Terrorism suspect bargains with Prosecution, trial to other three suspects starts on 20 July	Hayat - At the status conference before the BiH Court it was confirmed that Amir Bajric accused of purchase of explosive devices for a purpose of carrying out terrorist acts has made a deal with the BiH Prosecutor's Office pleading guilty in exchange for eight months of prison sentence. However, according to NTV Hayat, the very fact that an indicted person has come to an agreement with the Prosecutor's Office does not guarantee that the Court will accept that agreement; the final decision is expected on Tuesday. Prosecutor Ahmet Halebic confirmed that the Prosecutor's Office is negotiating with yet another one indicted person, Senad Hasanovic. The trial in a case against suspected terrorists Mirsad Bektasevic, Abdulkadir Cesur and Bajro Ikanovic will commence on July 20 [Three of them were arrested on late October 2005 by police in Sarajevo, under suspicion of planning of terrorist attacks in BiH and abroad; Bektasevic and Cesur were allegedly planning suicide attack for which Bajric was ensuring explosive]. A Serb Veterans Association of Zvornik, which organized the protest, stressed that the blockade was just a warning to the RS Government and BiH Council of Ministers to stop the arresting and announced that it was going to undertake more radical steps if their requests do not be met. "They promised that they were going to stop doing that but still, persons are being taken. Everyone, including the BiH Justice Minister, Slobodan Kovac, told us that we were right", said the Chair of the Association, Mile Vukadinovic. Later on, Kovac met with the highest BiH Prosecution and Court officials, as well as FBiH and RS Supreme Court and Prosecution representatives and entity Justice Ministries' officials. As the press release, issued by the Justice Ministry reads, courts should get in charge of war crime cases according to their locality. SDA's Sadovic requests RS Government to prepare and submit to RSNA the report on Avdo Palic	Hayat- Head of the SDA Caucus in the RS National Assembly Tarik Sadovic requested the RS Government to prepare and forward to the RSNA the report on activities towards disclosing the truth on fate of BiH Army colonel Avdo Palic, who went missing during the war in Zepa in 1995, as well as cases concerning the disappearance of hundreds of Bosniaks and Croats. Sadovic said on Monday that the Human Rights Chamber reached a number of decisions requesting RS structures to establish the fate of hundreds of Bosniaks and Croats gone missing during the war in territory controlled by the RS Army. "To my knowledge not a single of these decisions has been fully implemented", Sadovic said. He reminded that he proposed to the RS Government to prepare the report and forward it to the RS National Assembly for the last session, but that the RS Prime Minister only gave a vague response. Patriot outlines fate of BH Army Colonel Palic, says his murder was severe war crime stressing perpetrators must be found	Patriot cover pg splash 'Mladic and Palic', pgs 13-15 'Crime without punishment' by Slobodan Vaskovic – Weekly carries a photo taken on 26 July 1995 at Boksanica, showing General Ratko Mladic shaking hands with BiH Army Colonel General Avdo Palic, who disappeared in Zepa July 1995. The Commission formed to investigate the faith of Palic neither established exact date when he disappeared, nor clarified circumstances under which he was killed. Furthermore, the Commission has not yet managed to discover where Palic' mortal remains are buried. Weekly's source says: "we did not establish that, but we proved that Palic was not captured in the UNPROFOR base, as suggested earlier by numerous sources". According to him, Palic "was alone and unarmed" when he was arrested by Serb soldiers. The Commission allegedly further established that Palic was held in an apartment belonging to military intelligence officer near Rogatica, and in early August he was transferred to a prison in Bijeljina. He was allegedly kept there until the night between 4th and 5th of September 1995, when he was taken over to Han Pijesak by RS Army officer, Dragomir Pecanac. Magazine notes the arrest and murder of Palic is a severe war crime and that perpetrators must be found. Author adds it is clear the arrest of Palic was done under direct orders of Mladic, or at least that he knew all about it. "SIPA, the agency intensively dealing with this case according to our findings, should reveal all these details. It is certain that Dragomir Pecanac knows the most about this case and that the key to solving this mystery is in his hands."

Interpol still have not submitted information on ex RS PM Klickovic's arrest	Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Still no Interpol's information' by E.K. – The BiH Justice Ministry has not yet received the information from the Interpol on the arrest of former RS Prime Minister Gojko Klickovic carried out last Thursday in Belgrade. Klickovic, suspected for abuse of position, falsifying of documents and war crimes, currently waits in detention in Belgrade to be extradited to BiH. Serbian authorities have stated that they have informed BiH authorities about the arrest, but BiH Justice Minister Slobodan Kovac explained that they couldn't do anything without Interpol information. "When the Interpol informs us we then ask BiH Court whether it insists on extradition, and if the answer is affirmative we ask for certain documents to be submitted," said Kovac, and told the author to talk to his Deputy Nikola Regoja, who is on vacation. Minister Kovac said that procedure has to be finished in 40 days and he expects no problems with extradition, since Klickovic doesn't have double citizenship. Daily concludes with a comment that all what remains is for someone to ask for extradition of this man, who is on the run since 1998 and whose guarantee for releasing from jail was given by former RS Justice Minister Momcilo Mandic, paying with Privredna Banka East Sarajevo's finances, which is presented in the indictment against him, where stands that he used KM150 thousand for this purpose. Dnevni Avaz pg 12 'BiH awaits for Interpol confirmation' by N.Diklic also reported.
Defence attorney of Tomic says IC cares much about Klickovic's arrest and possible answers he may give before the BiH judiciary	Vecernje Novosti pg 20 'A short-cut to Radovan' by V.Mitric – In regard to the last week's arrest of Gojko Klickovic in Belgrade his defence attorney Dusko Tomic has stated upon his arrival from Belgrade Monday that his client's arrest has a wider political and diplomatic context, adding the indications "he may get Serbian citizenship" for which he had filed a motion five years ago are excluded. According to Tomic, it is absolutely clear that international community cares much about Klickovic's arrest and answers he may give before BiH judiciary. Daily notes it is indisputable that Klickovic represents a short-cut to his war-time boss Radovan Karadzic, which is in relation with – according to daily – recent media reports on RS intrusion into FRY monetary system (money believed to be used for financing hide-out of war crime suspects). Daily notes that officials from Sarajevo and Banja Luka share the view the arrest of Klickovic in Belgrade represents one of the most serious signals Serbian authority is truly ready to meet all requirements on the path to "Partnership for Peace".
S. Kljucic testifies in trial of Prlic et al. in the Hague	Vecernji List cover splash pg 3 'Stjepan Kljucic refused to testify for prosecution!' by Zoran Kresic – VL carries that Stjepan Kljucic, (former HDZ BiH President and BiH Presidency member) testified in the Hague yesterday in the trial of six former leaders of Herceg-Bosna after receiving a subpoena following his initial refusal to testify. Prosecutor also asked Kljucic about former HDZ BiH President Davor Perinovic who Kljucic said was a radical and was after a greater Croatia. Kljucic testimony in the Hague is supposed to take three days. Dnevni Avaz pg 11 'Kljucic: Tudjman told mi nothing about Karadjordjevo' by Sense
Mandic's lawyer Tomic says he will press charges against T. Robinson on several accounts	Dnevni List pg 5 'Criminal charges to be filed in US due to immunity' by Erna Mackic – DL carries that Momcilo Mandic's lawyer Dusko Tomic has announced he will press charges against Toby Robinson, recently appointed as liquidator of PB East Sarajevo by the High Representative. The charges, he says, will be on several accounts: closing down transfer accounts of the banks she has managed which Tomic says is illegal in our country, working as a bank liquidator despite the fact that only BiH nationals can be employed in such positions and, lastly, for failing to pay income tax although she has had two well paid positions in BiH over the past five years. He announced he would request information on her salary from the High Representative He added that, although Robinson has immunity in BiH, charges can be filed in USA.

Patriot says HR defending PB ES liquidator Robinson before public judgement	Patriot pgs 4-5 'Pressures' by not signed - Toby Robinson, until recently temporary administrator of Privredna banka East Sarajevo (PB ES), has found herself "a lawyer" to publicly defend her following last week's report in Patriot, which read that Momcilo Mandic, through his defense attorney Dusko Tomic, had decided to file a lawsuit against her before the American Federal Court on account of crime and criminal activities she had allegedly committed in PB ES. Weekly ironically this defence is being led "no less than" the HR to BiH, Christian Schwarz-Schilling, who has tried to do that last Thursday when he appointed her for the liquidator of PB ES and commended her work. Weekly says Robinson has done wrong, allegedly proven by the criminal charges against her submitted by the SIPA to the BiH Prosecutor's. Commenting the OHR press release on Robinson appointment which says that "in case the court determines the newspaper articles quoting the defense attorney of Mr. Mandic are true, that would be an attempt of libel and intimidation of witnesses, which is extremely serious and which should be dealt with by the responsible bodies", magazine notes that it did not come across Schwarz-Schilling mind to warn Robinson about the same thing. According to weekly, the statement issued by the OHR can also be understood as a pressure on the media which in the previous period dealt with this case and in doing so they were not afraid to publish accusations against Toby Robinson, no matter how powerful she might be. If Schwarz-Schilling really intended to influence the media by disabling them to write about this case, then it is horrible, weekly adds expressing hope the OHR statement has after all been just poorly designed.
Serbian PM to ask British PM to assist in locating/apprehending Ratko Mladic	EuroBlic pgs 2-3 'American and British agents are already searching after Mladic in Serbia' by I. Cvetkovic- N. Calukovic - Daily learns from sources close to the Serbian Government that a small number of British and American agents are already in Serbia in search after Ratko Mladic. Daily's source did not want to give the exact number of those, noting they are collaborating with the local security agencies and maintaining constant contact with Serbian BIA (Security Intelligence Agency) and Military Security Agency. Daily learns that today's meeting of Serbian Premier Vojislav Kostunica and his British counterpart Tony Blair will focus on the issue of increased engagement of the British Intelligence service in locating and apprehending Mladic. Daily's source notes Kostunica will ask for an increased presence of British agents in the action of arrest from Blair.
G17 Plus' Dinkic: action plan for arresting Mladic similar to Croatian for arresting of Gotovina	Oslobodjenje pg 7 'We will be arresting Mladic as Croats did Gotovina' by Blic- Daily carries statement of Vice-President of Serbian Party G17 Plus, Mladjan Dinkic [published in Blic on Monday, June 26] where he said that Serbian PM Vojislav Kostunica would present the action plan for establishment of full cooperation with the ICTY, to EU officials, somewhere in mid July. Talking at the session of G17 Plus Main Board, Dinkic said that "action plan" would be similar to Croatian plan for arresting of General Ante Gotovina, and added that Serbia, USA and the EU would be working together on extradition of Ratko Mladic. Dinkic said Kostunica has invited representatives "of all security structures" to the next session of Serbian Government, stressing Ministers from this party "would ask numerous questions" on ICTY cooperation. He added that he supports the plan of PM Kostunica to include foreign intelligence services into the search for Mladic, adding that all domestic services also have to work together on the issue, which depends on President Boris Tadic, who is a Commander in Chief. Dnevni Avaz pg 19 'Dinkic: Arresting of Mladic depends on Tadic as well' by Agencies - also covered.

Oslobodjenje: New delays in inaugurating Sarajevo Commission, this composition would most probably not do anything	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Terzic hasn't signed the decision' by A.Terzic - Inaugural session of the Commission for Sufferings of Serbs, Croats, Bosniaks, Jews and Others in Sarajevo cannot be held, due to the fact that Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic hasn't signed the decision on appointment of the Commission. Daily comments this hasn't been done even though the BiH Office for Legislature in coordination with BiH Human Rights and Refugee Ministry has submitted the text of the decision on June 20, and all members were appointed on June 15. Chair of the Commission, Ivica Marinovic , told daily that the session would be scheduled after Terzic signs the decision: "Until the procedure is finished we cannot act further." Daily comments that in August the state officials are mainly at holidays and that in September "most probably" there would not be "some serious" action in this regard due to the upcoming elections. Thus, comments the author, "it is little probable that there would be anything of this Commission in this composition. It is left to be seen how the Serb MPs in the BiH Parliament would react to this delay in appointing Commission."
