The Security Council should send another 186 international policemen to Brcko soon. However, their mandate will not change. Brcko Mayor Mensur Jusufovic is an optimist regarding the present situation in Brcko. He said that the ZOS will definitely be 'erased' if this situation continues, because it gives chances for refugee return, development of economy, the old Brcko image of multi-ethnicity and meets conditions for the local elections. However, Jusufovic said, BiH will not give up its main principle which is that only true Brcko citizens, whose names were included in the '91 Census will be allowed to vote. Brcko will be the first bridge between the Federation and the RS and the real body of the BiH.

Sarajevo – the Swedish Council of Refugees delegation met the BiH Council for Refugees and Displaced Persons to discuss return of BiH refugees. Head of the Swedish Council, Olof Garstedt, said that the Swedish Government will not force people to leave, but will help them to decide by giving 5000 DM of support to volunteers. Head of the BiH Council, Mirhunisa Komarica, said that the DPA is still not a guarantee for return of BiH refugees.

33 special OSCE monitors from the US who will assist the elections are coming to BiH. We should expect another 100 of them as we come closer to the local elections. BiH officials agree with the OSCE decision on postponement of the elections because otherwise the legalisation of ethnic cleansing and aggression against BiH would be supported, which is not in accordance with the OSCE and other international organisations' interests in BiH. There are a few conditions which must be met for successful elections such as freedom of movement and refugee return, as well as re-registration of voters, registration of political parties, and helping those elected to get their positions.

President of the SDS Club of representatives, Vojislav Maksimovic, stated that the special agreement between the RS and FRY contains some elements of the general national program of the Serb people, sought for more than 150 years. Realization of the agreement already started before the ratification of the agreement since premiers of both Governments, Gojko Klickovic and Mirko Marjanovic, held a joint meeting and agreed upon concrete measures. Maksimovic reiterated that the Serbian Assembly is due to contemplate the agreement at its next session scheduled for 17 March. The declaration will be adopted in that regard. The RS Assembly is to meet on 15 March and will ratify the agreement. The final ratification is scheduled for 20 March in the Federal Assembly. Commenting on the Muslims reactions to the agreement, Maksimovic said that they have the right to react, but that Serbs also have a right to abnegate some International agreements signed with Iran, Croatia and Turkey which, according to the DPA, should be ratified in the BIH Assembly.

The American policy of double standards is back on the scene. While in Israel and in Palestine this policy works against the Islamic cause, using even veto in the UN, in this country the US is lobbying in favor of Muslims. For the September elections, the US Government is sending more then 100 supervisors to “secure the process of the voters registration”. Knowing the American pro-Muslim stand, their increased presence in the OSCE teams is not good news for the Serbs.
