| SD commentary: withRS as de facto state,BiH does not work; inRS panic over PACEresolution  | Slobodna Dalmacija pg 10 'Republic [Srpska] is quivering' by Radoslav Dodig- Dodig repeats the contents of the PACE resolution on BiH, mentions thereactions of Bosniak, Serb and Croat politicians and then asks himself what theResolution means to BiH. He says that the Resolution is a result of ten years offruitless Dayton implementation and concludes that the problem lies inRepublika Srpska which, de facto, is a state in spite of the fact that we call it anentity. Comment goes on to say that ' RS may be defined as weak-kneed statebut, with it, BiH is a fruitless state '. Dodig then says that the panic andconsternation in RS are understandable because, 'with or without a new  |

| Austrian AmbassadorAlmhofer: PRD is alegitimate body; EUCommissioner Frattini:Completion of policereform necessary foralleviation of visaregime for BiH citizens | Constitution, the faith of RS will depend on political winds'.Hayat not stated - With regard to objections of RS Prime Minister, MiloradDodik , to the composition of Police Reform Directorate (PRD), AustrianAmbassador to BiH Werner Almhofer , in an interview to Dnevni Avaz ,commented both EU and Austria as EU presiding country have rejectedarguments from RS and added: ' we have no intention to discuss the way inwhich PRD was established anymore'. Everyone knows it happened with theassent of all three parliaments. PRD is a legitimate body, and it should do itsjob" At the same time, the European Commissioner for Justice and InternalAffairs, Franco Frattini , stressed the completion of police reform in BiH isnecessary if the country wants to be given even slight alleviation of the visaregime for its citizens. Frattini said the introduction of biometrical passport, andsigning a contract on readmission are the most important prerequisites for thisprocess. According to the member of BiH negotiating team for alleviation of visaregime, Bakir Dautbasic , Frattini should submit concrete proposals forrelaxing the visa regime for the Western Balkans countries to the Council ofEurope by 24 July. PINK by Adriana Domazet – PINK carries the EU would notconclude the Stabilisation and Association Agreement with BiH without policereform. It reminds that the deadline to agree on model for future policestructure is end of September, and comments that this reform could save 140million KM per year. Member of PRD Steering Board Sead Lisak stated policereform will enable police structure in accordance with EU standards, thusmeaning that there will be around 12,000 active policemen after the reform iscompleted. Lisak stressed that reduction of manpower will be dealt with a goodsocial plan. |
| Ambassador to BiH: Not   | Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Not only police reform is behind schedule' by M.Cubro - In a half-page interview to daily, Werner Almhofer , Austrian Ambassador to BiH, says that the reforms necessary for completing SAA talks between BiH and EU currently do not proceed at satisfactory pace, stressing it can be expected SAA would be signed after BiH makes progress in reforms. He notes that: "It is known talks on agreement proceed well, but the main problem is implementation of reforms related with the process." Responding to press question who is responsible for halt in reform implementation, including police reform as the most important one, he says: "It is not only police reform but a number of reforms that need to be implemented. EC representatives made it clear what sort of reforms those are." On referendum option, he underlines Dayton Agreement has defined BiH structure. On OHR closure, he says that decision on abolition of Bonn powers is grounded in fact that progress has been achieved in BiH to the extend where those powers are no longer needed. On PACE Resolution, he says it has been enacted on the basis of recommendations of Venice Commission, pointing on deficiencies of the current constitutional order.  |

| police Agency  | Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 3 'Milorad Dodik making a para-police' by EdinaSarac - DA comments that the RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik is not givingup the idea to preserve control over the police forces, thus deciding to speed uphis secretly prepared alternative plan: establishing para-police force troughentity laws. Namely, DA carries that several days ago the RS Governmentestablished the changes to the Law on providing security to persons andproperty and private detective sector. This Law, as DA writes, should bediscussed in urgent procedure at the RS National Assembly's session [in recordtime, notes DA] and it allows the RS Government, as a legal entity, to be afounder of a security and detective agency. According to DA, the law ensuresthe RS Government is entitled to establishing an agency with powers to takeover " a part of the certain activities and staff members of the RS InteriorMinistry ." DA further notes that if the agency that Dodik allegedly plans toestablish takes over partly the RS Mol's mandate, than in practice it wouldmean that "[agency's] staff would have police authorities, i.e. they will carry outoperations in the field." Author also notes that since the law would also allowthis detective agency to conduct wire tapping and surveillance, that is also"police authority". Author comments that Dodik intentionally "left undefined apart which refers to method, range and field of activities" the agency wouldperform, while the legislation reads this would be regulated by founder's act.Sarac writes if the RS Government is a founder, it would decide what issueswould the Agency deal with and how many armed employees would it have."Interesting part is also the one which refers to financing, where it stands thatno additional financial means are necessary to implement law", which, asSarac , explained means that Agency would be the RS budget beneficiary andwould be financed from the same budget line as the current RS Mol. He stresses that the youth should be holders ofchanges, which is not the case in BiH, since "the youth is either completelyuninterested or most extreme part of BiH society." SDP' Zoran Peric observesthat there is a link between ruling nationalists and leading people of MOI inMostar, in regard with fact no information has been released regarding latestincidents in Mostar (i.e. names of culprits). The NGO NDC engaged in promotionof inter-ethnic dialogue, is also of the view that it is not by accident that theseincidents with national symbols take place now. |

BiH Central Election Commission (CEC) must verify the lists by23 July, while candidates are obliged to submit information on their possessionswithin 15 days starting from 23 July. FBIH Government stressed that FBIH Justice Ministry will suggest measures dealing with the overcrowded FBiH penitentiaries. Hayat – The total capacity of all prisons in FBiH is 1,390 inmates out of which 1,047 accused and 343 detainees. However, on 31 May this year, total of 1,640 persons were imprisoned, out of which 1,341 are accused serving their sentences and 299 persons in detention. Namely, BiH Constitutional Court (CC) brought decisionannulling the sales contract, by which the building was given back to 'PrivrednaBank', thus annulling decisions of District Brcko Basic Court and AppellateCourt. Daily carries observation of Gostimir Popovic , political analyst,regarding rating of political parties in RS over the last 10 years, with all theirups and downs. On SNSD, he says the rating scale-up was effected by firstPremier's mandate of Milorad Dodik , which resulted in party expansion andalso prominent individuals, who have been SNSD' members since it wasfounded. Resolution is an angle ofdestruction of Dayton BiH and all European parliamentarians who voted for itsadoption have essentially supported unitarian but also secessionist forces inBiH, giving them additional force on the pace leading to fall and disappearanceof this state." The author underlines Resolution is also racist-like since it showsunhidden desire for abolition of all rights of one entire people for the sake ofother peoples in BiH. Vaskovic notes this Aryan-like document brought up inSarajevo' dark corners has backtracked ethnic divisions to 1992 and annulledall positive developments made after the Dayton Agreement onwards.   |  |

Author notes compilation of lists oftenly results in severe conflictswithin party members. The author refers to DEPOS, party consisted of a numberof minor political parties in RS and whose members are Svetlana Cenic andPero Bukejlovic , as political stillborn, which will not win any votes at theelections. The author reports that DEPOS Main Board on Thursday decided onfinal list of candidates for elections, but Nedjo Djuric , in charge of signingelection lists on behalf of DEPOS, has falsified lists and proposed himself andBukejlovic as member of BiH presidency and RS president respectively Friday.The author underlines that Djuric, Cenic and Bukejlovic have completelyprivatised this party, with an aim to attract voters of other DEPOS party co-founders to their side. | International port inNeum should beconstructed  | BHT1 By Marina Martinovic – BHT1 comments that one of the issues which has been launched during the pre-election campaign is the issue of construction of international port in Neum, reminding that the Agreement on Port Ploce with Croatia has not yet been ratified. Reporter concluded that domestic politicians, although being enthusiastic, still have neither strategy nor navy units, regulated by law. In this regard, BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac stated: "If there are economic reasons why the port [in Neum] should be constructed, we are going to do that, of course. We have not discussed the issue and it is difficult to bring such a decision without a procedure carried out by the BiH Council of Ministers." BiH Ministry of Transport and Communications states that it has not conducted any activities regarding the issue. While domestic experts claim that it is possible to construct the port and that it would be of extreme use, a Croatian expert says that there is no reason whatsoever why the port should be constructed.   |
| Association of saversexpects BiH CC willannul Law on paymentof foreign currencysavings  | Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Authorities are clearly working in favour of corruption and crime' by Dk. Omeragic - Commenting on the Law on settling of obligations on old foreign currency savings passed by the BiH Parliament, the Chair of BiH Association for protection of old foreign currency holders, Amila Omersoftic , said that this Law is identical to entity laws, which were declared unconstitutional by the BiH Constitutional Court and demands its annulment. She explained that this Law transforms savings into bonds, and that by passing the Law BiH parliament has " legalized all embezzlements with old savings on entity levels ". Omersoftic underlined that BiH Finance Minister Ljerka Maric as proponent of the Law, should be " behind bars ", but adds that Maric is the executor of the robbery "conducted by OHR power clique, such as [former PDHR] Ambassador Donald S. Hays and others from IMF and World Bank who finance corrupted and immoral BiH authorities." Stressing that pressures in this case are huge, she emphasized largest pressure on executive power comes from IMF, while OHR controls judicial authorities. Noting the Association would file lawsuits against commercial banks, BiH, FBiH, RS, Slovenia, Serbia and Montenegro, OHR and IMF, Omersoftic said: "Our stance is that UN arbitrage would have to be demanded in this case. I regret the fact that current High Representative [ Christian ] Schwarz-Schilling hasn't dedicated more attention to the issue and provoked democratic Europe to stand up in defence of its principles." Nezavisne Novine pg 7 'Savers expect annulment of Law' by G.G. – also reported. |

Delegations oftwo countries will quickly make an agreement, as soon as they receivemandate. By that time, don't you dare to get sick."Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 "Audit' by Predrag Klincov – The author urgesaudit of privatisation process in BiH, saying only 2% of BiH citizens are of theview privatisation was conducted in a fair and legal manner.
