Sarajevo – Special Envoy of the Croatian President, Franjo Greguric met with Chairman of the BiH Presidency Alija Izetbegovic to discuss the announced meeting between the two presidents. However, no details on the talks were disclosed nor was the date of the Tudjman – Izetbegovic meeting designated. The report mentioned a number of meetings that Greguric held with FBiH officials – Kresimir Zubak, a member of the BiH Presidency, Vladimir Sojic, FBiH President and Vice President Ejup Ganic. The talks mostly focused on economic relations between Croatia and BiH and the position of the Bosnian Croats in the FBiH and BiH.

Asked to comment on the situation in the FBiH, the Special Envoy of the Croatian President told the press that it was a difficult question to answer. But, he added that by the appointment of a Special Envoy for the FBiH and BiH, President Tudjman has demonstrated Croatian commitment to the peace agreement and fostering of the FBiH and the BiH state.

Washington – Co-Chairs in the CoM Haris Silajdzic and Boro Bosic held a number of meetings with officials of the US Administration. The media conveyed their activities extensively, stressing that the joint presence of the two Co-chairs in the US has a symbolic meaning. The Silajdzic-Gelbard meeting was given a high profile in the report, perceived as confirmation of the US proclaimed policy towards BiH. However, it was mentioned that the talks at the WB were not so successful because the two sides in BiH have taken different views in regard to some economic issues.

Der Spiegel has finally admitted that they were fooled by the propaganda of the majority with regard to Tadic. In order to wash their hands now, they apologised to the public, even accusing the German national court for creating such a false picture. Der Spiegel now reports that crimes for which Tadic was accused could have been committed by any Serb, Croat or Muslim in the course of the civil war. In that case thousands of people, members of one of the three nations in BiH, should be brought before the Hague Tribunal to be punished too.
