	BH Radio 1 by Samir Huseinovic – Meeting of Peace Implementation Council' Political Directors continues in Sarajevo and today participants should discuss OHR transformation	the future role of the OHR i.e. transition and abolishment of Bonn Powers and and reforms	BiH's EU Integrations. Special attention would be dedicated to the key ongoing reforms which BiH has to carry out in order to associate with the EU. Deputy Balkans Coordinator of Foreign and Commonwealth Office Angus Lapsley, who represents the UK Government, stated the time has come for more normal establishment and model of political action in which BiH institutions would take over the responsibility for events in the country. "We see the future of BiH in the Europethe doors of the EU are opened for you and we offer ourselves as the partners to assist you on that way," said Lapsley. British representatives stressed that decision on future role of the International Community doesn't mean its engagement would cease, but that would change. "That transformation is a positive signal and the more your country get closer to the EU and NATO, the faster it would go," stated British representatives.

CoM Chair Terzic: OHR	SRNA- The BiH Council of Ministers Chair, Adnan Terzic, said today that BiH

until SAA signed and	Association Agreement with the EU, and in the process of the constitutional const. reform carried	reform. Addressing the PIC meeting being held in Sarajevo, Terzic noted out	departure of the OHR should not be tied to dates but to processes. "Once we sign the SAA, it will mean that we have proved to the European Commission the state has capacity and political will to meet assumed obligations," Terzic told SRNA after addressing the PIC. He added that after that, BiH will not need the OHR in its present capacity and then its transition could begin.

PIC session /	OHR transformation
PIC meeting commences in Sarajevo ; media expect agreement on OHR transformation	FTV- The Political Directors of the Peace Implementation Council [PIC] on Thursday in Sarajevo commenced a two-day session. The BiH delegation, led by the BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic and Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic , attend this meeting as well. Participants will discuss the reform processes in BiH; the second part of the PIC meeting will focus on the transition from peace implementation to Euro-Atlantic integration. BHT1- The EU delegation led by the Director of the ECs General Directorate for Enlargement Reinhard Priebe also attends the session. Dnevni List , pg 2 'Decision of transformation of OHR today?', by D. P. Mandic – announces start of PIC Political Directors session, stressing that many BiH and international officials stated on Thursday that the PIC should be taking decision on status of the OHR and IC in BiH, which should transform into the EUSR during next year. Vecernji List pg 21 'Schilling gradually losing pharaoh's powers' by Dejan Jazvic – VL writes that PIC plans to reduce the powers of HR to BiH. Over the past several years, HRs have removed from office more than 250 officials for which reason the HR has been called a maharaja or a pharaoh in local and international media. RHB , Hayat, RTRS , Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'PIC discussing role of OHR and international community' by V. Popovic and R. Cengic – also reported.

DA carries that PIC members still have different stances about this issue and on the way this transformation could be made. DA notes some in PIC believe OHR transformation should be related to signing of Stabilization and Association Agreement, or even with the process of constitutional changes. Chair of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic stressed that withdrawal of the High Representative and abolishment of Bonn Powers, at this time, could lead to blockade of BiH Institutions and in reforms. PIC meeting is attended by EC's Reinhard Priebe , and Robert Cooper , Deputy to the EU High Representative for Foreign Policy Javier Solana. AS DA carries, the most probable model of OHR's transformation is transition into the EUSR, in which case the authority over the mission would be in Solana's hands [daily adds this was probably a reason why Cooper attended the session]. PM on OHR transition; Rycfrot: IC engagement would not cease, but change	Prime Minister Milorad Dodik . Among other things, they have discussed the transition of the OHR. Dodik and Rycroft believe that BiH institutions should make decisions on BiH issues and that OHR status might be changed after the PIC meeting. "We hope that important decisions regarding the international community engagement in BiH would be brought at this meeting. This does not mean that the engagement would stop but would be changed", said Rycroft. Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'PIC discussing role of OHR and international community' by V. Popovic and R. 	announcements on abolishment of OHR and less direct influence of International Community onto BiH political life, editorial reads that claims coming from the RS that "BiH authorities should take over responsibility for leading the country " are correct, adding though BiH would not have been able to make any significant progress without authorities of OHR. Author notes:
	"There would not have been the most important reforms of intelligence sector, defence, tax administration, as well as main laws on state insignia without OHR.
	What the lack of international pressure means is best illustrated by the police reform. If we add to it, no matter how (i)rational it could be, the pre-elections story of referendum and tremors in the region, there are additional reasons for calling OHR to stay some more time." Recalling the stance of Woodrow Wilson Centre [WWC] Director Martin Sletzinger from Washington, who commented that HR should stop talking about abolishing OHR in 2007, editorial concludes that due to the fact that one of the WWC main figures is US State Secretary Condoleezza Rice this could easily be the US stance as well.

Police and defence reforms

UK Ambassador RTRS by Biljana Knezevic - UK Ambassador to BiH, Matthew Rycroft and UK Rycroft meets RS Coordinator for the Balkans, Angus Lesley,on Thursday met the RS officials to officials; RS PM Dodik discuss reforms and cooperation with the ICTY. Reporter commented three believes that new talks obstacles on the BiH way to EU: reforms of higher education, public on police reform should broadcasting service and police. RS President Dragan Cavic and RS Prime be organized Minster Milorad Dodik informed UK officials that 3 European principles regarding police reform [exclusive state competency for police legislation and budgetary issues, police areas designed on the basis of technical criteria, and a depoliticised system] are not disputable but the issue of respecting the Agreement on police reform. Reporter commented that the police reform might be returned from expert to political level. "We believe that this is waste of time. If Police Reform Directorate Steering Board continues to work in this capacity, we will not be able to respect deadlines that are condition to sign SAA at the end of the year", said Igor Radojicic, RSNA Speaker. "Police reform is not technical issue and it is not issue of any group of experts... This is also not just issue of politicians but of parliaments", said Stanislav Cadjo, RS Minister of Interior. "We should bring the process of police reform to the level of the Agreement on Police Reform as it was defined in the opinion of the RS National Assembly" said Cadjo. "It is of crucial importance that the RS finds model, which would incorporate three European principles, as I am sure it would", said Rycroft. RS officials also expressed determination to full cooperation with the ICTY. BHT1 – PM Dodik proposed new talks, in order to unblock the issue of police reform. Radojicic deems that the police reform process in BiH "is not going in the right direction" because only one side is actually working in the PRD. "That is an unilateral process, in which FBiH side is preparing a model. And if PRD continue working on the basis of their recommendations, it would be clearly unacceptable for RS at some point", stated Radojicic. "One should concentrate on the essence of the reform, not on the procedure. I believe that RS will find a way to propose to the PRD its own police reform proposal", stated Rycroft. RS President Dragan Cavic believes that the authorities in RS and BiH would find an answer to all those controversial issues that need to be resolved. PINK - Dodik said that the RS Government wants to solve the issue of war crime indictees arrest: "Those that should be in The Hague should be aware of this...RS institutions and people from the political field are determined to finish this issue." principles present wide frame for reaching of the agreement	RTRS by Branka Kusmuk- Reinhard Priebe , Director of the EU General Directorate for Enlargement said to BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic , RS Prime Minister to BiH Milorad Dodik and FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic that three European principles for the police reform present wide frame for reaching the agreement on police reform. EU is very satisfied with the BiH negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement and believes that further improvements are necessary regarding the reform of broadcast public service, public administration at the BiH level, and cooperation with the ICTY, police reform Directorate should offer the solutions in accordance with three European principles", said Terzic. Reporter commented that BiH politicians interpret three principles on different way, especially the principle regarding development of police regions on functional basis. "I was pleased to hear this' three European principles for the police reform present wide frame for reaching the agreement on police reform'. This is what I am looking for, nothing more", said Dodik. Priebe asked from Dodik to ensure that the RS representative is again present in the PRD SB as a full-time member. PM answered the RS couldn't accept the democracy by which only one PRD Steering Board member out of 11 of them from RS. Draft strategy of public administration reform presented in Sarajevo	FTV by Zeljko Tica - The presentation of the Draft Public Administration Reform Strategy produced by the BiH experts on Thursday in Sarajevo marked the beginning of "yet another" reform in BiH. Public administration reform is one of the main priorities for successful completion of the negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the EU. The draft strategy would be forwarded to all relevant institutions at the state level. "The public administration reform is a big priority, for all levels of authority in BiH. The modernisation of public administration is a starting point for further improvements on BiH's path towards EU", said BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic.Director of the ECs General Directorate for Enlargement Reinhard Priebe also commented: "Without taking steps described in a strategy, in order to harmonize and strengthen all levels of public administration, it would be almost impossible for this country to make significant and quick progress on its path to Europe." Officials concluded public administration in BiH is too big, unproductive and cost ineffective as it spends over 60% of GDP. "We would have to improve the quality of work in the administration If we manage to satisfy the needs of BiH citizens, by doing so we would automatically satisfy the demands of the EU", concluded reform Coordinator Srdja Vranic. BHT1 - "The public administration reform should give citizens something valuable for their money; it should harmonize the whole series of departments on all levels of authority, and organize them in a way that any overlapping is avoided. The goal is to be able to provide more services for the same amount of money", stated the HR Christian Schwarz-Schilling. BiH CEC to start	Hayat By Lejla Gutlic - Eight coalitions are going to take part at October clearance of the	elections. In the following month, candidates are going to pass BiH Central Election Commission's procedure and only those who meet all the necessary terms are going to pass. "We are going to check whether all candidates meet the necessary law terms and whether there are any obstacles why they should not take part at the forthcoming elections", said Vehid Sehic , BiH CEC representative.

VL notes that the HR, Christian Schwarz- Schilling , sent the BiH Presidency, BiH CoM Chairman and BiH Foreign Minister a confidential letter in which he called for changes to the Agreement. Allegedly, the HR expressed concern that BiH will not be financially able to return the property in the next ten years i.e. it would be too much of a burden for the budgets.

	T. Calic – Serb movement of NGOs 'Spona' will in the next few days ask from the RSNA to organize referendum on future status of the RS within BiH.
	According to the Association president, Branislav Dukic , talks about the issue with the RS authorities are almost complete. "We earlier stated that we wanted to meet RS authorities, from the RS President onwards. We have to conduct one more meeting, which will be followed by a public rally", said Dukic, who did not want to reveal who the 'Spona' is to meet with.
Serbian Ambassador	Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Real bonds between Belgrade and Banja Luka can strengthen overall relations between Serbia and BiH' by Onasa – Commenting recent visit of Serbian Prime Minister Vojislav Kostunica to Banja Luka, in an interview for news agency Onasa, Serbian Ambassador Grujica Spasovic stated that this visit that was planed for November 2005 but was postponed due to the weather conditions: "Hence, visit is agreed regardless to the story of Montenegrin referendum, referendum mentioned by [RS Prime Minister Milorad] Dodik and Kosovo issue. Visit of Serbian Government should not be looked at in that context, one should have the Agreement on special and parallel relations [between SCG and RS] that was signed five years ago I think if the bonds between Belgrade and Banja Luka grow in right manner, it could strengthen overall relations between Serbia and BiH for it is about culture, education and economy." Rest of interview is dedicated to cooperation with ICTY and BiH lawsuit against SCG, where Spasovic repeated Serbian official stances. KosMet: critical of double standards of IC on these issues	Glas Srpske op-ed pg 2 'Drums and drummers' by Boro Maric – Writing about the situation in BiH and Serbia and KosMet, the author notes major forces have decided in Dayton that BiH will be consisted of two entities adding now these same forces have intended to give independence to Kosovo and Metohija. He interprets this that BiH borders cannot be changed while Serbia's border – whether it liked it or not – can be changed. The headline refers to the statement US State Secretary Condoleezza Rice , when she said 'as long as there is a pole, there will be a drum as well'. The author notes in this case BiH is a drum while major forces are drummers. He reminds of developments in BiH and Kosovo, saying that property and returns have been priority tasks in BiH, while Serb claims for this in KosMet have been gathering dust for seven years now.

Sarajevo is the most divided	Dani pgs 12-15, 76 'Sarajevo is the most divided town in BiH' by Vildana Selimbegovic and Ivan Lovrenovic – Commenting current religious and political issues in a lengthy interview for weekly, Sarajevo Bishop Pero Sudar says that he was sorry that communication between Catholic Church and Islamic Community in BiH is " not the best ", adding that relations between the religious communities should be more sincere and of more quality. Referring to the recently raised issue of insulting religious feelings in a poem of a high-school student who offended Jesus Christ, Sudar slammed idea of Sarajevo being the most tolerant town in BiH.

Dani welcomes HR's changes to the BiH Criminal Procedure Code, claiming it prevented release of Mandic and others	Dani pg 17 'Christian Schwarz-Schilling' – In its regular column 'Bosanski Barometer', Dani awarded the HR Christian Schwarz-Schilling with one star ['good move'] for introducing changes to the BiH Criminal Procedure Code, especially in terms of detention issues, which extends detention in the BiH Court to maximum 3 years. Commenting though that this " ageing German conservative needed all alarms to be turned on in order to do something by himself ," weekly adds this was slap to BiH House of Representatives Deputy Speaker Nikola Spiric and MP Tihomir Gligoric . Article also comments that establishment of Sarajevo Commission was only the excuse for Serb representatives to obstruct the work of BiH HoR, noting that their real intention was to obstruct adopting the changes to the BiH Criminal Procedure Code in order to provide legal basis for ones charged with most severe cases [like former Privredna Banka East Sarajevo owner Momcilo Mandic] to be set on release.
Update to Vitol affair: RTRS says ex RS PM Mikerevic was not informed of contract on time	RTRS by Nada Arlov - In a follow-up to 'Vitol' affair which emerged after this UK company has addressed a request for compensation upon violation of contract with oil refinery Bosanski Brod amounting to US $ 115 million, RTRS said it disclosed disputable contract between the refinery and 'Vitol' signed during the mandate of Dragan Mikerevic , former RS Prime Minister. Mikerevic has denied knowing about the contract, while RS President Dragan Cavic and than Energy Minister Milan Bogicevic said he knew about and denied his claims he learned about it 40 days after it was signed [See BiH Media Round-up June 22]. However, RTRS now claims Mikerevic did not know about this contract [for which its noted would be now paid by the RS citizens]. RTRS furthermore notes Mikerevic desperately tried to obtain original contract in English language and sent the letter requesting to see the contract from Bogicevic and former director of refinery Ilija Drpa , whonow confirms Mikrevic did not get it in period of 15 days. The following day Mikerevic allegedly received an answer from the RS President Dragan Cavic asking him to " pay respect " to Vitol " since it met its obligations ". Nowadays, Cavic claims he did not participate in signing of the contract, explaining he attended the meetings with 'Vitol' at the request of the RS Government. Mikerevic announced issuing public statement on the issue "soon". RS Interior Ministry suspect 25 persons for the abuses in the oil refinery 'Brod' and Minister Stanislav Cadjo said they would continue investigation, but didn't want to say whether RS Prosecution would deal with some of former high ranking RS officials.
