PACE to discuss Resolution on BiH	BH Radio 1 by Elvir Bucalo, Brussels– Parliamentary Assembly of Council of Europe [PACE] is to meet today in Strasbourg and discuss a Resolution on BiH, which was already strongly objected by the Serb members the BiH parliamentary delegation to PACE. Dissatisfied with Resolution's demand to abolish of entity vote, Serb delegates have asked for rejection of the document. Bucalo underlines that if the Resolution passes PACE it would be the most concrete and most severe criticism of BiH constitutional system, since it stresses that because of two votes missing in the BiH Parliament MPs the state is to carry out elections on principles contradictory to recommendations of PACE, especially of its Human Rights' Protocol. Further on Resolution reads it is worrying that constitutional changes and Montenegrin referendum are being used for the purposes of pre-election campaigns. Thus, BiH authorities are encouraged to re-launch negotiations on constitutional changes right after elections, in order to eliminate entity vote and give precise definition of vital national interest. It was stressed that politicians should pass new constitution before next elections i.e. in 2010.

Debate on PACE Resolution on BiH

Serb members of BiH	Hayat- The Serb members of the BiH delegation at the Council of Europe's delegation in PACE	Parliamentary Assembly [PACE] have demanded that Report and draft demands Resolution to	Resolution of Monitoring Committee is excluded from session agenda or rejected [Resolutions should be discussed at Thursday]. The Resolution calls on from session, deeming	constitutional changes to be negotiated immediately after the October it negates DPA	elections, including abolishment of entity vote in the House of Representatives.
	[See BiH Media Round up June 28] "The Resolution is filed with false information, arbitrary constructions, it is biased and tendentious, and as such, the document is unacceptable. I think that these documents annul reached level of agreement and trust. One of the largest deficiencies of these documents is negation of the Dayton Agreement, as foundation on which BiH is grounded. I am of the view that possible adoption of document of this sort would produce crisisI also think that the proposed agreement suits those forces which have destroyed constitutional changes in BiH and which prefer unitary and dominationPossible adoption of this Resolution would result in serious political destabilization in BiH and regionOur request is clear: we ask for report to be reassessed and the Resolution to be withdrawn from agenda", said Goran Milojevic, a BiH delegation member. FTV - While Serb delegates deem the Resolution is anti-Dayton, others consider it would strengthen the state. The resolution notes slight progress in BiH, condemns calls on referendum, obstructions of the work of Police Reform Directorate and BIH Parliament, redefining vital national interest and veto, and urges population census to be carries out by 2010. The resolutions also calls on completing the constitutional changes by 2010. RTRS- Member of BIH delegation Tihomir Gligoric also stated that he is against the resolution stressing it calls on abolishment of entities. Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Resolution suggests abolishment

CoE draft resolution on BiH: Parties from RS and insisting on entity voting are culprits for non-adoption of amendments to BiH Constitution	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Parties from RS are culprits for non-adoption of amendments' by Sead Numanovic, Strasbourg – Article carries that draft resolution of Council of Europe Parliament on BiH marks RS parties as culprits for non-adoption of the constitutional changes, for they were insisting on entity voting, and not those who opposed them. Resolution stressed that entity voting and its political implications are main mistake of Dayton Peace Agreement [DPA], noting that entity voting provides no mechanism for overcoming the blockades in work of state institutions. It has also been stressed that Croats are discriminated by the entity voting, for they cannot use it due to the small number of Croat representatives in BiH Parliament. Inset 'War-time way of thinking in RS' – Resolution stresses that the proposed amendments to the BiH Constitution was demonstration of war-time way of thinking in the RS. RS President and PM warn PACE Resolution could cause crisis in BiH and region; BiH Presidency Chair Tihic denies Resolution has aspiration to abolish DPA	BHT1 by Lejla Redzovic-Medosevic – Following the announced draft resolution of Parliamentary Assembly of Council of Europe [PACE], RS President Dragan Cavic stated: "the text of the Resolution is destructive, abolishing not only positive achievements in BIH in last few years, joint agreement and support to the constitutional reforms, but also Dayton Peace Agreement". "These are the serious accusations that are out of place. CoE cannot abolish DPA nor does it aspire to do so. Resolution is aimed at upgrading DPA and helping "sides" in BIH from a neutral stand point based on EU standards" noted BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic . Reporter stressed that some BIH politicians acknowledge the neutrality of the Resolution and benefits if applied in BIH case but refuse to accept it. RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik said: "it is nice to universally deal with certain principles but basically, one should be realistic and realty shows that BIH can only exits on Dayton's principles. Abolishment of those principles represents a problem of reaching a new agreement that is less likely to happen". "If we all say that we are EU-oriented, which includes fulfilling certain conditions, than the standard is what is determined by CoE, EU. Declaring them to be anti-Dayton is not correct," explained Tihic. PINK- "If BIH is brought down on Dayton foundations then it no longer exists", says Cavic. He also added that resolution would cause a crisis that would not remain in the local frame. "We will have a clear response if the resolution is adopted", says Dodik. Nezavisne Glas Srpske pg 2 'Resolution according to Sarajevo recipe' inset 'Socialist Party' – The RS Socialist Party Wednesday also condemned the initiative at the PACE aimed at launching new methods of pressures mainly against RS in order to start new round of talks on constitutional changes. This is a chance to finally open a constructive dialogue with help of International Community [IC] Aim of the dialogue should be reaching one common interest, in order to find solution that would be good for all BiH citizens." SDU leader Sejfudin Tokic stated that draft resolution proves justifiability of Patriotic Block activities against constitutional changes. Nezavisne novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Serb delegates asked withdrawal of Resolution' by P.Klincov – Reacting upon draft resolution on BiH at PACE, SBiH' Safet Halilovic believes that joint statement of RS President Dragan Cavic and RS PM Milorad Dodik shows that improvement of BiH Constitution and political situation in BiH have never been their goals.

recognise parts of Declaration of Congress	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'European lobbies' by Natasa Krsman – The author refers to the draft resolution of Monitoring Committee of Council of Europe's Parliament and she comments it became clear these days why representatives of the international community have not strongly reacted on statements of politicians who had advocated for non-adoption of the constitutional changes in BiH and added 'we have not heard a condemnation by European Commission, OHR and diplomatic circle. After the rejection of the amendments at BiH Parliament, all of them only expressed their regret'. Krsman comments all of this would now be compensated in Strasbourg through the draft resolution on forthcoming constitutional changes in BiH. Krsman notes Serb delegates were surprised with the draft resolution and, while they are writing letters to explain why the resolution would be unacceptable for them, the other part of the BiH Delegation is not unprepared. 'For example, delegate Sead Avdic will be able to recognise in the Draft Resolution parts of the Declaration of the Congress of Bosniaks of North America, which he and several other experts from BIH, USA and Canada wrote in September last year. Sead Avdic is one of 16 delegates who voted against the amendments to BiH Constitution and no person from the international community had even gave him a bad look because of that', the author explains.

At the occasion, it was noted that all EU capacities would be directed towards helping BiH to acquire the EU member state status. But, reporter added, no EU capacity can help with police reform and constitutional changes, which are precondition for establishment of modern and democratic state. "Solana has insisted on continuing with the reforms regardless to the elections, with negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement, and to sign it by the end of the year. He clearly showed that he considers this issue to be strictly political and no pre-election campaign and power-fighting should distract us from SAA" said Terzic. Reporter stated that signing SAA has been brought into question since, Terzic, prior to his visit, has received a letter from Rehn in which was stressed that EC in its October report cannot recommend signing SAA without key conditions being fulfilled. "Unfortunately, I do not notice progress in the police reform, and this message is directed at RS who has obliged itself on implementing the reforms. I will be precise, those who are obstructing the police reform are actually obstructing BIH on its path to EU" said Rehn. PINK- Terzic stated that Solana gave his support for BIH to sign the Stabilisation and Association Agreement by end of 2006. In with EC Head Humphreys: It is time BiH politicians take over responsibility, progress in police reform is a must	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Now all politicians must look at the eyes of reality' by Tarik Lazovic - In an interview to daily, the head of the EC Delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys , says that the IC believes that time has become for the politicians to take over the responsibilities for the state. "The state must lead on its won, and this is possible only if institutions, politicians and civil society are ready to take over responsibility. You always have the IC in the background who could interfere, but would not take over responsibility," says Humphreys. Commenting announcements of OHR closure, he says: "There is no ideal time for OHR abolishment. You will always have unsolved issues." On the transition from the OHR to the EUSR, Humphreys explains that the EU Special Representative's mandate would not be inherited from the OHR, will be newly prepared with some limitations. Asked to comment current halt in the police reform, Humphreys said it is obvious that in the past three months little progress has been made and notes: "In principle, the action plan should be completed by the end September. I doubt that is going to happen, but we must see some progress and for the [Police Reform] Director to be enabled to work and prepare the plan." Inset 'We do not intend to change the plan' - carries Humphreys as saying that the talk son the Stabilization and Association Agreement go as planned, with some technical details and officials round in October left to be done. "That is the plan and we do not intend to change it," says EC Head but underlines progress in police reform would have to be achieved. "I would not set end of September as deadline for that, but progress must occur," concluded Humphreys.
Chief BiH negotiator with EU says SAA talks proceed well	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Talks proceed well' by SRNA – The chief BiH negotiator in BiH' SAA talks with EU, Igor Davidovic , in Banjaluka Tuesday stated that the talks on the content of the Agreement are unfolding very well for BiH. At a public debate on the benefits for citizens of BiH's membership in the EU, which was organized by the Helsinki Citizens' Parliament and the Association of Women, Davidovic said that free trade is the hardest part of the negotiations, adding the negotiating team is doing everything to protect domestic producers and products. He said that there is pressure in this phase as the talks will be halted if the police reform is not completed by September 30, noting this could serve as an ultimatum for signing the Agreement, which might happen in November. He feels that the EU will halt the accession of new members for a period of ten years, but that BiH will use this time to harmonize its legislation with that of the EU countries.
Ambassador reminds police reform a key to SAA talks	PINK by Aida Hasanbegovic -The BIH Security Minister Barisa Colak and US Ambassador to BiH, Douglas McElhaney, opened a centre for computer training for police forces in BIH built with the assistance of the US Government [USAID]. On the occasion, McElhaney reminded everyone at the opening ceremony on the importance of police reform in BiH. He stressed that criminals use the current situation in BIH in which police is not united. Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'USA and BiH Government cooperate in law enforcement' by E.Sarac - McElhany stressed that the progress in police reform is a fundamental part of establishing the rule of law and a condition to finalize the talks on the Stabilisation and Association. BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic confirmed this for daily, saying that if all other progress achieved in fields of security is followed by the police reform " BiH could get more liberal visa regime for certain categories by winter. "
OHR closure, new constitution must be	Dnevni List cover pg & pg 5 'Elections are referendum of sorts' by `by Ankica Jurisic – In an exclusive interview to DL, Dragan Covic , President of HDZ BiH, brought up the issue of OHR leaving within the next 12 months which, he thinks, means that the new Constitution must be passed right after the elections. ' This makes it very important who people are going to vote for in the upcoming elections because those elected are going to work on that Constitution' , says Covic adding 'that is what makes these elections a kind of referendum'.

mistakes in BiH, seems it suits it to always deal with same people	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Healing or euthanasia' op-ed by Gojko Beric - Commenting announced closure of OHR, Beric stresses this decision has divided "sides" in BiH, which proves that International Community had no success in solving of divisions within BiH. Beric says though the High Representative, Christian Schwarz-Schilling , is aware that " protectors and maharajas " never made anyone happy and therefore decided to " abolish himself ", no one can say what could happen in a year, especially since Kosovo issues are still " an enigma " and speculations say that Serbs have already started to arm up. Hence if violence escalates in Kosovo, it is clear that the HR would have to stay. Further on, saying that even if all goes well, a question is what could be changed to better in a year, as constitutional changes and police reform are back to beginning and mistrust among peoples is even larger. Beric stresses this state is not capable to deal with such complicated situation, in which even the HR noted that "with the current Constitution not even Germany could survive. So why the IC allows all this to happen ?" EU wants peace in BiH, while people only want decent life, and Beric underlines none is possible if the state is "chronically ill" and if "nationalistic lobby, lead by Milorad Dodik would rather sign on its euthanasia then recipe for its healing ". Concluding, Beric says that pre-election campaign is not promising the establishment of state, let alone gathering of BiH society around same principles and values and stresses: "I do not see Schwarz- Schilling getting too excited about that. Anyway, the Europe has made too many mistakes here. It seems that it suits it to deal with, more or less, the SD commentary: EU making hazardous move by leaving BiH on its own	same people," concludes Beric . Slobodna Dalmacija pg 11 mentioned on cover 'Letting patient treat himself' by Radoslav Dodig – Commenting on the PIC decision to close down OHR, Dodik reminds that the Serb politicans are 'glad the the OHR absloutism has come to an end', Bosniak ones fear that 'BiH cannot function on its own', whereas the Croats are puzzled and the only Croat party who stated a clear position was the HSP Djapic-Jurisic who said that 'OHR leaving would mean a permanent division of BiH into Serb and Bosniak parts'. Dodik finds that the PIC decision means that EU is tired of healing BiH and, although it (EU) has not found the right cure, it has made a hazardous move by letting 'the patient treat himself'. The author finds that this political experiment will fail i. e. it will result in USA eventually taking charge in BiH again.

BiH MoD drafts proposal on size and organization of future Armed Forces; Presidency to discuss it on Thu; problem in number of Croat members	BHT1 By Zorica Medjedovic – BIH Presidency is obliged to sign the future organisation of BIH Army by June 30. Most of the issues have been determined except the part on the coefficient of national representation in the BIH Armed Forces; namely the number of Croat members still hasn't been determined. Reporter noted that this is the issue of Vital National Protection of Croats. BIH Presidency Member Borislav Paravac stated: "the number of Croat members is minimal because of the census from 1991 which is not in accordance with present-day situation. Lack of new census causes many problems". According to the BIH defence Law, BIH Ministry of Defence is obliged to propose the adoption of the size and organisation of BIH Armed Forces to BIH Presidency by July 1. BIH Minister of Defence Nikola Radovanovic confirmed that this ministry has prepared the proposal hoping that it will be adopted on Thursday. Article reads that Croat Presidency member Ivo Miro Jovic ' expressed a phobia of any kind of association with Islamic countries ' and added that BiH joining OIC now or in the future is not doable because that would instill insecurity in other peoples same as the recent case of ' Ilidza Municipality joining the association of Turkish speaking municipalities '.
DA op-ed slams authorities for not exempting humanitarian organization from VAT	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Do we need VAT on donations' op-ed by Tarik Lazovic – Slamming BiH authorities for not exempting humanitarian organization from the value added tax [VAT], thus dispelling international donor that are not willing to finance BiH state apparatus. Author stresses: "17% out of all donations of numerous humanitarian organizations in BiH is much more than those 'skinny' 50 million KM for social programmes. And now these 50 million is being spent 'on lower levels of authority without control,' as BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic recently noted. To justify collecting VAT on donations by danger from tax frauds is way to funny. If such costly administrative apparatus, Financial Police, Indirect Taxation Administration [ITA], entity polices, SIPA, OSA and other are not able to control humanitarian organizations and prevent frauds, then someone has to be held responsible. information on audit of	reminds that BiH Security Minister, Barisa Colak, recently publicly noted that BiH citizenships	so far 38 people have been stripped on the citizenship. However, according to SD's information, the number is significantly bigger claiming it is in fact around 100, which public has no knowledge of. In that context, Tulic says the behaviour of the State commission for audit of citizenship is odd because it is not releasing information on who got stripped of the citizenship and more importantly who issued the citizenship in an illegal manner and whether the persons in question are still in BiH.

carries police &	weekly runs a long story which it claims is based on reports from security intelligence info on	services and police in BiH on the presence of fighters/mujahedeen and terrorist presence of Islamic	suspects from Islamic countries in BiH since the war onwards. Magazine claims suspects in BiH	without difficulty. Before the Sarajevo airport was opened, most Islamic fighters who arrived in BiH came here via Croatia. They came under the guise of humanitarian workers and, immediately upon arriving, joined Muslim combat units, among which the most famous one was El-Mujahid. Some of them were allegedly sent to BiH by the then deputy BiH Prime Minister Muhamed Cengic who was in Turkey at the time. Islamic fighters soon set up a number of training camps (follows a list of places where the camps were located).

	Magazine then gives a list of dozens of mujahedeen and terrorist suspects along with their personal information. Inset: After the IC exerted pressure on BiH authorities in 1996, a lot of mujahedeen left the country but some stayed as humanitarian workers, military instructors or as spouses of BiH nationals. Inset: Hasan Cengic and some other SDA members were in charge of 'indoctrination' of local Muslim population. A video recording exists of Alija Izetbegovic (late BiH & SDA president) kissing the commander of El-Mujahid unit which allegedly committed atrocities against Croat population.
