War Crimes/Srebrenica commemoration update

Trials for Srebrenica genocide in ICTY: Prosecutor del Ponte told to focus on procedural matters, her speech got interrupted	FTV – By Adisa Dedic – Trial against seven RS Army officers, Vujadin Popovic, Ljubisa Beara, Drago Nikolic, Ljubomir Borovcanin, Vinko Pandurevic (charged with committing genocide in Srebrenica) Radivoje Miletic, Milan Gvero (charged with crimes against humanity committed in Srebrenica and Zepa), has been interrupted by interruption of Chief ICTY Prosecutor, Carla del Ponte's speech. Namely, ICTY (Council of Judges) stated that del Ponte was violating previously established concept that the hearing should be dedicated to issues of procedural nature. Del Ponte opened the hearing by saying that she attended the marking of 11th anniversary of Srebrenica tragedy. Defence lawyers interrupted del Ponte by saying that the Prosecutor was not respecting ICTY's rules by which the opening of the trial should be dedicated to issues of procedural nature, not an opening argument, scheduled for August 21st. Even though the judges interrupted the Prosecutor, after consulting with each other, they allowed her to continue, stressing that the opening of trial was not a part of opening arguments. By saying that she was shocked by objections, del Ponte said that she found her speech just introductory remarks, which were common for a beginning of a trial. Hayat – Clearly upset, Del Ponte emphasized that she – as a Chief ICTY Prosecutor – was entitled to speak at the beginning of the trial, adding that she was not driven by emotions; she was only presenting evidences. According to Hayat reporter, Del Ponte said with her voice raised and with gesticulation, del Ponte provoked laughter among observers. Although the trial officially started on Friday, ICTY announced that both prosecution and defence would give their opening statements on August 21. ICTY Prosecution's spokesman Nikiforov: Srebrenica genocide trials will last at least 2 years, Mothers of Srebrenica unhappy del Ponte's speech got interrupted	BHT11 – By Marina Martinovic – The ICTY Prosecution's spokesman Anton Nikiforov claims that trial against seven RS Army officers, charged with war crimes in Srebrenica, is the most important trial before the ICTY, finding Srebrenica crime the biggest committed in the area of ex Yugoslavia in the last war. Nikiforov added that the trial would last at least 2 years, bearing in mind fact that it would take a year for 165 prosecution witnesses to testify. Mothers of Srebrenica and Zepa Enclave Association condemned the fact that Chief ICTY Prosecutor, Carla del Ponte , was interrupted at the beginning of the trial. Namely, the Association stated that the defence lawyers' reaction ridiculed ICTY and justice, trying to diminish genocide. "They once more proved that they were laughing at victims' faces and that they still want to diminish the crime they committed...they want to hide the crime and genocide" , said Munira Subasic , from the Association. (Oslobodjenje , pg 2 'Belittling of victims again', not signed – carries Subasic's statement.
ICTY: War crimes suspects for Foca crimes Zelenovic pleads 'not guilty'	BHT1 – An ICTY suspect, Dragan Zelenovic , former deputy commander of (RS) Military Police in Foca, pleaded not guilty (before ICTY) for crimes in Foca. Namely, Zelenovic is being charged with crimes against humanity and violation of customs of war, including rapes and tortures in Foca in 1992. (originally, Zelenovic was arrested in Russia because he used false passport, then he got extradited to BiH and subsequently he got extradited to ICTY) (also reported by Pink, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje , pg 2, mentioned on front 'Zelenovic says he is not guilty', by Fena , Dnevni Avaz , pg 12 'Dragan Zelenovic says he is not guilty for crimes in Foca', by Sense , Dnevni List , pg 6 'Dragan Zelenovic denies responsibility', not signed
BiH Court confirms indictments against Mejakic and others, charged with war crimes in Prijedor area	FTV – On Friday, the BiH Court has confirmed indictment against Zeljko Mejakic, Momcilo Gruban, Dusan Fustar and Dusko Knezevic , charging them with crimes against humanity (committed against non-Serb population), committed in the area of Prijedor in 1992. Dnevni Avaz , pg 12 'Mejakic and others charged with Omarska and Keraterm', not signed – Mejakic and others are charged with direct participation in imprisoning non-Serb civilians at Omarska, Keraterm and Trnopolje prison camps. Round table on work of Sarajevo Commission held at East Sarajevo: Commission facing difficult tasks	BHT1 – By Mirela Cosic – At a round table (which was held in East Sarajevo), dedicated to the issue of the Sarajevo Commission's work (commission tasked to establish truth about suffering of peoples in Sarajevo between 1992-1995), family members of killed and missing ones from the RS support the Commission's work, saying that there is no reason why another body, which would offer its assistance in terms of administrative issues, should be established, since such institutions have already been established. "The body, namely a work group, consisted of members of all institutions who could contribute to more successful Commission's work, should be established by the RS Government, which should also allocate certain means to it", said Zoran Tesanovic from BiH Ministry of Civil Affairs. "One is for sure; this process is going to be a long one; this state Commission needs a lot of data and documents which already exist; we should as soon as possible decide whether they are going to be submitted to a work group or whether they would be institutionally examined and presented to the Commission", said Cvetko Savic, from the RS Government Secretariat for the ICTY relations. RTRS by Dejana Radovanovic-Sarenac – RS representatives and members of NGOs will support the work of Serb members of the Commission. "I hope that the truth on suffering of Sarajevo Serbs will become a world truth on their suffering", said BiH Minister of Transport and Communications Branko Dokic. Chair of East Sarajevo Association of families of missing persons Mirjana Simanic stated that they are not pleased with the convocation of the Commission and certain items in its statute. She explained that the ways the presentation of reports on completed works is carried out need to be changed. Reporter comments that the members of the round table concluded that a heavy task is ahead of the Commission that needs to be rationally and wisely completed.
Hurtic of Tuzla Office for Missing Persons: Kamenica mass grave could be biggest in BiH	BHT1 – By Hatka Hamidovic – So far 55 complete and 385 incomplete body remains have been exhumed from a mass gravesite in Kamenica. According to Murat Hurtic, Chief of Tuzla Missing Persons Department, exhumation in Kamenica, which started on 8th of June, is going to last for a month at least. "Due to the fact that over 400 body remains have been exhumed but only a half of the mass gravesite has been exhumed, I believe that this could be the largest mass grave in BiH", says Hurtic. Eight documents, found in the mass grave state that body remains belong to 7 persons from Srebrenica and one from Vlasenica. Report brings feature on Smajo Ibrahimovic, who searches his father's body remains.
Conference on missing persons in Mostar: Some 20.000 missing persons in region	FTV – By Anita Damjanovic – Members of International Commission on Missing Persons (ICMP), entity commissions as well as Croatia and Serbia commissions (on missing persons) held a meeting in Mostar (on Friday), dedicated to discussion on ways of strengthening cooperation in search for missing persons. BiH has established Institute on missing persons, due to which entity authorities have been transferred to state level. "We want to make sure that the Institute would closely cooperate with Croatia and Serbia, in order to reveal the fate of remaining 20,000 missing persons", said Kathryne Buenger, the Head of ICMP Mission to BiH. Mechanisms of cooperation between Croatia, BiH and Serbia have been agreed upon two years ago, at a meeting in Neum. "It is of extreme importance that we have agreed on exhumations, which are to take place in the fall, in Serbia, Croatia and BiH", said Ivan Grujic, from Croatian Commission on missing persons. As far as Acting Director of BiH Institute on missing persons, Marko Jurisic is concerned, crucial problem in terms of search for missing persons presents a lack of documents on mass and individual gravesites. Oslobodjenje, pg 4 'Destiny of 15.000 people in BiH unknown', not signed – BiH Assistant Minister for Human Rights, Maksim Stanisic, noted destiny of some 13-15.000 people in BiH is yet unknown. On the other hand, authorised agents of BiH , Serbia and Montenegro (before the ICJ) could not confirm or deny the information.
Bosniak Caucus in RS CoP wants RAK to penalize RTRS for failing to observe Day of Mourning on July 11	RTRS - By Sanja Popovic - Bosniak Caucus in RS Council of Peoples has invited RAK (Communications Regulatory Agency) to penalize RTRS since it failed to respect the decision of Council of Ministers on proclaiming 11 th July as the official day of mourning. Reporter comments that viewers and representatives of various organisations as well as political parties are offering their support to RTRS. SP Chair Petar Djokic publicly condemned all attacks on RTRS as well as announced full support for its work. Hayat - Bosniak Caucus in RS CoP deems that the conduct of RTRS was 'extremely insulting and humiliating to all the victims of Srebrenica genocide, members of their families, and the whole Bosniak people in RS'. RTRS on Thursday rejected all the accusations. (also in Nezavisne Novine , pg 9 'They want penalties against RTRS', by V. P.)
Re-exhumation of bodies to start in Srebrenica on Saturday, newly discovered body parts to be buried	Oslobodjenje , front pg splash and pg 3 'Re-exhumation of Srebrenica victims today', by Edina Kamenica - according to an official explanation the daily was given (Oslobodjenje does not specify who gave the explanation), re-exhumation of 54 body remains of Srebrenica victims will start on Saturday morning at 0900 hrs the aim of which is to bury new body parts that have been discovered lately (in order to bury them together with bodies after DNA analysis showed matching results). However, according to Oslobodjenje's source, it is not only about missing pieces of bodies, which are to be joined with the corpses, it is also about a mistake in which body parts got mixed, which needs to be rectified. (announcement of exhumation also in Dnevni Avaz , pg 3 'Buried victims will be added body parts subsequently found', by A. Hadzic)

Political Developments

NGO 'GROZD' wants political parties to open new jobs, submits list of requests signed by 150.000 people	FTV - By Jakov Avram - Citizens' Movement GROZD (Civic Organizing for Democracy) has officially invited all political parties, which will run in October elections, to accept the citizens platform for elections. The platform consists of 12 BiH citizens' request, which should be incorporated in each political party's political platform. Some of the requests ask political subjects to create 150,000 jobs by 2010, abolish extreme poverty, provide basic health and social welfare, etc. "We expect political parties to be serious and accept the platform, build it in their pre-election programs and we expect new Governments to take these requests as priorities in their tasks for 4 years", said Adis Arapovic, GROZD Spokesperson and added that if political parties rejected the platform, GROZD would come up in public with it. Pink - GROZD member Sevko Bajic stated that 150 000 signatures have been gathered so far thus proving that citizens want for politicians to finally address the real burning issues at hand. MP Franjicevic says Croats not represented enough in FBiH Civil Service Agency	Dnevni List , front pg splash and pg 4 'Criminal procedure against Hadzipasic', by Mensud Zorlak – according to an MP in FBiH House of Peoples, Mate Franjicevic , the FBiH Civil Service Agency is in violation of the Law on civil service because it employs as many as 80% Bosniaks, whilst Croats and Serbs are represented with 14 and 6% respectively. Franjicevic claims the Agency should have abided by the 1991 census principle, as the law describes, saying this is good enough a reason to file criminal changes, underlining it is the FBiH PM, Ahmet Hadzipasic , who is the most responsible person.
