BiH Presidnecy Chair's Cabinet: Delic's payment legal; Presidency member Paravac asks Justice Ministry, OHR to asses legality	RTRS By Zorica Rulj – The Cabinet of the BiH Presidency Chair, Sulejman Tihic, confirmed on Monday that an ICTY suspect and former Tihic's adviser, General Rasim Delic, was receiving a salary from the budget of the BiH institutions. Press release issued by the Cabinet reads that Delic was receiving benefits on the basis of the Law on BiH institutions, which stipulates that any person suspended from office, during the term of custody or investigation, is entitled to 60% of the amount of their salary received prior to suspension. BiH Presidency member, Borislav Paravac demanded this decision to be legally evaluated, and he also asks from the BiH Justice Ministry and OHR to take their stance on the issue. Paravac says he received an explanation from BiH Presidency Secretariat, but finds it incomplete. "It is still unknown whether the decision on payout was made on the basis of the Law on labour or Law on civil service; it is unknown whether Rasim Delic served as state official..." says Paravac and adds these are the reasons why he decided to submit the BiH Justice Ministry with the documentation. "Due to the fact that this is a political event, we are submitting OHR Political and Legal Affairs Departments with the same documentation", says Paravac. Tihic's Cabinet claims that everything has been done in line with the law and that Delic, who surrendered voluntarily, cannot be compared to war crime suspects who do not want to surrender. PINK, BHT1, Hayat, FTV – also reported. Dnevni List, pg 2 'Delic' case before OHR', not signed, Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Paravac asks OHR's opinion' not signed, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Rasim Delic's suspension conducted by the law' by Onasa– Inset 'Paravac asks for OHR's stance' all carried. It is well-known that in BiH there is still no political consensus regarding the police reform while it is also well-known fact [what] EU attitude would be in case of no progress in police reform: the SAA will not be signed by the end of the year.” said Ivanic. Reporter reiterated that Europeans are not satisfied with police reform progress since it is one of the key conditions for signing SAA, in addition to reforms of public broadcasting and public administration. The status of BiH in the September SAA negotiations can be improved only by urgent political agreement on the police reform as the start, added reporter. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Police reform remains condition for signing of the Agreement’ by E.Sarac, Oslobodjenje pg 3 ‘Do not expect SAA without police reform’ by M.K.S. – In a statement to DA after the meeting, Ivanic says that “it is more than clear that the EC doesn’t want to go into the details of the reform, but would continue to insist on three principles.” Ivanic deems there is a need for local politicians to agree on this issue, adding it is not realistic to expect from the experts in the [Police Reform] Directorate to reach solution without political agreement. He also adds the EU officials noted constitutional reform is important, but “neither is nor will be” [as Ivanic puts it] a condition. FTV, RHB, PINK, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Ivanic with European three’ by A.S. – also reported on the meeting.

Oslo. op-ed: For OHR to shut down, BiH must have European Const., sign SAA, Karadzic and Mladic must be arrested	Oslobodjenje , pg 9 'Transfer to Brussels', by Zija Dizdarevic – Commenting on the announcement that the OHR could be shutting down in end June next year, Dizdarevic argues the announcement came to hastily without Brussels (EU) giving any clear guidelines to BiH related to its transition into a normal country. The author argues that the demise of the OHR would be reasonable only if BiH (by June 30, 2007) got a normal, pro-European constitution, if SAA were signed and if BiH joined the Partnership for Peace programme with promises that the country would join NATO in shortest possible period. Dizdarevic also stresses that shutting down of OHR is reasonable only when the two most wanted war crimes suspects, Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic , are arrested. As for the HR, Christian Schwarz-Schilling , Dizdarevic notes the HR should be paying extra attention to the return process, by providing (new) data and giving opinion about the overall picture.
Assistant BiH Foreign Minister Perkovic said that EC would deliver to BiH its proposal on visa mitigation for BiH citizens	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'BiH Negotiation team is waiting for the answers from Brussels' by M. GS op-ed: Author states that the integration of BiH is imposed by the IC	Glas Srpske op-edpg 2 'World trend' by Nenad Kecmanovic – Author states that democratic separations but not imposed integrations present world trend adding that EU did not manage to preserve any post communist country. Author questions whether three peoples in BiH want and under which conditions to live together in one country. According to author, examples of Switzerland and Belgium are very often mentioned to BiH peoples as proof of stable multinational countries. However, author believes that peoples in Belgium and Switzerland wanted to live together and build mechanism of equality while BiH peoples fought in the war and the international community (IC) imposed mechanism of equality to them. Author states the IC should instead of centralizing BiH transfer more responsibility to cantons and entities; introduce third entity and make relations between peoples more relaxed. Author notes IC is increasing dose of wrong medication to BiH, which will not recover but kill BiH when foreign therapists leave.

CEC's Petric: candidates removed from elections lists have by July 19 to correct all irregularities	FTV by Gordana Antonic – The Head of BiH Central Election Commission, Branko Petric, told SRNA news agency that certain number of candidates removed from the election lists, due to irregularities with their nominations and their non-compliance with the BiH Election Law, are given July 19 deadline to correct irregularities. NN op-ed: candidates removed from election lists failed to respect law of the country in which they want to be a part of the legislation	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Legislators outside the law' by Rubina Cengic – Author states BiH Central Election Commission removed 663 candidates from the election lists due to different irregularities (author mentions some candidates did not have ID) adding that every hundredth candidate was removed. SD int with Ivo Miro Jovic: 'We are not sovereign because we do not manage our wallet'	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 9 mentioned on cover 'We are not sovereign because we do not manage our wallet' by Marko Karacic – SD runs an interview with Croat BiH Presidency member and HDZ BiH candidate for the same position in the October elections Ivo-Miro Jovic. Asked about the possibility of two Croat media outlets in Mostar shutting down and the “terrorist threat to Croats in Mostar”, Jovic replies that Croats in BiH are in such a position because 'the decisions the world's policy makers have been making in the last fifteen years have been intended to deprive Croats in BiH of their constituency and sovereignty.' He believes the way to guarantee a future for the Croats in BiH and prosperity for entire BiH is to apply EU standards in BiH as soon as possible. Jovic says that 'constituency without sovereignty is nothing and the Croat people is not sovereign because it does not manage its wallet but instead depends on others for that'. It is absurd, he continues, that even ethnic minorities in BiH have the right to their own media and Croats, as a constituent people, do not. That was the reason, Jovic adds, he referred the BiH law on PBS to the BiH Constitutional Court but there are already pressures coming from the IC trying to influence future solutions regulating this field. Inset: Jovic says he deeply believes in his win in the upcoming elections and sees no serious competitors among other candidates.

LATEST NEWS OF TODAY

FBiH HoR discusses work of FBiH Ombudsmen in 2005	BH Radio 1, RHB - In continuance of the session of FBiH House of Representatives, MPs have not accepted the report on FBiH Ombudsmen's work in last year with evaluation of status of human rights in FBiH. During the discussion MPs have expressed many critics and the "loudest" were MPs of SDA, who questioned the purpose of existence of this institution " considering achieved results compared to given authorities ". One of the objections refers to "unreasonably high salaries", which as was pointed, are in line with FBiH Judges. MPs also object to their failure to react when necessary, such as in case "Pogorelica". MPs agreed that it is a good thing that this institution will no longer be on FBiH Budget, since as of New Year entities' institutions would be abolished and only BiH Ombudsmen Office would exist. During the continuance of the session it is expected for MPs to vote on two proposal laws, on which the voting was postponed. Namely, MPs should vote on proposal law on lowest net hourly wage and proposal law on income tax.

Oslob op-ed: Main goal of Serbian PM Kostunica's 'Action Plan' is to restructure security structures in Serbia	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Plan for Mladic' op-ed by Senka Kurtovic – Commenting on Serbian Action Plan for Cooperation with the ICTY presented to EU officials in Brussels on Monday evening by Serbian Prime Minister Vojislav Kostunica, editorial notes that Kostunica is not bothered by capturing Ratko Mladic as much as he is eager to restructure the security and intelligence services in his homeland. Author notes: "Ones that rule security services – rule Serbia. And those are neither Kostunica nor [Serbian President Boris] Tadic. Action Plan is really last chance for disoriented Serbia and its politicians, who beside Mladic, have burden of Kosovo on their shoulders." ## Economic issues

BiH marks 37.12% increase in export; VAT has positive effects, but experts deem that Law should be more flexible	Hayat by Zumra Arnautovic – During the first six months of 2006, BiH has exported goods totalling approx. 2,45 million KM, which is 37.12% more than compared to same period of 2005. The biggest foreign-trade partner is Croatia; 33.23% of import has been covered with export. “As you can see, the participation of countries that signed the Free Trade Agreement in our foreign-trade exchange is getting bigger and bigger. It proves that those agreements have some effect after all” , stated Savo Marjanac , representative of BiH Foreign Trade Chamber [FTC]. BiH mainly exports ore and metal products, wood, paper and furniture; even though Value Added Tax introduction had positive effect on export, members of BiH FTC claim that some things should be changed. “I think that both the Rulebook and the Law should be changed, and become more flexible and effective” , stated Dusko Bogdanovic from the FTC’s Macroeconomic Sector. PINK, BHT1- also reported.
IMF warning: BiH could face budget collapse due to unreasonable spending	Hayat by Elma Kazagic – Despite positive macroeconomic trends, the International Monetary Fund [IMF] has warned once again that BiH could face budget collapse next year, due to unreasonable spending of budget money. IMF report emphasized that the economic growth in BiH was on a satisfactory level, export has increased and Value Added Tax has been successfully introduced; however, budget discipline is getting even weaker, while the necessary reforms have been suspended. “The budgets for 2006 have dramatically increased expenses. Governments on lower levels of authority are planning to increase their salaries, while the amendments to the law on old foreign currency savings – if they are adopted – would be another shock to a budget” , stated IMF representative in BiH Graham Slack . Members of BiH Economic Council agree with this assessment; they claim that some improvements have been made, but in the same time a slowdown in institutional strengthening of the state is evident. “The World Bank has cancelled a $50 million loan for adapting social sector, because regulations in the field of veterans and disabled persons’ protection have not been harmonized with European standards” , stated member of Economic Council Zarko Papic . Dnevni List pg ‘Excessive pre-election spending will cost citizens’ by Danijela Kozina – also reported.
Int. w/ Finance Minister Vrankic on proposed Income Tax Law: New law respects everyone’s personal situation	Vecernji List pg 6 mentioned on cover ‘100,000 employees will not be paying income tax’ by Zoran Kresic – VL interviews FBiH Finance Minister Dragan Vrankic on the topic of the expected adoption of the new Law on Income Tax. Vrankic calculates that, under the new law, a single person would pay 20 KM tax on a 500 KM income whereas a family with 2 children would pay 14 KM on the same amount. He explains that progressive tax rates will be 5 % (income up to KM 400), 10 % (800 KM), 15 % (1500 KM) and 20% (income over 1500 KM) and that pensions and scholarships will not be taxable. Regarding workers who are on minimum wages, Vrankic says 100,000 workers in FBiH with two or more children will not pay income tax because annual income under KM 1200 will not be subject to taxation. Based on the above, Vrankic says new law will respect everybody’s personal circumstances and family situation.
FBiH HoR to vote on Income Tax: SDA to support provision, SBiH only after settling certain ‘unclear’ issues	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘Will deputies vote for introduction of Income Tax?’ by Ad.H. – Announcing that FBiH House of Representatives would vote on introduction of Income Tax at its Tuesday’s session, author comments that this provision would abolish some about 20 present cantonal taxes on income and radically change the present tax system in whole. Head of SDA Caucus Semsudin Mehmedovic stressed: “It is important for us that approximately 118,000 citizens would be completely released from paying taxes, which would not, at the same time, endanger cantonal budgets.” Head of SBiH Caucus Ismet Briga noted that FBiH Government should answer certain questions before voting takes place. Dnevni List pg 7 “Parliament to discuss methods to tax income’ unsigned , – announced discussion in the parliament.

At the same time, amendment proponent Momcilo Novakovic [SDS] stated that if these are not passed, then the voting right in RS would be derived to 30 to 40 thousand citizens. BiH Central Election Commission [CEC] warned that old IDs have been put out of force, by the decision of BiH Civil Affairs Ministry and that only valid are those issued by CIPS.
