News Summary

OSCE Mission to BiH initiates Help-Line Campaign to protect the rights of journalists on World Press Freedom Day

The OSCE organized a press conference on 3 May, World Press Freedom Day. According to OSCE research, around 62% of BiH journalists have experienced intimidation and interference, as well as pressure from some political parties while doing their job. Due to all of these reasons, the OSCE initiated a campaign for the protection of journalists' rights. OSCE spokesperson Tanya Domi informed that the aim of the campaign is to provide assistance to journalists who find themselves in situations when they are prevented from doing their job by those who are afraid of a free and independent media. A significant increase of pressure on journalists was registered during the pre-election campaign period of the recent BiH local elections.

BiH journalists denote World Press Freedom Day - TV BiH reports

BiH Association of Journalists General Secretary Enver Causevic informs of the situation regarding the status of BiH journalists. He stated that no BiH journalist has been imprisoned or punished in any way. Borka Rudic, the Secretary of BiH Independent Union of Professional Journalists, stated that there are no laws in BiH that could protect journalists and upon which media can rely. Rudic, giving an example, mentioned the rough attack on journalists in the Livno Canton.
