Economic issues

Authorities officially open 8.5 kilometres long section of a highway Sarajevo-Zenica	Hayat by Snjezana Mulic - As of Monday, BiH has approximately 20 kilometres of a highway: new, 8.5 kilometres long section of a highway between Podlugovi and Visoko has been officially opened. FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic , FBiH President Niko Lozancic and - totally "unprovoked", as reporter cynically stated - BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic , attended the opening ceremony. "We have waited for a hundred years to construct 20 kilometres of this highway. I hope it won't take us another hundred years to construct the Corridor 5-C" , stated Lozancic. Mulic says it is impossible to get over the impression that the construction was deliberately delayed, so that the ceremony can be organized during the pre-election campaign. "If I had the power to order rains in the first part of June, and tropical temperatures in a second part, then yes - it was deliberately delayed for political reasons" , somewhat ironically stated FBiH Minister of traffic and Communication Nedžad Brankovic . FTV by Azra Pasukan - The FBiH Government has invested in the section 58 millions KM. Reporter ridicules the event by saying that it took more than 5 years for BiH to make 20 out of 330 kilometres long highway. "This section has been financed from three budgetary years while it has been constructed in a year, which means that the speed of construction depends on budget capacity or realization of the FBiH Government's decision by which telecom operators should be sold and means allocated to the project" , said Brankovic. According to the project documentation, the highway should be completed by 2013. PINK also covered. BHT1 - "Construction of this part of the highway, quality of works, met standards prove that BiH has construction operative and experts able to make modern highways" , said Tihic. Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'BiH got another 8,5 kilometres of highway' by R. Cengic also reported. Dnevni List , pg 2 'Capable of making modern highway', not signed - carries Tihic as saying the works on the highway showed BiH is capable of making modern highways. Vecernji List , pg 2 'BiH gets another 8,5 kilometres of highway', by dj - reports on opening of highway.

DL: ITA GB Chairman Nicholl sends BiH HoP letter, says ITA GB disagrees with return of VAT as of July 1	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘No agreement on de-blocking of single state account’ by M.K. – FBiH Finance Minister Dragan Vrankic told DA that agreement on allocation of public revenues from single Indirect Taxation Administration’s account hasn’t been yet reached. He added that he hasn’t discussed this with RS Finance Minister Aleksandar Dzombic , because FBiH doesn’t want to abandon its stances that allocation has to continue in line with the provisions of the current VAT Law and not using fixed coefficients, as the RS side insists. “ We will see what the newly appointed Chair of ITA Steering Board, Peter Nicholl, would decide...In any case FBiH wouldn’t feel consequences of this blockade, because we can function with current means at our disposal for some time, ” said Vrankic. DA reminds that new blockade of single account occurred on last Monday, since when entities and Brcko District have lose their finances.
FBiH Minister Vrankic: no agreement on allocation of public revenues; FBiH can function for some time with current means	Dnevni List , pg 2 ‘Return of tax to business people stopped’, by D. P. Mandic – DL reminds that the BiH House of Peoples during its last session (held last Friday) did not discuss changes to the law on VAT related to the return of VAT-generated revenues after the BiH HoP received a letter from the ITA Governing Board (ITA GB) Chairman, Peter Nicholl , who noted that the ITA GB did not agree with the stipulated changes, therefore the change cannot take place ( NB: earlier, the BiH HoR enacted changes to the law foreseeing that the VAT-generated revenues are to be returned as of July 1). According to Beriz Belkic , (MP in BiH HoR, SBiH), the ITA wants to prolong the deadline (for return of VAT), which is evident from a letter signed by the ITA Director, Kemal Causevic , who called upon technical difficulties and short deadlines and noted that the suspension (of return of VAT) would last until December 31, not July 1. Belkic concludes that by doing so, the ITA is unnecessarily stalling the situation in which companies are not getting back the ever so necessary money.

Security

FTV says 63 foreigners were deprived of BiH citizenships so far	FTV by Amarildo Gutic – As BiH Deputy Security Minister, Dragan Mektic , stated for said FTV, persons deprived of illegally gained BiH citizenship will have to leave BiH but they are not going to be extradited to states where they could be faced to death penalty. Such persons are able to file lawsuit against institutions in charge if they found such actions unfounded. FBiH Supreme Court has annulled the FBiH Ministry of Interior’s decision to deprive Al Husin Imad Abu Hamza of BiH citizenship, stating that the FBiH Mol gave no legal reasons for doing it. This is just a single example of process on revision of decisions on naturalization of foreign citizens. According to unofficial data, the Commission in charge has deprived 63 foreigners of BiH citizenships. “ We have to be fair and say that there are certain persons who should be deprived of their BiH citizenship, but most of the cases, basic human right has been violated ”, says Abu Hamza. BiH Parliament is soon going to discuss changes in the BiH Law on citizenship. According to the changes, persons deprived of illegally gained BiH citizenship, will not be able to file request on BiH citizenship in next 5 years, in order to prevent new requests, founded on new basis.

DL: SIPA takes over police jobs	Dnevni List , pg 7 'SIPA takes over police jobs?!', by M. Zorlak - according to DL's source in the FBiH Interior Ministry, SIPA (State agency for investigation and protection) is taking over more and more cases related to organized crime at both the state and FBiH level, which resulted in the SIPA resolving many cases that are in jurisdiction of the FBiH Mol. However, according to DL, the FBiH Police Administration Director, Zlatko Miletic , disagrees with such allegations claiming the FBiH police officers do carry out their jobs. Despite Miletic's statement, DL's source notes that due to lack of staff in the FBiH Mol, SIPA often helps out the FBiH Mol by usually taking over the most difficult cases. On the other hand, SIPA spokesman Admir Katica says it is only natural that all police agencies in BiH cooperate with each other.

Political issues

Public discussion on PBS Law to be held before FBiH CC on demand of Croat Caucus, which asks for three channels	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Public discussion on proposal law on Public Broadcasting Service' by S.Se - On Tuesday, the FBiH Constitutional Court's Council for Protection of Vital National Interest will discuss a request of the Croat Caucus in the FBiH House of peoples to assess the proposal Law on FBiH public broadcasting service. In essence, Croat caucus is asking for establishment of third channel in Croatian language within the public broadcasting system. Daily reminded that both FBiH Parliament's Houses passed this proposal law in April this year. Discussion in FBiH HoR was conducted without members of Croat parties, while in FBiH HoP Croat Caucus have invoked the VNI. It adds passing of this law is a pre-condition for signing of the Stabilization and Association Agreement and that these laws were priority passed at state and RS level. Daily also reminded that International Community is insisting on harmonization of the FBiH Law with the BiH Law on PBS and author explains that even if the FBiH CC would reject demand of the Croat Caucus, the law would have to be harmonized between two FBiH Parliament's Houses before coming into force.
OsI op-ed: USA , UK and Russia advocate for EU taking over and OHR closure while at same time challenge the CoE initiatives to change something in BiH	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'On cat's tail' op-ed by Zija Dizdarevic - The editorial refers to recently passed resolution of Parliamentary Assembly of Council of Europe [PACE], and the reaction of RS PM Milorad Dodik [ "they can tie the Resolution to the cat's tail" ] and statements of US and UK Ambassadors noting Resolution is not obligatory. Stressing that PACE Chair René van der Linden has stated the Resolution is mandatory for BiH, Dizdarevic speculates what could be a reason for such stances of the US and UK officials, especially after their mild reactions to announcements of referendum in the RS. Author lists three possible reasons: first being Dodik is too strong, thus Ambassadors did not want to "make him mad" , secondly a stance that it would not be good to irritate Serbians "while they suffer for Kosovo" and third reason being an opinion that BiH is still an open issue. Stressing that situation in the international peace mission in BiH is not encouraging, Dizdarevic stresses: "USA, UK and Russia are advocating for closing down OHR as soon as possible leaving the EU with primary responsibility for BiH. At the same time they are challenging CoE's initiative in that direction. At this moment, European vision of BiH is tied to tail of Dodik's cat" .
SD commentary: BiH politicians giving citizens false hope re abolishment of visa regime, diplomats suggest concrete reform the best path	Slobodna Dalmacija , pg 8 'Abolishment of visas - just a pre-election promise', by Z. Tulic - the author argues that many BiH politicians are giving citizens false hope with their stories on alleged abolishment of visas for BiH citizens who would like to go to the EU countries. The author notes that diplomatic circles say it is not about abolishment of visas, instead it is about easing of visa regime for certain categories of peoples such as students, business people etc, which in reality are two completely different things. SD goes on to say that in order for the EU to ease the visa regime, BiH will have to convince the EU it is ready to "get closer to the Schengen doors" , which will be very difficult considering many (unresolved) crucial issues pertaining to future of BiH, women trafficking, porous BiH borders etc. SD concludes the piece by saying diplomats suggest the best way to have visas abolished is concrete reform actions, foremost the completion of police reform.

Trial to six former Serbian top officials commenced before ICTY	New York Times 'War Crimes Trial Begins for 6 Milosevic Aides' by Marlise Simons – Four months after the death of former Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic, the trial of six of his top aides opened Monday, beginning a process that may finally render a verdict on the sweep of Serbia's actions during the 1999 war in Kosovo. Prosecutors said Serbian forces, under the direction of Milosevic, destroyed numerous villages and towns "to create an atmosphere of terror" and to drive out tens of thousands of unwanted Kosovo Albanians. An estimated 800,000 Kosovo Albanians fled in terror, and 7,000 to 9,000 people were killed. The trial is expected to last more than a year. After death of Milosevic, the accused provide prosecutors with the next best chance of obtaining a verdict on the events in Kosovo. The six accused include two former politicians: Milan Milutinovic, a former president of Serbia, and Nikola Sainovic, former Yugoslav Deputy Prime Minister. There are also four former generals: Dragoljub Ojdanic, Nebojsa Pavkovic, Vladimir Lazarevic and Sreten Lukic. All six voluntarily surrendered to the tribunal and were allowed to wait at home for the start of their trial. Another former general, Vlastimir Djordjevic, who was to be part of the same trial, is still on the run and, tribunal officials said, living in Russia. The accused are charged with war crimes and crimes against humanity, including systematic deportation, murder and persecution. All have pleaded not guilty. The proceedings deal only with Kosovo and not with other atrocities, like those in Croatia and Bosnia. PINK, BHT1, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, International Herald Tribune, Washington Post, Sueddeutsche Zeitung, Dnevni List, pg 23 'Trials to state and military leadership of Serbia', by HINA also covered.
