RSNA adopts law on rights and duties of MPs stipulating more benefits for parliamentarians	RTRS Momcilo Ostojic – On Tuesday in Banja Luka, the RS National Assembly adopted the Law on rights and duties of MPs in the RSNA and RS Council of Peoples that enables former deputies to retire after only one mandate and 55 years of age. The RS Government strongly opposed the law, claiming its implementation would pose much larger demands on the budget. The RS Finance Minister Aleksandar Dzombic stated the Government at this moment could only increase budget for 2007, however that would require cut down of funding for other for purposes. SNSD deputy Drago Kalebic sharply criticized the new law. SDS deputy Slavko Djunic stated that those opposing the law are only aiming to get pre-electoral points, claiming some of them earlier had supported it. DEPOS' Nedjo Djuric reminded that even those who voted against the law would benefit of it. SDA's MP, Tarik Sadovic, noted that most parliamentarians are not going to use the right for early pension, but he stressed it was necessary to regulate a status of MP's by law. The Head of the RS Association of Pensioners Rade Rakulj stressed this law is unacceptable, as nobody could earn pension after only one mandate in the Parliament. Rakulj expressed hope the RS President is not going to approve this law. OHR also criticized the law, stating that it is not fair to increase the pensions of parliamentarians before an increase in salaries of other citizens. Report concluded with comments of citizens all sharply condemning the newly adopted law. PINK – The Law set an average pension of a former MP to 700 KM. RSNA adopted the Law with only three votes against it. Djunic stated that this law would require the additional budget in amount of only 560.000 KM in 2007. Hayat by ATV Banjaluka – 55 deputies voted in favour of the Law. "The biggest dilemma for me was whether it was moral [thing to do] or not. But than, the real question is – what is moral?" wonders Djunic. DEPOS' Djuric was one of the rare MPs who abstained the vote; all PDP representatives voted in favour of this law, just like the MPs from SDA. GS says Law to be returned to Parliament procedure if RS President Cavic refuses to sign it	Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Rights before duties' by D. Momic – Regarding Tuesday's adoption of RS Law on rights and duties of MP's, MP Drago Kalabic [SNSD] claims the Law was enacted under a pressure of a group of SDS delegates, but he did not deny some SNSD delegates too have supported the law [ATV reported that Kalabic said he did not support the Law, but SDS Slavko Djunic immediately denied his claim, by showing Kalabic's signature on the proposal of the law]. GS comments that the Law cannot come in force without an approval of RS President Dragan Cavic and carries a comment of DEPOS's Dusko Vukotic who believes such a scenario might be possible, adding: "The Government disapproved the Law and President Cavic will not want to sign it. In this way, he and RS PM [Milorad] Dodik will present themselves as guardians of people and collect political points prior to elections." Nevertheless, even if President Cavic refused to sign the Law, the Law would be returned to the Assembly procedure and, if delegates enacted the Law again, it would be considered as a final confirmation of the Law. Inset 'Delegates failed' – Chair of RS Union of Syndicates Ranka Misic strongly criticised the adoption of the Law, since high salaries and pensions should first be justified through work.
RS NA Speaker did not want to comment on adoption of Law, saying he did not support it	EuroBlic cover pg splash 'Pension after one mandate only' and pgs RS2-RS3 'Non-scrupulous way to privileges' by Rajna Radosavljevic – RS NA Speaker Igor Radojicic did not want to comment on the adoption of the Law, but he said he did not support it because he does not believe the solutions incorporated into the Law were good. PDP's Veselin Poljasevic said he believes RS and RS NA need to have such a law because all neighbouring countries have one. Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Average MP's pension of BAM 700' by P.Klincov/D.Risojevic – also adopted.
OHR criticised enactment of RS Law on rights and duties of RS MP's	Nezavisne Novine pg 4, announced on cover 'Average MP's pension of BAM 700' inset 'OHR criticized Law' – OHR criticized Law on rights and duties of RS MP's. OHR Spokesperson Oleg Milisic said that RS NA by this law provided its deputies with higher pensions and other benefits higher than those of other citizens. Milisic believes that media and public should ask for reasons why deputies have right for higher pay than regular citizens.

GS op-ed critical of RS NA Law on rights and duties of MP's	Glas Srpske op-edpg 2 'Joy of taking' by Veljko Kojovic – The author is critical of Tuesday's decision of RS MP's to adopt the Law on rights and duties of MP's, raising the issue of whether Law stipulates RS citizens should pay privileges to MP's family members in case that, God forbid as he says, something happens to them. He concludes the article by raising the issue of what people will say at October elections.
FBiH HoR discusses draft of Law on Income Tax	PINK Zeljko Mandic – At the session held on Tuesday, FBiH House of Representatives discussed the draft Law on Income Tax. The proposed Law would replace existing Law on salary taxes and a series of similar cantonal laws. According to the proposed law, all citizens would be obliged to register their income and pay 10% or 20% taxes. FBiH Finance Minister Dragan Vrankic explained the citizens with monthly income of up to 300 KM would pay 10% or less tax, adding students and pensioners would be exempted from payment of Income Tax. The discussion on this proposal has finished. The MP's are supposed to vote on it in the session scheduled for Wednesday. BHT1 – BiH Independent Trade Unions President Edhem Biber,deems that this law would worsen situation for citizens since the income tax was so far 5%. FBiH Government disagrees noting that so far every citizen had guaranteed monthly deduction of 100 KM plus deduction on family of 170 Km. Vrankic said that in this way "an increase of the income tax will not radically change since most of the citizens will not pay more than 6%". FBiH HoR delegates asked for the introduction of the differentiated income tax rate for the citizens with higher incomes and redemption for the incomes lower than 300 KM. This law has been in the procedure for the last three years. It anticipates all the tax rates in all FBiH cantons and RS to be equalized. Hayat by Lejla Gutlic – According to NTV Hayat reporter, it is not clear what has been concluded, because some representatives in the FBiH HoR claim that BiH citizens will pay less, while others deem that citizens will have to pay more. The Law on Income Tax is one the reform laws, which should replace previous FBiH law on income tax and twenty other cantonal laws and regulations, stated Vrankic, adding: "We will collect the same amount of revenues as in 2005, but 60 percent of tax payers will pay less taxes than before." FTV – Opposition was against the proposed law, claiming BiH citizens still haven't recovered from the Value Added Tax. Dnevni List pg 5 'Vrankic: citizens will pay less tax' unsigned Vecernji List pg 2 'Vrankic: 60 percent of citizens will pay less tax' by E. Dragan Vrankic, FBiH Minister of Finance also believes that ITA SB should be BiH-run institution.

DA int with McElhaney: allocation issue must be solved ASAP	Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 5 'We have no election favorites' by Sead Numanovic – In a lengthy interview to DA, the US Ambassador to BiH, Douglas McElhaney , commented the situation with the allocation of public revenues: "I am certain that decision-making-process has to start in BiH Fiscal Council, in order for this country to resume moving in the right direction. We are here to help for such things to happen." He noted issue of allocation from the single ITA account has to be solved carefully. Ambassador denied speculations that he is collision with the EC because of prolonging of mandate for Indirect Taxation Administration Steering Board Chair Joly Dixon , saying: "I have no special stance on Dixon's mandate. I believe that issues have to be solved in Fiscal Council."
New talks on coefficients for allocation from Single Account to take place by the end of week	Hayat – According to Hayat presenter, new talks on the coefficients for distribution of revenues from the Single Account will take place by the end of the week, because the mandate of the Indirect Taxation Administration Steering Board Chairman Joly Dixon expires on Friday.
After blockade of single account FBiH Finance Ministry claims that FBiH can survive for 20 days without new incomes	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Federation can survive 20 days without new incomes' by M.Kukan – Director of BiH Indirect Taxation Administration, Kemal Causevic , commented on newest blockade of single account and explained that payments for June would be carried out, while new VAT applications [payments to single account] would disable financing of the state and servicing of the foreign debt. Causevic stressed that he expects for about 100 million KM to be collected at the single account in period from July 1-10, where VAT applications are being submitted. It is still unknown when would the financing of entities and Brcko District start again, but FBiH Finance Ministry confirmed the statement of FBiH PM Ahmet Hadzipasic , who stated after Monday's session of BiH FC that none of FBiH citizens would feel the consequences of this blockade. As DA notices, bit ironically, FBiH Finance Ministry explained this with the claim that FBiH has reserves with which can survive for about 20 days without new incomes.
RS representative in ITA SB Kudic: RS is not to be blamed for blockade of single account	Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'Demand for fixed coefficients is result of fear from forgery' by Marina Kacvaz-Sirucic – Commenting the blockade of single account, member of ITA Steering Board from the RS, Miodrag Kudic , told daily that RS is not to be blamed for this, stressing that he is more concerned by the fact that BiH and FBiH Finance Ministers haven't attended, though the session of the Fiscal Council was priory announced. Kudic stressed that RS' insisting on fixed coefficients, instead based on VAT applications [as the Law foresees], and is based on the fact that many of VAT applications do not contain the data on final consumption, which is necessary for calculating of coefficients. Coordinator of Brcko District within Council of Ministers, Sinisa Kisic , stated that the only right way of allocation is as the Law foresaw it. He stated that demand for fixed coefficients is a result of a fear that data could be falsified before the statistic analysis.
Oslob: even those who weren't in the army are on lists of disabled and killed veterans	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 3 'List of 'disabled' veterans includes even those who weren't in Army?!' by A.B.– Daily carries that the Commission for audit of the certificates issued on circumstances in which an army member suffered injuries or was killed has checked 1,111 cases which were deemed as problematic on basis of anonymous reports. Out of total, 130 cases were found "very disputable" . As daily carries, the Commission revealed that among "disabled or murdered veterans" there are those who never even were in the army and that their medical files were falsified during the war. Lists with names of "suspicious" were submitted to FBiH Ministry of Veterans, which is the only one that can take away the privileges enjoyed by the veterans and their families. However, daily stresses that no one has to be concerned, not even those who died or were wounded in criminal activities, since former FBiH Defence Ministry has set very vague definition of "on line of duty" in such manner that even a suicide is considered as military duty.

HR concerned over BiH Presidency's failure to approve proposed decision on size and structure of BiH Armed Forces	PINK by Adriana Domazet - The OHR's press release issued on Tuesday reads that the HR Christian Schwarz-Schilling was concerned by BiH Presidency's failure to meet its legally set deadline for approving proposed decision on size, structure and stationing of the Armed Forces of BiH. OHR spokesman Oleg Milisic remained that 1 July deadline set under the BiH Law on Defence, which came into effect on 28 December 2005, expired at the end of last week. Milisic quoted Schwarz-Schilling, who said that "by missing this deadline, BiH Presidency is delaying implementation of critical military reforms. In its capacity as a collective Commander-in-Chief, the Presidency must take this up at its next meeting as a matter of urgency." The proposed decision on the size, structure, and stationing of the BiH Armed Forces has been developed by BiH Minister of Defence Nikola Radovanovic and his Transition Team with NATO advisory input. FTV - According to Paravac's Military Advisor Dragan Kapetina this decision might be adopted at the session on Wednesday. As DA writes, the key issue is insisting of Croat member of BiH Presidency, Ivo Miro Jovic, that BiH Armed Forces should contain 25% of Croats, which is not in accordance with BiH Defence Law, which foresees that national balance would be in accordance with population census from 1991. According to latest information, as DA writes, Jovic was prepared to decrease his demand for few percents, but DA stresses that accepting of this demand in this phase would present violation of all current agreements in defence reform. DA also stressed that other two members of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic and Borislav Paravac, had no objection to the Decision and were prepared to pass it immediately.

As daily learned, it was agreed that number of "others" is 0.5%, meaning that difference from pre-war 7.9% of "others" would be divided to three equal shares, to which Bosniak have objected. "The more they discuss the more they open issues that were already solved by the Law," said Gregorian, adding that at its Thursday's session NATO's highest body, North-Atlantic Council, would be informed about the fact that BiH Presidency hasn't acted in accordance with the Law. Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'NATO sanctions are possible' by D. VL writes about ‘inaccurate ethnic representation on OHR’s web page’; Serbs wrongly declared majority in many BiH towns	Vecernji List pg 4 ‘OHR web page says Serbs were majority in Posavina prior to war’ by Miroslav Vasilj – VL article states that the OHR web page contains an inaccurate map of ethnic representation in the territory of former Yugoslavia. According to OHR info, Bosanska Posavina, with the exception of Brcko, had Serb majority before the war, as did Mostar Municipality (apart from the city itself), as well as municipalities of Konjic [Bosniak majority], Jablanica [Bosniak majority] and Rama [Croat majority]. It is not known, article reads, who OHR got this information from, but false data are offensive first of all to genocide victims in Bosanska Posavina, in which Croats constituted relative majority prior to war and Serbs became majority only after the war. OHR claims the map was not produced in OHR. Sanela Tunovic , OHR spokesperson, said ‘OHR would look into who the source is and then decide what to do about the map’.

Manolic said that late Croatian President Franjo Tudjman wanted to annex Herzegovina to Croatia that, as Manolic says, was the reason he left HDZ. According to him, Tudjman's politics in BiH was implemented by the "Herzegovina lobby" comprising late Croatian defense Minister Gojko Susak , former high HDZ officials Vice Vukojevic and Ivic Pasalic , Mate Boban [late president of "Herceg-Bosna"], Dario Kordic [high HVO officer in central Bosnia] as well as the six H-B officials currently on trial in the Hague. Manolic confirmed that there was a secret and undocumented Croatian military presence in BiH which should not be held against Croatia but against Tudjman and Susak. Vecernji List cover splash & pg 11 'Tudjman wanted to annex Herzegovina' by H, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 2 'It is not Croatia that should not be blamed but Tudjman and Susak' by Ines Sabalic , Dnevni Avaz pg 12 'Creation of Herceg-Bosna is greatest Tudjman's mistake' by Sense , Oslobodjenje pg 7 'I told Tudjman it is not clever to touch Bosnia' by Sense - also reported.

Standard on sentence against Naser Oric: ICTY has great impact on politics in both Serbia and BiH; sentence is strengthening right-radicals	Der Standard 'Three ways of interpreting the verdict' by Andrej Ivanji - Commenting ICTY verdict against the wartime Srebrenica commander Naser Oric [sentenced to two years and released immediately as he spent 3 years in ICTY detention centre], article carries that such 'mild verdict' can be interpreted in three different ways. First possibility is that ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla del Ponte did a lousy job, not being able to prove his guilt. Second option is that the Tribunal, as most of Serbs believe, is politically influenced and does not want to disturb the black-and-white image of a criminal and a victim in BiH. Third choice is that Oric is de facto innocent. Ivanji comments that if later is the case "who is then supposed to be called for responsibility for the crimes committed against Serbs in Srebrenica region? Del Ponte has no alternative to Oric. If no one is however convicted for killing, torturing and expulsion of Serb civilians in the symbolically so important Srebrenica, how could then the pro-European forces in Serbia bring Serbs to admit their own guilt and turn to the European future? ICTY does not help them in any way." Author concludes that ICTY has great impact on politics in both Serbia and BiH, adding that it is irresponsible to use youth as an alibi for the alleged war crimes, thus strengthening right-radicals, the anti-European forces.

According to other scenario, supported by experts for international relations, RS might organise referendum with an aim to join Serbia, despite to opposing of the international community, and - in case this scenario turns to reality - Serbia would face an identical situation like the one from the beginning of 1990s and this would lead to a definite rift between Serbian PM Vojislav Kostunica and Serbian President Boris Tadic , since Kostunica's DSS would be willing to accept RS while Tadic's DS would strongly oppose.
