

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 14 November 2000

TV BiH News Headlines:

- According to OSCE, with 80% of votes counted, SDS and SDP lead in race for BiH House of Representatives
- SDA holds special press conference to confirm that vote count places them ahead of all other parties in BiH Federation
- According to SNSD, no RS presidential candidate has received sufficient support for a first round victory although SDS candidates Sarovic and Cavic have the advantage
- Victory of SDS presidential candidates certain; there will be no more surprises – SDS Vice President Zoran Vujanovic
- NHI asks Petritsch and Barry to sanction organizers of All-Croat Referendum since it violated election silence period
- SDS victory evident; this option leads to stagnation – SNS President Biljana Plavsic
- Preliminary election results reveal that voters are well on their way to re-confirming BiH's isolation and ghettoisation – SNSD General-Secretary Slavko Mitrovic in Banja Luka
- DNZ BiH assesses elections as fair and states that now DNZ believes no future government could be formed without them – DNZ BiH Spokesperson Admil Mulalic
- Final election results expected on Nov 17 as are results of US presidential elections – TV BiH
- I personally know many people who would serve in a Bush Administration and they respect US role in Europe – US Ambassador to BiH Thomas Miller commenting on the possible effect of a Bush victory on BiH
- World news
- BiH Federation Supreme Court acknowledges legitimacy of suit filed by former Agrocomerc employees against method of company's privatisation and returns case to lower court for ruling
- BiH Elektroprivreda and Energoinvest agree with representatives of five BiH Federation cantons to conduct survey of small sources of water power (streams, rivers)
- At IC press conference in Sarajevo, OHR, OSCE, UNHCR and UN warn evictees on consequences of taking belongings from properties they are leaving
- Barry meets Croatian Foreign Minister Tonino Picula Monday and agrees that implementation of BiH Constitutional Court decision on constituent status of all three BiH peoples a priority
- DSP President Alojz Knezovic calls on Petritsch to force entity governments to implement pension laws and also asks that his suit against BiH Federation Prime Minister Edhem Bicakcic be upheld
- New Yugoslav rulers initiate first official contact with ICTY; Del Ponte to open office in Belgrade soon
- Two-day Stability Pact Conference in Belgrade offers possible half million Euro worth of aid for Yugoslavia
- Montenegrin President Milo Djukanovic's participation in international diplomatic circles sets off fierce disputes with Serbia
- World news
- Unauthorized construction which diverts local stream leaves Livno's only mill operator without functioning source of power
- TV BiH reintroduces 'BiH teme' show
- Weather
- Sports