. He said that a lot of things have been achieved regardless of the issues above. 'If Westendorp doesn't do more with regard to the real situation on the ground, there will not be any difference between him and Bildt except for the letters O and S of their first name,' SRT journalist said.
