RS PM Dodik: RS still supports 3 EU principles/ UK Ambassador Rycroft: it is of crucial importance RS identifies a model in line with EC principles on police reform	RTRS – Today in Banja Luka, Milorad Dodik , RS Premier, met with Matthew Rycroft , British Ambassador to BiH. The topic of the meeting was future status of OHR and police reform. Dodik has stated: “What remains a problem is a police reform. I presented my stance on this. I am of the view it is realistic to expect that serious talks at political level are held regarding reform and this process is de-blocked. Anyway, RS still supports three European principles.” Rycroft stated police reform is one of key conditions for signing of SAA agreement. It is of crucial importance that RS identifies a model, that would incorporate 3 EU principles, said British Ambassador, expressing certainty it would succeed in that. He also noted that in wider context we discussed that BiH should become a more normal state as it approaches to EU, which means we will work of altering IC’ role in BiH. SRNA – Rycroft also met the RS NA Speaker Igor Radojicic , to discuss police reform and said on the issue: “We are more focused on what kind of police structure BiH should have and we are of the view that if a concrete and acceptable proposal is proposed, the procedure itself would be put in order.”
RS NA Speaker: RS will never accept the current way of police reform	RTRS – In an interview to SRNA news agency, Igor Radojicic , RS NA Speaker, has stated that the manner in which police reform is taking place is not neither it will be acceptable for the RS. According to Radojicic, PRD SB is working in an unilateral manner, since only F BiH side, which holds firm majority at PRD SB and support for its plans and recommendations, is working, and they are convinced they have a support of a part of IC on this, owing to which reason they can exert pressure against RS. He also said that blockade, which has been lasting for 2 months, will be formalized in autumn time, when RS Government and RS NA reject what is unilaterally proposed.

DA: MPs in BiH Parliament asking for "unseen" privileges	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Parliamentarians asking for unseen privileges' by S.Numanovic- DA comments that an average parliamentarian at the BiH level of institution can earn about 4000 KM easily, however they are still trying to fight for new privileges as the BiH Parliament's Administrative Commission has approved draft Law on Rights and Obligations of MPs. These changes, as DA carries, would additionally cost taxpayers at least 2 million KM per year. DA also reminds that the PDHR, Lawrence Butler, has assessed these law changes as "unseen". Beside the pension, MPs would have a life insurance, which would be considered as addition to the pension. SDA's Sefik Dzaferovic says that SDA will not support the law. "That is our definite stance. This law contains solutions which are inappropriate to difficult economic and social situation in BiH," said Dzaferovic. SBiH's Beriz Belkic says that no one has arguments that could dispute Butler's claim, adding that this law is "doomed" and won't be realized. SDS's Momcilo Novakovic has a different stance, stressing that the only change is in conditions of retirement and that there is only few MPs who obtain two or more mandates. "This issue needs to be defined by the law and I agree that in such situation, which BiH is in, one should be sensitive. I believe hat there is a solution for that," said Novakovic.BHT 1 by Mirela Cosic - BHT 1 also carries the criticism of the demands by the parliaments for larger benefirts. He concludes: "If joint armed forces are put under question, it would bring ten-years lasting, troublesome reform process for setting normal state to its bitter end. Of course, if such intentions are not prevented on time."
