Sarajevo – market massacre remembrance day – TV BiH showed pictures of the market massacre ‘to those who survived so they do not forget what happened, and to those who are now here to implement the DPA but who are not informed well about the Bosnian tragedy’.

Kalesija – the BiH Commission for Exchange took over from ICTY the bodies of 303 Srebrenica people killed in the course of the ‘exodus and massive murders caused by the chetniks’. The ICTY exhumed two mass graves located in the RS – Lazeta and Pilice. According to Amor Masovic, president of the Commission, some of the bodies were found ‘incomplete’ which proves that mass graves had been partly exhumed by the Serb team before the ICTY came, so as to hide the traces of the crime. He said he has information that there are still some bodies left at the Pilica site. It is obvious, Masovic said, that the people were mass-executed. TV BiH reiterated that of 8000 missing persons, 714 bodies have been exhumed so far. They warned that the world has not even tried to arrest any of those responsible for these crimes except for one pawn – Drazan Erdemovic.

Sarajevo – German Defence Minister Volker Ruhe visited the city today. He met Izetbegovic, Zubak, and BiH Defence minister, and discussed the implementation of the DPA and establishing of the Federation army. He also met CoM Co-chairmen Silajdzic and Bosic after visiting the German SFOR troops in Sarajevo. Minister Ruhe said that the country needs economic development and stabilisation of peace. He believes that, through co-operation, Europe can provide assistance in development, but it will take some time. Silajdzic said that Germany is welcome here and the German soldiers are a stabilising factor in the region. Late this evening Minister Ruhe held a press conference, summing up the impressions of the day. He announced the offer of the German Government to train the Federation army in mine clearance, as well as to provide training for helicopter pilots. 4:00 >Davos – World Economic Forum – Minister of Foreign Trade Muratovic headed the BiH delegation at the Forum. He said that BiH presented the global problems which the country is facing, as well as the problems which could be expected in the future. The BiH delegation also discussed the refugee return, reconstruction of the country, transition process, the forthcoming Donors Conference, and bilateral relations with other countries.

Stuttgart – refugee return – the German Government should begin the process of returning refugees as of March, in accordance with the agreement signed by BiH and Germany by the end of last year. BiH Consul to Germany Spahic said that this would mean expulsion because the conditions for implementing the bilateral agreement have not been met yet, although BiH Government respects this process because ‘there is no BiH without its people.’ Federal Ministry of refugees, at a presser held today, pointed out the new problem of scattering of BiH refugees overseas instead of returning to their places of origin, whereas the UNHCR will add the final touch to ethnic cleansing by exercising their new plan of return to places of ethnic majority.

Co-chairman of the CoM, Boro Bosic met with Volker Ruehe, German defence minister, in the Muslim Sarajevo. Also present was Haris Silajdzic. The discussion focused on the mandate of the German soldiers within SFOR. "We come to a conclusion that in the next 18 month we will see further stabilization of the political situation in the country. But we couldn't make a prognosis for the time required for SFOR or any other International forces to act as a guarantee for peace. Concerning the return of refugees, we believe that minimal conditions for the return should be met, not only of political nature but also economical conditions," stated Bosic after the meeting.
