Brcko – President Izetbegovic talked by phone with US Secretary of State Madeleine Albright this evening and then met HR Bildt who came back to Sarajevo. It seems that there have been some changes regarding the final decision because of the Society Brcko Brcacima (Brcko to Brcko people) requests. A month ago, on Jan. 14, Izetbegovic sent a letter to the Contact Group announcing his resignation, if Brcko solution would not be in favour of BiH Federation. He also assumed that Silajdzic, Bicakcic, Ganic and others would also resign. If the international community decides to give Brcko to Serbs it will do it with premeditation. "I do not know who could be able to explain this to our people after all they have been through." Izetbegovic sent letters to Albright yesterday and to Bonn today, via German Ambassador to BiH.

According to BiH TV reporter from Washington, BiH arbiter Cazim Sadikovic announced positive turn of events regarding Brcko issue. He said that BiH made a list of disputable issues important to the official Sarajevo which were finally taken into consideration. Washington Post reports that the status quo will be preserved even if official Sarajevo regain the town. Brcko should be, according W. Post, under the international community protectorate for another year, supervised by HR Bildt special envoy. After that period the Brcko issue will be revised.

Several thousands of Brcko people gathered in Brcko suburbs under Federation control, ready to return to the town. SFOR did not stop them. People are impatient. They cannot believe that the whole world recognised beastly acts against Bosniaks. One of them said that USA can stay in Brcko for 10 years, but as soon as they go away he will return... this is yet another international community farce.

Sarajevo – Vice president of the BiH Federation Ganic came back from Germany where he tried to stress the importance of Brcko for BiH Federation. He said that if decision based on democracy is not made, they (BiH authorities) will not co-operate with the world anymore. This is the choice between Karadzic and people who want to return. USA came to Bosnia after 200-300 thousand people gave their lives for this country and made enormously big profit out of this. "We have paid very high price. Should we put everything back to the beginning."
