

Ministerial meetings in the margins of the Bled Strategic Forum

The High Representative Valentin Inzko met with Croatian Foreign Minister Vesna Pusić, Slovenian Foreign Minister Karl Erjavec and Montenegrin Minister for Foreign Affairs and European Integration Nebojša Kaluđerović.

The High Representative briefed the Ministers about current political developments which have once again slowed progress towards EU and NATO integration and are distracting politicians from the real concerns of BiH citizens.

“Under the present circumstances, the stability of BiH remains a challenge and continues to require a united international community”, said the High Representative. Inzko praised the commitment of Croatia, Slovenia and Montenegro to Bosnia and Herzegovina and its long-term objectives.

The High Representative Valentin Inzko was attending the seventh Bled Strategic Forum, an annual meeting in the Slovenian town of Bled, organised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia and the Centre for European Perspectives, that brings together senior policymakers from Southeast Europe and beyond.
