Serb members at BiH delegation at PACE demand withdrawal of Resolution from PACE session or its rejection	RTRS - The Serb members of the BiH delegation at the Council of Europe's Parliamentary Assembly (PACE) have demanded that Report and draft Resolution of Monitoring Committee is excluded from session agenda or rejected. In a statement to RTRS, Goran Milojevic, team member, says: "Report and Resolution... is brimming with false information, arbitrary constructions, biased, tendentious information and as such, those documents are not acceptable... One of the largest deficiency of these documents is negation of Dayton Agreement, as foundation on which BiH is grounded. I am of the view possible adoption of document of this sort would produce crisis... Possible adoption of this CoE' Resolution would result in serious political destabilization in BiH and region...Colleagues Ljiljana Milicevic, Tihomir Gligoric and myself... have demanded [officially] this Document be withdrawn from agenda."

BiH Fiscal Council fails to reach agreement on allocation of public revenues; Council and ITA SB to hold session on Monday	BHT1 by Zorica Medjedovic – Members of the BiH Fiscal Council on Tuesday in Banjaluka failed to reach an agreement on the coefficients for allocation of revenues from the Indirect Taxation Administration’s single account. This issue is to be again discussed at session of the Fiscal Council scheduled for Monday, July 3 in Sarajevo. Since this time the Council failed to reach an agreement on the issue, session of the ITA’s Steering Board has been rescheduled for Monday as well. Meanwhile, the allocation of revenues will continue as before until new solution. “We did not manage to reach an agreement on final coefficients for the month of July, since [FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet] Hadzipasic was not present, ant the representatives of the FBiH Government were not able to state his stance aloud and clear”, stated BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic. Representatives of the RS Government deem that the previous way of the allocation of revenues is ‘not reliable’, mainly because it does not treat all participants in a distribution in the same way; they suggest that a ‘more stable’ solution to this problem should be found, in order to avoid the same dilemmas each and every month. “I must say that the agreement we have reached sometime in April is about to expire, and it is still not clear what is going to happen next. But we are determined to discuss it once again on Monday, and try to disable the blockade”, stated RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik. Increased spending of budget funds was also discussed at the BiH Fiscal Council’s session in Banjaluka. “We have certain problems when it comes to cantonal levels, where we don’t have such control and where certain increases in spending might occur”, admitted FBiH Minister of Finance Dragan Vrankic. Dnevni Avaz pg 10 ‘No agreement on allocation of money from single account’ – Head of IMF Mission Dimitri Demekas stated: “It is important to adopt laws which would allow banking system supervision transfers to the state level.” Nezavisne novine cover pg splash and pg 4 ‘There would be no change to public spending’ by D. Risojevic – IMF warned there should be no change to public spending at BiH Fiscal Council’s session. PINK, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 10 ‘No agreement on allocation of money from single account’, EuroBlic pg RS3 ‘Distribution in old manner, final decision on July 3’ by Mirna Soja, Glas Srpske pg 6 ‘Without agreement on coefficients’ by Lj. BiH Fiscal Council passes draft Law on FC, submits it to Parliament in urgent procedure; RS PM Dodik opposes transfer of banking supervision to state authority	RTRS – BiH Fiscal Council adopted the draft Law on Fiscal Council which still needs to be approved by the Brcko District authorities. Still, the proposal will be forwarded to BiH Parliament Assembly in an urgent procedure. The Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic expects the draft to be in parliamentary procedure within 10 days, and stressed it is necessary to adopt it before the elections in order to take over the authorities in fiscal sector from International Monetary Fund. The representatives of IMF approved the draft law on Fiscal Council. Head of IMF Delegation in BiH Dimitri Demekas warned that it is necessary to preserve fiscal discipline and avoid over-spending of budgets. RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik stated that RS Government doesn’t intent to discuss possible budget re-balance until the elections. IMF recommends the unification of banking supervision. However, this issue doesn’t have the same support in all entities. Regarding this issue, Dodik stated that it could be solved within current constitutional framework and without further transfer of entity authorities to state level. PINK, Hayat, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 inset ‘Dodik: There is no transfer of authorities from entities’ – reported.

FBiH HoR passes Law on Rights of Elected Officials; law passed almost unanimously and MPs to earn from 1,300 to 1,700	BHT1 by Marina Boskovic – FBiH House of Representatives on Tuesday adopted the Law on the Rights of Elected Officials. According to BHT reporter, after negative public reaction, representatives decided not to significantly increase their benefits. The Law was adopted almost unanimously; representatives will receive between 1,300 and 1,700 KM of monthly salary, but the food allowance will be only 10, instead of 30 KM per day. “The food allowance is two percent of the average salary in FBiH, and it is the same for all persons employed in FBiH. All other rights of elected officials have remained on a same level”, explained Chair of the FBiH HoR’s Administrative Commission Ismet Briga. BHT reporter underlined that elected FBiH officials with more than five years of service will receive salary for 12 months after their office expires. The Law formally revokes the function of advisers within FBiH Government members’ cabinets; however – according to BHT reporter – they will be able to freely charge for their advices as personal advisors to MPs. “It means that I can hire one of my relatives, friends or acquaintances as an advisor. I think that it’s absolutely inadequate, especially since we are already spending more than 60 percent of money on a too complicated administration”, commented SDP’s Damir Masic. “We are the representatives of citizens, and it is normal that we cannot be experts in every field. This law enables us to hire an advisor for a certain field of work”, explained SDA’s Semsudin Mehmedovic. Dnevni List, pg 4 ‘Officials getting inappropriate benefits’, by Mensud Zorlak – DL notes that by enacting the law, the officials have secured good financial cover for them. Hayat, PINK, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 ‘Highest starting salary for officials 1,700 KM’ by A.Hadziarapovic, Oslobodjenje pg 2 ‘Voting on Law on Pardoning postponed’ by A.Terzic, Vecernji List, pg 2 ‘Salaries – even mandate has expired’, by Eldina Medunjanin, Nezavisne novine pg 4 ‘Salaries of delegates would not be “significantly increased”’ by R. BiH Presidency decides on launching negotiations to sign CEFTA	BHT1 by Sanita Lisica-Biberovic – At the session on Tuesday, the BiH Presidency decided to launch negotiations on signing the Central Europe Free Trade Agreement [CEFTA]. The first round of negotiations has already started in Brussels on Tuesday; CEFTA should become operative as of January 2007, and it would replace existing bilateral and multilateral free trade agreements in a region. Along Croatia, Macedonia, Romania and Bulgaria, CEFTA should soon include BiH, Albania, Serbia, Montenegro, Moldavia and United Nations Mission in Kosovo. “The very subject of the agreement will be broadened, it will not be only free trade. The agreement will include free foreign investments, abolition of technical obstacles that occur so often during the implementation of free trade agreements, protection of intellectual ownership and better regulated inter-state turnover of goods”, explained Slobodan Ecimovic, Deputy BiH Minister of Foreign Trade and Economic Relations. But according to BHT reporter, BiH – unlike Croatia and Serbia – is totally unprepared for this Agreement. “I think this is an opportunity for us to use our comparative advantages, and those comparative advantages could be activated through direct foreign investments”, stated BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac. PINK, Hayat, RTRS, Nezavisne novine pg 3 ‘Stance on lawsuit against SiCG divided in front of Tadic’ by N. And they warned that due to the VAT all such projects in 2006 might be stopped. Canada and USA are the major donors for de-mining projects. BHT reports the HR said EU should strengthen its presence in BiH through the Office of the EU Special Representative following the OHR closure. “There is no exit strategy of Europe, and there is no downsizing of the BiH’s European orientation. It is an important step toward balance we have to take now: on one side we are closing, but on the other we are opening the European role”, stated the HR. However, many analysts find it hard to believe the implementation of police and constitutional reform, and cooperation with the ICTY will be at the satisfying level in the moment of OHR closure. The HR admitted there would always be reasons not to change things, but underlined they are unavoidable in BiH. “The responsibility undoubtedly lies on BiH political leaders, but I have no doubt that EU Special Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling will be very active in persuading the most important reforms must be finally carried out”, concluded Christine Gallach, Spokesperson of the EU High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy Javier Solana. RTRS- According to RTRS, the Council believe BiH is still not ready to sign the Stabilisation and Association Agreement. In this light, progress in police reform... is of essence.” Rehn is to meeting the BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic today [Wednesday] to discuss the reforms in BiH, in which regard he also notes importance of the cooperation with the ICTY, reforms of public broadcasting service and public administration. Asked to comment numerous recent comparisons of situation in BiH in 1992 and now, Rehn says: “BiH lately marks very little progress, and I am especially worried about cooperation with the ICTY and police reform... I strongly call on the RS to constructively work on the police reform, having in mind authorities of the state in this field.” Underlining that the BiH Constitution doesn’t allow the referendum for succession, Rehn says that the recent decision to close down the OHR at end of June 2007 shows that BiH “is in the right way”. “It is clear though that BiH will not be left alone. Strengthen Office of the EU Special Representatives [EUSR] represents comprehensive engagement of the Union following the OHR closure... Milojevic said Serb members of the Delegation would do everything to dispute the adoption of the Resolution since the Resolution contains 'complete nonsense favourable for opponents of constitutional changes that have been agreed upon' . Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'Overthrowing of the Dayton is dangerous for BiH' by P. Klincov Inset 'Gligoric: there is no consent for the Resolution in BiH' – Member of BiH Delegation Tihomir Gligoric also announced Serb members of the Delegation would file a note of protest on Draft Resolution because they assess it as tendentious and anti-Dayton and added: 'We cannot accept the Resolution because it is anti-Dayton like and it is a product of lobbying of F BiH politicians, which would cause political de-stabilisation in BiH. We do not need such help from the Council of Europe' .

They stressed this Resolution, if adopted by CoE Parliament on Wednesday, is going to represent a direct support to BiH political forces, which desire unitary state with power of Bosniak people over the others. Dodik and Cavic claim a part of the Resolution represents a direct recommendation for abolishment of Dayton Peace Agreement and basic entity constitutive order. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Such Resolution is questioning BiH as well' by Srna – "...In such circumstances demand of every constituent people for deciding on its own on their own future comes as inevitable reality," reads the statement. Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Council of Europe to abolish the Dayton?!' by Z. Humphreys stressed this was a key year for the future of BiH, especially in light of the announced OHR closure in 2007. "This means the politicians, who establish the government after the election, will have to make decisions with full responsibility and without interventions by the HR" , Humphreys said. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Law on local self-governance necessary' by A.Mu. – also reported.
DL reveals that Europe and US are cutting OHR funding because of reform failures	Dnevni List pg 5 mentioned on front 'Europe and America cut OHR financing' by Zvonimir Jukic – DL reveals that the reason for last week's decision by PIC to shut down OHR in 2007 is the American reluctance to continue funding 'the costly OHR administration' because, among other things, BiH politicians have failed to implement the relevant reforms, including constitutional changes, despite their promises to the US Secretary of State during their visit to Washington. Jukic finds that EU will now remain the only relevant international factor in BiH which, he says, is the reason EU did not insist on the implementation of constitutional changes at the time US was in charge of the process.

DL op-ed: BiH politicians delaying reforms because they cannot survive if rule of law prevails	Dnevni List pg 2 'European Union too far' op-ed by Resad Dautefendic – The commentator reminds of the 22 June meeting in Sarajevo between Reinhard Priebe , head of EU enlargement directorate, Adnan Terzic , BiH CoM Chair, and entity Prime Ministers Ahmet Hadzipasic and Milorad Dodik in which Priebe conveyed the message from Ollie Rehn , EU enlargement commissioner, that reforms must be implemented in full in order for BiH to sign the SAA. The author continues that Rehn brought up all the fields of reforms: PBS, public administration, cooperation with the ICTY and creation of a single economic space, which means nothing has been done so far. The reason for that, according to DL, is Dodik and other high RS officials do not want either BiH or EU and are delaying the reforms as part of their nationalistic election campaign. Also, "defenders' of Croat and Bosniak interests know that, if the country joins the EU, that would mean a rule of law and order and their time is over – finds Dautefendic .
Novi Reporter supportive of end of OHR mandate	Novi Reporter pgs 12-13 'The end of 1001 nights' by Igor Gajic – The author starts the article by saying that the black sky is above politicians in F BiH because not only that HR to BiH, Christian Schwarz Schilling , failed to punish RS politicians over referendum options and police reform, but also messages were sent out that OHR will withdraw. He adds that F BiH "should live with the facts and without ghosts coming out from bottles at every single rubbing by Bosniak politicians accompanied with fulfilment of their wishes inspired with stories from 1001 Sheherzad's nights." He also stresses that Haris Silajdzic's policy of re-setting internal structure of BiH (involving his full control over BiH) loses sense after HR leaves. According to author, although F BiH parties and NGO's still claim OHR is necessary in BiH for the upcoming 10 years, the truth is that its existence is even expensive for the period of upcoming 10 months, "since every single day of its existence means new expenses over lives of BiH citizens. Every day of OHR's presence means allocation of enormous salaries to third-class clerks who did not deserve it by anything."

Cavic and German Ambassador jointly assessed BiH would soon find a solution to fulfilling conditions for signing a Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the EU. Cavic reiterated that the decision to end the mission of OHR by June next year is a strategically important because it is high time to shift the responsibility for the future of the country to BiH institutions. They also discussed the political situation in BiH and the region. Dodik and German Ambassador agreed BiH's admission into the EU is the only perspective for BiH in the future, exchanging opinions on the reformatory processes on the BiH European road. Late Croatian and Serbian Presidents Franjo Tudjman and Slobodan Milosevic , respectively, allegedly made a plan for division of BiH in Karadjordjevo, Serbia. VL: SDP seriously running for Croat member of BiH Presidency	Vecernji List , pg 4 'SDP against Croat parties for Croats' offices', by Zoran Kresic – the article in a way warns that if the October elections were held today, it would be most probably SDP's Zeljko Komsic , who would be elected the Croat member of BiH Presidency owing to the fragmented Croat political scene since the 'genuine' Croat parties will nominate 3 candidates ( Ivo Miro Jovic (HDZ BiH), Bozo Ljubic (HDZ 1990) and Zvonko Jurisic (HSP Djapic-Jurisic)), which means the Croats' votes would be dispersed among the latter troika. VL insists that the SDP is seriously running for the Croat office in the BiH Presidency only, since the SDP's candidates for the Bosniak member of Presidency, as VL believes, are not prominent figures ( Milenko Bijedic and Jasmin Imamovic ), which in turn means the SDP voters will opt for Komsic.

Gagula – In a page-long interview to daily, SDA Main Board member Hasan Cengic comments the split between Sulejman Tihic and Adnan Terzic by saying they have different opinions on some operative and personnel issues but not on crucial issues. Asked to comment the fact some domestic politicians welcomed the decision on shutting down OHR, Davidson said it would be wrong to think the international community would not monitor the development of events in BiH only because the High Representative was to leave and he added: 'Transformation of OHR into EUSR shows the international community is still interested and concerned for what might happen in BiH in future'.

Tihic's announcement of the possibility that BiH might join the Organization of Islamic Conference	Dnevni List pg 9 'After Constitution is adopted we will become an Islamic state' by Dario Pusic – DL writes that the recent statement by BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic about BiH possibly becoming a member of the Organization of Islamic Conference after the October elections has caused different reactions from Croat and Serb politicians. Vinko Zoric of HDZ 1990 said that there is a possibility that BiH will become an Islamic state if the six parties which proposed the constitutional amendments secure their adoption. Miljenko Brkic of HNZ said any such decision must be made by consensus and reflect the sentiments of all BiH citizens. Nikola Spiric of SNSD, in a somewhat vague statement to DL, said that 'any kind of membership that can bring benefit is welcome but premature activities are sometimes not good'.

The author insists that Croats too are built 'in the foundations' of the country, which is something that needs to be pointed out to everyone in BiH.
