Sarajevo – BiH President, Izetbegovic met HR Bildt, to discuss the DPA implementation and the CoM work. They agreed on imposing sanctions against those who resist the DPA implementation.

UN Secretary General, Annan asked for another 186 foreign policemen and 120 as backup, to be sent to Brcko.

Sarajevo – the CoM session – Ministers discussed 13 items, five of which were the QSP laws. After the session, Co-chair Silajdzic said that they agreed on the Foreign Debt Law, whereas the other four laws need to be discussed further. Although adoption of the Budget Law is a condition for holding the donors conference, Ministers didn't even discuss it today. Silajdzic also pointed out that they discussed the adoption of laws which can be achieved either within 24 hours or 2 months. This is a very important thing for BiH. 'And one cannot expect from the CoM to do, in 10 or 15 weeks, something about which we have been arguing for years.'
