Allocation of revenues and other economic issues

BiH Fiscal Council fails to hold session due to absence of Ministers; money from single ITA account again blocked; RS still demands fixed coefficients, CoM Chair says this impossible	BHT1 by Sanita Lisica – BiH Fiscal Council failed to hold the session scheduled for Monday, thus the public revenues collected through taxes will remain blocked on the single account of Indirect Taxation Administration (ITA). Instead of the session, Council members only held consultations because of absence of BiH and FBiH Finance Ministers Ljerka Maric and Dragan Vrankic respectively, as well as RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik. The Council was supposed to reach a final decision on coefficient for distribution of public revenues, which is a subject of a dispute between the members for months now. The Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic stated he would not schedule another session until three Finance Ministers submit in written form an agreement on future distribution coefficients. The RS Finance Minister Aleksandar Dzombic stated a key problem lies with unreliable VAT tax registrations, which lead to incorrect calculation of coefficient and unfair distribution of public revenues. Brcko District representative Sinisa Kisic stated that the problem could be solved through change of Law on VAT, which would improve the entire VAT system and collection of revenues. PINK – Terzic stated: "I have to say that it's obvious we have stances which would be very hard to reconcile. I think that RS stance of asking a fixed coefficient of 31.5% [note: under same proposal 66% would be for FBiH and 2.5% for Brcko District]... would be impossible to agree on, at least for now." Fixed coefficients are not in stipulated by the current law which sets coefficient to be based on tax payment registrations. Hayat – Terzic noted that the FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic accepted a proposal on temporary coefficient: "This meant that the FBiH and District Brcko each should abandon their 0.26 %, allocating it to the RS which would increase the RS' coefficient to 31 %. District Brcko did not accept this, as well as the RS." Blockade of the BiH ITA's single account could endanger the issue of foreign debt, says Hayat adding it would cause a number of problems, but ITA claims that there should not be any. FTV – Terzic commented that in all that money on the account exceeding 3 billion KM, the entire dispute is about allocation of only 6-7 million KM. RTRS – Dzombic stated on Monday that RS had an action plan to withstand the blockade of means for the single account for a certain period of time. Dnevni List pg 3 'Fiscal Council: RS does not respect what it agreed to' by D. P. M. In the title, the article refers to the fact that the RS budget was exceeded by KM 70 million which shows decisions of FC are not respected. Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Money on the single account blocked again', mentioned on cover by M.K.S., Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Blockade again' by R.Cengic, EuroBlic RSpg 2 'A blockade again' by D.Stanasic – also reported.
FBiH PM Hadzipasic expects new session of Fiscal Council to be held next week	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Terzic: Someone wants to prove that single account cannot function in BiH', mentioned on cover 'Allocation blocked again' by M.Kukan, Inset 'FBiH would not feel the consequences'- FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic told daily that he is certain that the agreement on allocation of revenues from ITA single account would be reached and that "it is not a matter of who would give in, but of settlement of [funds] which belong to everyone". "I even proposed for the RS to get temporary coefficient of 31%, but that after settlement [of the account] means are returned to one who received less. At this moment I can say that none of FBiH citizens would feel any consequences because the deal wasn't made," said Hadzipasic. Inset 'New session next week?'- Hadzipasic expects for new session of the BiH Fiscal Council to be held next week, but only if Finance Ministers reach the agreement among them. Coordinator of Brcko District for cooperation with the Council of Ministers, Sinisa Kisic stated changes to VAT Law were necessary, together with improvements of system.

RS Fin. Min. hopes Agreement on distribution coefficient close	Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Blockade again' by R.Cengic – Aleksandar Dzombic , RS Finance Minister, stated after Mondays' meeting of BiH Fiscal Council that: "I am of the view we have approached to an agreement on temporary fixed coefficients, according to which RS would get 31.5%, Brcko would get 2.5% and F BiH would get 66%. If this were not sufficient for Brcko, we would then search for new models, but we have not managed as yet to determine how much money belongs to whom on the basis of VAT claims and final consumption." EuroBlic RSp 2 'A blockade again' inset 'Dzombic: we can hold out, but not for long' – carries Dzombic' statement on Action plan, adding that owing to latest developments, he has asked from Kemal Causevic , ITA Director to ensure payments for foreign debt.
Daily: Tender for audit of allocation of revenues not yet published	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Money on the single account blocked again', mentioned on cover by M.K.S. , Inset 'No tender for the audit either' - Tender to select a company for an audit of allocation of revenues, based on indirect taxes in last year, has not yet been published. Audit was requested by the RS officials who claim last year the entity was damaged for dozens of millions. RS Finance Minister wrote the tender, however other members of BiH Fiscal Council demanded audit to also include collection of taxes.
OHR to decide on extension of ITA SB' Chair' mandate in the next few days, OHR Spokesperson says	Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Blockade again' Inset 'OHR still without decision on Dixon' – Daily reports OHR has not decided as yet whether mandate to Joly Dixon , ITA SB Chair would be extended, carrying statement of Oleg Milisic , OHR Spokesperson, saying "HR Christian Schwarz Schilling yesterday met with Dixon, but he will reach decision in the next few days" . Daily reminds of information it obtained that Americans oppose to extension of Dixon mandate. NN further adds that Dixon may be offered a month-extension of mandate, which he would not accept. Frane Maroevic , EC Spokesperson, expects to see OHR extend Dixon' mandate, noting: "We see no reason why Dixon should not continue working at ITA SB, but the OHR should determine whether to extend his mandate or not and we expect them to do that soon."
Daily: Croatia gave up the Peljesac Bridge and would built a Hotel instead?!	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Croatia gave up the Peljesac Bridge?!' by Josip Vricko – According to daily it seems that "those in favour" of building of Peljesac Bridge [which caused not only disputes between BiH and Croatia, but also between Croatian PM Ivo Sanader and President Stjepan Mesic ] have given up. As confirmation of this, daily stresses that all equipment has been removed from the construction area in Komarna [Peljesac]. Emphasising how expensive this project would be for Croatia [because of which the dispute between Sanader and Mesic occurred], Vricko underlines that rumours from one of BiH "coast municipalities" [referring to Neum] say that hotel would be built instead, in order to cover up current expenses. "Furthermore, there are those claiming that Croatia never seriously intended to build the Bridge, but that a Hotel was in plan all along?!" concludes Vricko .

Int. with Austrian Amb. W. Almhofer: polarisation of technical issues drives BiH further from EU; no need for Bonn powers any longer	Dnevni List pg 9 'Politisation moves you [BiH] further from EU' by Resad Dautevendic – DL runs an interview with Werner Almhofer , Austrian ambassador to BiH [reminder: Austria chaired EU for the past six months], in which the ambassador expresses his opinion that 'a lot of things which are related to the SAA agreement are of technical nature, but things which should not be tied to country's territorial organization are often politicized or regarded as being of ethnic nature' . Almhofer believes that SAA talks need to be completed by the end of this year but ratification of the agreement can take up to two years, which, he says, was how things went in case of Austria's accession to EU as well. Replying to a question about whether there exists a danger for BiH in the fact that OHR will shut down next year, the ambassador says there is no immediate danger for the stability and security in BiH. He also states that there will be a strong presence of the EUSR in BiH, as well as a broad coalition with countries which are not EU members. He also notes that there is no need for Bonn powers any longer and that the EUSR will have in place similar structures as OHR does, but these structures will have to be discussed in more detail. He ends his interview by saying that the media and the voters will play an important role during the forthcoming elections because now it will be up to local people and politicians to solve their problems. Oslobodjenje pg 5 'International Community remains in full engagement in BiH' by Fena – Daily carries interview with Ambassador Almhofer, along the same lines as in Dnevni List.

Daily's collocutor at BiH Presidency claims that it is less likely agreement on disputable issues would be reached until Wednesday, when the BiH Presidency should hold session, "unless negotiators gave up on maximalist-like demands" . The source notes: "All disputable issues, bar number of people's structure at AF has been agreed. The Croat side ultimately requests a higher number of soldiers. Serbs should be slaughtered. " Gvozdenovic had to be escorted by Srebrenica police when he was returning home, yet RS Mol still had not issue any statement with regard to the incident. The article also carries strong condemnations of sentence to Oric by PDP's Mladen Ivanic , PDP's Veselin Poljasevic , SPRS, SDS's Borislav Bojic , NGO "Narodni front", DEPOS's Radivoje Trbic and features statements of two witnesses of crimes in Bjelovac and Kravice.
VN describes Kravice massacre / carries further severe reactions against Oric's verdict	Vecernje Novosti pgs 10-11 'Blood-shedding feast on Christmas', announced on cover 'Verdict washed bloody hands' by V. Popovic and E. Radosavljevic - The article describes the Kravice massacre, which occurred on January 7 (Orthodox Christmas), 1993 near Bratunac, committed by the unit of Srebrenica wartime commander Naser Oric . ICTY' Nikiforov: Court Panel was "impressed" with Naser Oric' defence / possibility to file an appeal to verdict still under consideration	EuroBlic pg 2 'New evidence getting Oric back' by D.Vukelic - Daily notes that Naser Oric , former Commander of the Bosniak forces in Srebrenica, should thank to incompetence of the ICTY first of all for the scandalously mild sentence. Anton Nikiforov , Spokesperson of the ICTY Prosecution, has told daily that Court Panel was "impressed" with Oric' defence, adding that some witnesses of prosecution also testified in Oric' interest. He has also said Prosecution is "surprised" with mild sentence, since the Court pronounced Oric guilty for war crimes against Serbs in Srebrenica. He has also confirmed ICTY Prosecution is considering the possibility of filing an appeal against Oric' verdict, noting deadline to do that is 30 days. He reminds that Prosecution may demand new trial but only after Court's decision on possible appeal.
GS op-ed: Oric's verdict shameful, Bosniak lobby had done great job	Glas Srpske op-ed pg 2 'Justice mocked itself' by Goran Barac - The author refers to the verdict to Srebrenica wartime commander Naser Oric and assesses that such a mild sentence was scandalous and shameful and he adds there is no doubt Bosniak lobby in the Hague Tribunal had done a great job.
Daily: Is Oric's case a precedent in ICTY work and what consequences would it have?	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Oric' op-ed by Senka Kurtovic - Commenting Friday's decision of ICTY Chamber, according to which former Srebrenica Commander Naser Oric was sentenced to two years [released immediately as he spent 3 years in Tribunal's detention centre], Kurtovic mentions crimes for which he was found guilty and facts [such as his years at the time] taken into consideration by the ICTY for setting such verdict. Author notes that once euphoria caused by his release settles down, one should realistically consider consequences of this verdict. " One should wonder if Oric's case is not a precedent in current work of the ICTY and how would a constantly divided BiH public react to its verdicts in case of [Croatian General Ante] Gotovina or those before BiH Court? ," wonders Kurtovic .

DL on Oric verdict: ICTY has double, even triple standards	Dnevni List , pg 2 '(In)justice in The Hague', by Sanja Bjelica - the author ridicules the verdict pronounced to the former commander of BiH Army units in Srebrenica, Naser Oric , who had been sentenced to 2 years in prison for the crimes committed against the Serbs in the Srebrenica area, which was under his command during the war. Bjelica notes this shows the ICTY has double even triple standards because the ICTY judges view crimes differently depending who committed them. The author also notes that the Serb(ian) officials' negative reactions were to be expected, underlining the statement by the Serbian President Boris Tadic , who noted that even shoplifters get two years.
ICTY Chamber rejects expanding of indictment for General Delic; Delic not responsible for crimes in Grabovica, Uzdol and Bugojno	Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Expanding of indictment against Delic rejected', pg 4 'Delic would not answer for Grabovica, Uzdol and Bugojno' by A.Hadzic- On Monday, ICTY Chamber published its decision by which the ICTY Prosecution's demand for expanding of indictment against former BiH Army's Commander, Rasim Delic , is being rejected. This decision was passed on June 30, based on the Prosecutor's demand from May 8 requesting including new counts in the indictment which would refer to war crimes in Grabovica, Uzdol and Bugojno, and accusing Delic of direct commanding responsibility. DA carries that Delic would certainly stand trial for crimes committed by mujahedin in Maline, Bikosi committed in June 1993, as well as in July and September 1995, committed over Serb inmates in prison Kamenica. DA notes that General Enver Hadzihanovic was released of the indictment for mujahedin crimes in Maline, because ICTY concluded they were not under effective command of BiH Army at the time. Inset 'Vidovic and Whittaker preparing defence'- As DA learns Delic would be defended by Vasvija Vidovic [who defended former Srebrenica Commander Naser Oric ] and British Attorney Quincy Whittaker .

Stressing that Dodik has forgotten that "true anti-fascists" were never distinguished by their ethnicity, Kukan emphasises that in this way Dodik is "making a mockery" of all Serb victims from the WWII, who stood up against crimes committed by "chetniks".

Condemning RS officials stances on referendum and on resolution, Dizdarevic notes that since RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik came into power, RS is the key obstacle in efforts of taking the BiH from war-time logics and putting it in direction of democracy and EU integrations: "There is no political alternative in RS that would raise from interest of BiH Serbs in line with BiH and Euro-Atlantic way of thinking." Author condemns both BiH and international authorities, including High Representative , for their mild reaction regarding the referendum issue: "It seems like not even USA are authority for him [Dodik]." Editorial concludes that RS is again in political war against BiH and international institutions: "The responsible for BiH integrity and its Euro-Atlantic perspective are obliged to use all means to defend its integrity and democratic future, and thus peace."

He also writes about the verbal support HDZ BiH gave to the radio but without any concrete assistance – in that way, the party washes its hands of the radio, as does HDZ 1990 which has not done anything to help the radio either. ‘ They cannot be expecting Sulejman Tihic or Milorad Dodik to resolve the issue. ’ Inset: in a Radio HB labor union session yesterday, employees were told Canton 7 Minister of education Jago Musa is to blame for late salaries because he failed to sign the Cantonal Government grant to media outlets for which reason the funds are still frozen. Vecernji List pg 2 ‘Money shuts down Radio Herceg-Bosna’ by Zdenko Jurilj – Jurilj too criticizes Croat politicians and parties in BiH for failing to help Radio HB which ‘ as the biggest Croat electronic media outlet covering over 70% of the BiH territory, might shut down if it is not able to comply with the financial sustainability clause contained in the Law on public broadcasting in BiH ’.

Standard: After verdict against Oric, not even pro-EU oriented Serbian politicians can argue that ICTY is ‘anti-Serb political institution’	Standard ‘Serbian resentment after verdict against Oric’ by Andrej Ivanji – Commenting rather resent reactions of the Serbian and RS officials to the ICTY verdict against Srebrenica wartime commander Naser Oric [sentenced to two years and released immediately as he spent 3 years in Tribunal’s detention centre], Austrian daily Der Standard reads that general remark of Serbian nationalistic circles is that “ ICTY proved again it is not a legal, but rather an ‘anti-Serb’ political institution ”. Author stresses that after the verdict against Oric, even pro-Europe oriented politicians, like Serbian President Boris Tadic who was advocating for the cooperation with the ICTY, could not argue against it.
NGO Lawyers’ Committee for Human Rights: Sentence against Oric means only that he was not proven responsible	PINK – Serbian officials strongly condemned the verdict to former Bosniak Army commander in Srebrenica Naser Oric , who was sentenced by The Hague Tribunal to two years in prison. On the other hand, NGO Lawyers’ Committee for Human Rights Chair Biljana Kovacevic-Vuco stated that this verdict did not mean the amnesty for committed crimes, but only that it has not been proven Oric was responsible for them.

Serb NGOs condemn sentence against Naser Oric	RTRS by Tijana Velic - The RS Association of Veterans from Eastern Herzegovina deems that the verdict to former commander of Bosniak forces in Srebrenica Naser Oric is 'shameful', and another one hypocritical act of The Hague Tribunal. RS Socialist Party and Democratic Party also condemned the verdict to Oric, saying that it shows how ICTY ignores crimes committed against Serbs in BiH. Non-governmental organisation 'People's Front' stated that ICTY obviously acted in line with wishes of SDA and its leader Sulejman Tihic. Belgrade Association of Serbs from BiH strongly condemned ICTY decision to sentence Oric to only two years in prison, because such decision basically acquits 'this hardened criminal' of any responsibility for the death of hundreds of Serbs in Srebrenica and Bratunac.
